Empire Building And Empire Builders Twelve Studies:

Empire-building and Empire-builders Edward Ingram, 2013-12-16 The twelve studies of empire building and empire builders which make up this volume range widely across the dream world that was the British Empire from the late eighteenth century to the Second World War The essays re interpret the work of imperial heroes eminent historians and fictional heroines They illustrate the variety of techniques used by British empire builders and the variety of explanations they gave to account for their sometimes infamous behaviour Managing the Business of Empire Peter Burroughs, A.J. Stockwell, 2013-05-13 This collection of essays honours David Fieldhouse latterly Vere Harmsworth Professor of Imperial and Naval History at Cambridge and a foremost authority on the economics of the modern British Empire The contributors include an impressive array of former students colleagues and friends and their subjects range widely across the economic and administrative fields of British imperial history in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Reflecting many of Fieldhouse's own areas of scholarly interest the essays address economics and business theories of imperialism strategies of administration and decolonization The Statecraft of British Imperialism Robert D. King, Robin W. Kilson, 1999 These stimulating essays reassess the meaning of British imperialism in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries They are written by leading authorities in the field and range in scope from the aftermath of the American revolution to the liquidation of the British empire from the Caribbean to the Pacific from Suez to Hong Kong Conquest and Resistance in the Ethiopian Empire, 1880 - 1974 Abbas Gnamo, 2014-01-23 This work examines the philosophical origins of Oromo egalitarian and democratic thoughts and practice the Gadaa Qaalluu system kinship organization the introduction and spread of Islam and the consequent socio cultural change It sheds light on the advent of the Ethiopian empire under Menelik II its conquests and Arsi Oromo fierce resistance 1880 1900 the nature and legacy of Ethiopian imperial polity centre periphery relations feudal political economy and its impacts on the newly conquered regions with a focus on Arsi Oromo country The book also analyzes the root causes of the national political crisis including but not limited to the attempts at transforming the empire state to a nation state around a single culture contested definition of national identity and state legitimacy grievance narratives uprisings the birth and development of competing nationalisms as well as the limitations of the current ethnic federalism to address the national question in Ethiopia Colonialism as Civilizing Mission Harald Fischer-Tiné, Michael Mann, 2004 Inherent in colonialism was the idea of self legitimation the most powerful tool of which was the colonizer's claim to bring the fruits of progress and modernity to the subject people In colonial logic people who were different because they were inferior had to be made similar and hence equal by civilizing them However once this equality had been attained the very basis for colonial rule would vanish Colonialism as Civilizing Mission explores British colonial ideology at work in South Asia Ranging from studies on sport and national education and pulp fiction to infanticide psychiatric therapy and religion these essays on the various forms expressions and consequences of the British civilizing mission in South Asia shed light on a topic that even today continues to be an important factor in South Asian politics

Youth and Empire David M. Pomfret, 2015-12-16 This is the first study of its kind to provide such a broadly comparative and in depth analysis of children and empire Youth and Empire brings to light new research and new interpretations on two relatively neglected fields of study the history of imperialism in East and South East Asia and more pointedly the influence of childhood and children s voices on modern empires By utilizing a diverse range of unpublished source materials drawn from three different continents David M Pomfret examines the emergence of children and childhood as a central historical force in the global history of empire in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries This book is unusual in its scope extending across the two empires of Britain and France and to points of intense impact in tropical places where indigenous immigrant and foreign cultures mixed Hong Kong Singapore Saigon and Hanoi It thereby shows how childhood was crucial to definitions of race and thus European authority in these parts of the world By examining the various contradictory and overlapping meanings of childhood in colonial Asia Pomfret is able to provide new and often surprising readings of a set of problems that continue to trouble our contemporary world

Promised Lands Jonathan Parry, 2024-12-10 A major history of the British Empire s early involvement in the Middle East Napoleon s invasion of Egypt in 1798 showed how vulnerable India was to attack by France and Russia It forced the British Empire to try to secure the two routes that a European might use to reach the subcontinent through Egypt and the Red Sea and through Baghdad and the Persian Gulf Promised Lands is a panoramic history of this vibrant and explosive age Charting the development of Britain s political interest in the Middle East from the Napoleonic Wars to the Crimean War in the 1850s Jonathan Parry examines the various strategies employed by British and Indian officials describing how they sought influence with local Arabs Mamluks Kurds Christians and Jews He tells a story of commercial and naval power boosted by the arrival of steamships in the 1830s and discusses how classical and biblical history fed into British visions of what these lands might become The region was subject to the Ottoman Empire yet the sultan s grip on it appeared weak Should Ottoman claims to sovereignty be recognised and exploited or ignored and opposed Could the Sultan s government be made to support British objectives or would it always favour France or Russia Promised Lands shows how what started as a geopolitical contest became a drama about diplomatic competition religion race and the unforeseen consequences of history

Arabian Seas 1700 - 1763 Rene Barendse, 2009-10-26 The Western Indian Ocean in the Eighteenth Century is the first of four volumes offering a sweeping panorama of the Arabian Seas during the early modern period Focusing on the period 1700 1763 the first volume concentrates on daily life in littoral societies examining long term issues including climatic change famine and the structures of fishing communities The volume examines littoral societies in each of the major coastal areas of the Western Indian Ocean East Africa the Red Seas the Persian Gulf and its traditional ties to surrounding hinterlands as well as to the west coast of India While having particular interest to readers concerned with Indian Ocean history as an absorbing and innovative account of a much neglected albeit critical area and period Arabian Seas 1700 1763

will be of great interest to anyone interested in early modern maritime social or economic history Kings Gangsters and Companies volume two of Arabian Seas 1700 1763 focuses on European relations with the major states and societies of the Western Indian Ocean during the eighteenth century As such it traces the major structural changes in African South Asian and Middle Eastern societies during this period Chapters examine European communities and their relations with the societies of the Indian Ocean basin the daily life of European soldiers and merchants relations with Indian women European views on the Indian caste system as well as the governmental systems they encountered The volume also details the importance of Indian and Persian merchant communities in the Indian Ocean trading system and the impact of war on the economic development of this system during the eighteenth century Men and Merchandise the third volume of Arabian Seas 1700 1763 provides a detailed examination of the economic and social structures in the Western Indian Ocean focusing on key commodities like bullion textiles and the slave trade Readers will also encounter interesting vignettes of daily life an Indian nautch girl worried about her inheritance a Portuguese gangster friar and pariah workers the infamous buccaneers of Madagascar coffee traders from Yemen Cairo and the Crimea and Iraqi and Iranian bankers who all had relevance to this vast economic system Men and Merchandise provides insights into other traditionally ignored aspects in the traditional historiography including uprisings aboard slave ships and details of maroon societies involving refugee slaves in India and Mauritius as well as Dutch slave soldiers in the Persian Gulf As such it will prove of great interest to any reader concerned with the social and economic history of the Indian Ocean basin Europe in Asia the fourth volume and final volume in Arabian Seas 1700 1763 details the early phase of European territorial empire building in the western Indian Ocean basin Particular attention is given to the much neglected history of the Portuguese Estado da India and the attempts of the Portuguese Crown to reform its administration and dwindling possessions in the eighteenth century The volume examines the direct legacies of the longstanding Portuguese imperial presence in the Arabian Seas including the experiences of Indian Catholic communities as well as the establishment of Indian settlements and communities in East Africa Finally the volume provides an exhaustive treatment of the structures and history of the Dutch East India Company VOC and English East India Company EIC the establishment of the vast private co

A Voyage to India 1796-1797 Carl Anderson, 2014-01-21 In June 1796 a 17 year old Anglo Irish youth Jonathan Henry Lovett was appointed a junior clerk with the British East India Company With Britain at war with France Lovett sailed from England to India aboard the East Indiaman Malabar It took the ship seven months to reach Bombay where Lovett disembarked in January 1797 Lovett kept a journal during the voyage in which he recorded his observations of seabirds fish and marine life seen from the quarterdeck of the Malabar During a stopover at the Cape of Good Hope he described its rugged mountains exotic wildlife its Dutch and native inhabitants British military encampments and ships coming and going Originally written in two volumes recently discovered in libraries 7 000 miles apart the complete Jonathan Lovett journal comes together here for the first time in living memory Excerpts from the Malabar s logbook and traditionally ignored aspects in the traditional historiography including uprisings aboard slave ships and details of maroon societies involving refugee slaves in India and Mauritius as well as Dutch slave soldiers in the Persian Gulf. As such it will prove of great interest to any reader concerned with the social and economic history of the Indian Ocean basin. Europe in Asia the fourth volume and final volume in Arabian Seas 1700-1763 details the early phase of European territorial empire building in the western Indian Ocean basin. Particular attention is given to the much neglected history of the Portuguese Estado da Índia and the attempts of the Portuguese Crown to reform its administration and dwindling possessions in the eighteenth century. The volume examines the direct legacies of the longstanding Portuguese imperial presence in the Arabian Seas including the experiences of Indian Catholic communities as well as the establishment of Indian settlements and communities in East Africa. Finally the volume provides an exhaustive treatment of the structures and history of the Dutch East India Company (VOC) and English East India Company (EIC), the establishment of the vast private country trade of the EIC and the reasons for the relative decline of the VOC and the rise of English power in the region during the eighteenth century.

Agreeable News from Persia D.T. Potts, 2022-09-06 Eighteenth and nineteenth century European British and American newspapers constitute a rich and largely untapped source of contemporary often eyewitness accounts of historical events and opinions concerning Iran from the late Safavid 1712 through the Qajar c. 1797-1920 period. This study collects and annotates thousands of articles published in the Colonial and early Republican American newspapers from the first mention of events in Persia in the American press 1712 to the death of Mohammad Shah 1848, unlocking for the first time a wealth of information on Iran and its place in the world during the 18th and early 19th century.

Architektur der Diplomatie Jakob Hort, 2014-09-17 Grundlegende Entwicklungen in den internationalen Beziehungen des 19. Jahrhunderts wie die Transformation des Staatensystems, der Wandel diplomatischer Praktiken und sich verschiebende Spielräume auf internationaler Ebene. Akteure untersucht Jakob Hort in ganz neuer Weise anhand der Architektur und Baugeschichte von Botschaftsgebäuden. Errichtet in den Zentren anderer Staaten, nahmen Botschaftsgebäude unter staatlichen Repräsentationsbauten eine singuläre Stellung ein. Ihre Architektur und Symbolik diente dem repräsentierten Staat zur Formulierung und Vermittlung eines spezifischen Geltungsanspruchs der lokalen Bevölkerung als Projektionsfläche von Selbst und Fremdbildern und anderen Missionen vor Ort. Als Vergleichsmaßstab bei der eigenen Positionierung im Ringen um Einfluss und Prestige. In den Auseinandersetzungen um die Bauten überschneiden sich nationale Repräsentationsvorstellungen, bilaterale Beziehungen und internationale Konstellationen und offenbaren sich Interessen, Perzeptionen, Erwartungshorizonte und Einflussmöglichkeiten der unterschiedlichen Akteure.
