Taberner, 2004-11-01 Literary fiction in Germany has long been a medium for contemplation of the nation and questions of national identity From the mid 1990s in the wake of heated debates on the future direction of culture politics and society in a more normal united country German literature has become increasingly diverse and seemingly disparate at the one extreme it represents the attempt to reinvent German traditions at the other the unmistakable influence of Anglo American forms and pop literature A shared concern of almost all of recent German fiction however is the contemporary debate on globalisation its nature impact and consequences for local culture In its engagement with globalisation the literature of the Berlin Republic continues the long established practice of reflection on what it is to be German This book investigates literary responses to the phenomenon of globalisation The subject is approached from a wide range of thematic and theoretical perspectives in twelve chapters which taken together also provide an overview of German fiction from the mid 1990s to the present The book serves both as an introduction to contemporary German literature for university students of German and as a resource for scholars interested in culture and society in the Berlin Republic Cosmopolitan Anxieties Ruth

Gendering Knowledge in Africa and the African Diaspora Toyin Falola, Olajumoke Yacob-Haliso, 2017-07-14 Gendering Knowledge in Africa and the African Diaspora addresses the question of to what extent the history of gender in Africa is appropriately inscribed in narratives of power patriarchy migration identity and women and men's subjection emasculation and empowerment The book weaves together compelling narratives about women men and gender relations in Africa and the African Diaspora from multidisciplinary perspectives with a view to advancing original ways of understanding these subjects The chapters achieve three things first they deliberately target long held but erroneous notions about patriarchy power gender migration and masculinity in Africa and of the African Diaspora vigorously contesting these and debunking them second they unearth previously marginalized and little known histories depicting the dynamics of gender and power in places ranging from Angola to Arabia to America and in different time periods decidedly gendering the previously male dominated discourse and third they ultimately aim to re-write the stories of women and gender relations in Africa and in the African Diaspora As such this work is an important read for scholars of African history gender and the African Diaspora This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies Diaspora Studies Gender and History

Not So Plain as Black and White Patricia M. Mazón, Reinhild Steingröver, 2005 After World War II brown babies were born to African American GIs stationed in Germany and German mothers Today there are 500 000 Afro Germans in Germany out of a population of 80 million Nevertheless German society still sees them as foreigners assuming they are either African or

African American but never German As editors Patricia Mazon and Reinhild Steingrover argue the experience of Afro Germans provides insight into contemporary Germany's transformation willing or not into a multicultural society Furthermore looking at Afro Germans allows us to see another dimension of the ideas of race that shaped the twentieth century and led to the Holocaust Jacket Cultural Identity in Transition Jari Kupiainen, Erkki Sevänen, John Stotesbury, 2004 Cultural Identity In Transition Analyses The Challenges That Globalisation And Modernisation Have Brought To Cultural Identity In Recent Years This Collection Of Articles Highlights Some Of The Central Theoretical Ideas And Models Currently Used In The Analysis Of Cultural Identity In The Social And Cultural Sciences While The Book's Main Regional Focus Is On Northern Europe This Is Complemented By Several Case Studies Addressing Issues Of Cultural Identity In Indigenous And Ethnic Communities In Literary And Artistic Expression And In Terms Of National Politics Around The World The Book Discusses In Detail The Questions Like What Is At Stake In The Global Culture Industry In Terms Of Cultural Identity How Do The Internet And Information Technology In General Empower Local Communities What Kinds Of Political Struggles And Conflicts Can Be Associated With The Processes Of Cultural Identity Cultural Identities Are In Transition But In What Direction Are They Moving Cultural Identity In Transition Will Be Essential Reading For University Students And Researchers In Sociology Anthropology And Cultural And Literary Studies Monatshefte, 2000 Intercultural literacies and German in the classroom Christoph Lorey, John L.
