challenged the very idea that a unified self or personal identity even exists Martin and Barresi cover a number of issues broached by philosophers and psychologists such as the existence of a fixed and unchanging self and whether the concept of the soul has a use outside of religious contexts They address the question of whether notions of the soul and the self are still viable in today's world Together they reveal the fascinating ways in which great thinkers have grappled with these and other questions and the astounding impact their ideas have had on the development of self understanding in the west Ut pictura amor Walter Melion, Michael Zell, Joanna Woodall, 2017-11-06 Ut pictura amor The Reflexive Imagery of Love in Artistic Theory and Practice 1500-1700 examines the related themes of lovemaking and image making in the visual arts of Europe, China, Japan and Persia The term reflexive is here used to refer to images that invite reflection not only on their form, function and meaning but also on their genesis and mode of production Early modern artists often fashioned reflexive images and effigies of this kind that appraise love by exploring the lineaments of the pictorial or sculptural image and complementarily appraise the pictorial or sculptural image by exploring the nature of love Hence the book's epigraph ut pictura amor as is a picture so is love
