In the World, But Not of the World Andrew L. Fitz-Gibbon, 2000-01-01 In the World But Not of the World explores the threefold tension among Alasdair MacIntyre's prognosis for Western society the desires of some for a social transformation with a Christian moral vision at the sacred centre and a baptist understanding of Christianity as essentially voluntary non sacralist discipleship Andrew Fitz Gibbon uses five contemporary Christian social thinkers from different traditions as conversation partners Through his examination of these thinkers Fitz Gibbon explores how the church may continue to truthfully narrate the Christian story in the midst of the moral tensions of late capitalist Western society His creative conclusion is that the church at the beginning of the twenty first century can move toward a resolution of the central tension of being in the world but not of the world through a synthesis of the believers church tradition and an affirmation of communitarian liberal democracy
