Fritz Lang In Hollywood German:

Fritz Lang Charles River Editors, 2019-12-25 Includes pictures Includes a bibliography for further reading I was something that is always hated in Hollywood a perfectionist nobody likes a perfectionist you know Fritz Lang While it's easily forgotten today during the early 20th century various European countries had vibrant film industries and even though Hollywood had already staked its claim as the forerunner of the international cinematic landscape by the 1920s national cinemas in Sweden Germany and elsewhere throughout Western Europe enjoyed great power during this period During that time Germany's most renowned film directors were pioneering the genre known as Expressionism and within it Fritz Lang was known as the Master of Darkness Together with his eventual wife Thea von Harbou Lang wrote a number of acclaimed movies including Dr Mabuse the Gambler 1922 Die Nibelungen 1924 Metropolis 1927 and Woman in the Moon 1929 Eventually a number of Europe's biggest movie stars and directors came to Hollywood such as Greta Garbo Ingrid Bergman and Alfred Hitchcock but Lang's course to America came under far different circumstances As Adolf Hitler rose to power and strengthened the Nazis grip over Germany the party's coarse antisemitism took root across all segments of society As Jews were further persecuted German Jews from all walks of life went into exile and the loss of so many bright minds has led historians to the conclusion that the exodus could have made the difference in World War II As scientists like Albert Einstein made their way out of the country to safety they served as further proof that in addition to being dogmatically racist the Nazis were also incompetent and self-defeating Coinciding with Hitler's rise Lang was filming The Testament of Dr Mabuse and it was quickly viewed as a biting commentary on the Nazi Party On March 30 1933 the Nazi regime banned it and Lang later claimed that propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels confided to him that he loved the movie By then Lang was known for noir films especially M a dark movie about a child murderer Compelled to leave Germany Lang made his way to Hollywood and quickly established himself there leading to a career spanning 20 years Continuing with the same themes as the ones he used in Germany Lang helped establish noir as one of the most popular film genres of the 1950s in America with influential works like Scarlett Street and his most famous film The Big Heat 1953 By 1960 however his health began to decline and thus so did his output which was somewhat ironic because he brought the Mabuse series of films full circle with 1960's The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse which revived interest in Mabuse and led to more films being made for the series As fate would have it though those films would be produced by German producer Artur Brauner not Lang himself Fritz Lang The Life and Legacy of the Influential German American Film Legend chronicles his career in front of the camera and behind it Along with pictures depicting important people places and events you will learn about Lang like never before Fritz Lang in America Peter Bogdanovich, 1967 An interview with Fritz Lang The Films of Fritz Lang Tom Gunning, 2019-07-25 In this volume Tom Gunning examines the films of Fritz Lang not only as a stylistically coherent body of work but as an attempt to portray the modern world through cinema The world of modernity in which systems replace individuals is conveyed by Lang's mastery of cinematic set design composition and editing Lang presents not only a decades long vision of cinematic narrative which can be compared to that of Alfred Hitchcock or Jean Renoir but a view of modernity that relates strongly to the ideas of Adorno Brecht Benjamin and Kracauer From the sweeping allegorical films of the 20s to the chilly and abstract thrillers of the 50s Lang s films Gunning claims are among the most precious records of the twentieth century The Films of Fritz Lang immeasurably enriches our understanding of a great artist and in so doing reimagines what a film arlist is an author who fades away even in being recognised and interpreted an enigmatic figure at the junction of aesthetics history biography and theory Fritz Lang, a Guide to References and Resources E. Entertaining German Culture Stephan Ehrig, Benjamin Schaper, Elizabeth Ward, 2023-08-11 Audiences for contemporary German film and television are becoming increasingly transnational and depictions of German cultural history are moving beyond the typical post war focus on Germany's problematic past Entertaining German Culture explores this radical shift building on recent research into transnational culture to argue that a new process of internal and external cultural reabsorption is taking place through areas of mutually assimilating cultural exchange such as streaming services an increasingly international film market and the import and export of Anglo American media formats
