Rudolph Leonhard Tafel, 1877 Emanuel Swedenborg Emanuel Swedenborg, 2003-04-21 Best known for his focus on the intuitive force within Emanuel Swedenborg 1688-1772 also anticipated major modern discoveries in mineralogy psychology and anatomy In this succinct and readable collection Stanley expertly brings the most significant writings from Swedenborg's oeuvre together showing readers a man who created a hieroglyphic language reimagined the Genesis story influenced Blake Balzac Strindberg and Yeats and authored a number of anonymous works that put the Swedish clergy of his day on high alert This is the fourth title in the Western Esoteric Masters Series from North Atlantic Books The Ethics of Reading According to Emmanuel Levinas Roland A. Champagne, 2023-06-05 Reading a text is an ethical activity for Emmanuel Levinas His moral philosophy considers written texts to be natural places to discover relations of responsibility in Western philosophical systems which are marked by extreme violence and totalizing hatred While ethics is understood to mean a relationship with the other and reading is the appropriation of the other to the self readings according to Levinas naturally entail relationships with the other Levinas's own writings are often fraught with the struggle between his own maleness the concerns of feminism and the Judaism that marks his contributions to the debates of the Talmud This book uses male feminism as its perspective in presenting the applications of Levinas's ethical vision to texts whose readings have presented moral dilemmas for women readers Levinas's philosophical theories can provide keys to unlock the difficulties of these texts whose readings will provide models of reading as ethical acts beginning with the ethical contract in Song of Songs where the assumption of a woman writer begins the elaboration of issues that sets a male reader as her other From the reader's vantage point of seeing the self as other other issues of male feminism become increasingly poignant ranging from the solicitude of listening to Celine Chapter 2 the responsibility for noise in Nizan Chapter 3 the asymmetrical pattern of face to face relationships in Maupassant Chapter 4

the sovereignty of laughter in Bataille and Zola Chapter 5 the call of the other in Italo Svevo Chapter 6 the Woman as Other in Breton Chapter 7 the ethical self in Drieu la Rochelle Chapter 8 the response to Hannah Arendt Chapter 9 and the vulnerability of Bernard Henri Lvy Chapter 10 The male feminist reader is thus the incarnation of the struggle at the core of the issues outlined by Levinas for the act of reading as an ethical endeavor
