Taken in Adultery B. C. Jennings, 197? Redemption As A Literary Icon Dr. Fr. Binoj Mathew, O.S.S.T., 2021-07-21
Concept of Redemption in the Selected Works of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Graham Greene: A Comparative Perspective in the Light of the Catholic Theme of Redemption as Elucidated by John deMatha and the Trinitarians is an English Literature book that analyzes the selected works of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Graham Greene. The intended objective is to demonstrate how the Catholic theme of redemption influences these authors, the primary source for which is the Holy Bible. A critical and interpretative framework for the thematic analysis of literary texts focused on the idea of redemption has been created based on the above findings. Applying the framework on these authors suggests that life is a journey from egoism to glorification, which is also a journey to self-emptying. It is a gradual transformation of the human self to the divine self. The book's conclusion consolidates the findings of the analysis and makes a comparative evaluation of the contrasting readings of the novels of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Graham Greene. It also gives new levels of fiction readings with the theme of redemption. The framework structure created in chapter IV to analyze the various nuances of redemption in English Literature will serve as a tool to explore further works.

To Liberate and Redeem Edward LeRoy Long, 2009-12-01 In To Liberate and Redeem, scholar Edward LeRoy Long Jr. surveys the full biblical narrative, setting the context by beginning with the oppression of Israel's enslavement and the Exodus liberation, then looking back to the Creation and forward to Christ. Paul and the early church. This original approach demonstrates how the unfolding drama of the Bible is marked by those who need liberation because they are trapped in oppressive structures and those who, once freed, must faithfully construct communities of redemption so as not to become oppressors themselves. From this basis, Long explores how present-day moral decisions can be informed by studying the ways in which our biblical forebears wrestled with concerns similar to our own while standing in faithful responsiveness to God.

Sin and Redemption Harold Bloom, Blake Hobby, 2010 The allied themes of sin and redemption are at the heart of many classics of religious literature, and even secular writers feel compelled to explore the role of sin and redemption in such works as King Lear, Moby Dick, Paradise Lost, The Portrait of a Lady, The Waste Land, and many more works. Featuring original essays and excerpts from previously published critical analyses, this addition to the Bloom's Literary Themes series gives students valuable insight into the title's subject theme.

Have you truly been born again of water and the Spirit? Rev. Paul C. Jong, This title s main subject is to be born again of Water and the Spirit It has the originality on the subject In other words this book clearly tells us what being born again is and how to be born again of water and the Spirit in strict accordance with the Bible The water symbolizes the baptism of Jesus at the Jordan and the Bible says that all our sins were passed on to Jesus when He was baptized by John the Baptist John was the representative of all mankind and a descendant of Aaron the High priest Aaron laid his hands on the head of the scapegoat and passed all the yearly sins of the Israelites onto it on the Day of Atonement It is a shadow of the good things to come The baptism of Jesus is the antitype of the laying on of hands Jesus was baptized in the form of the laying on of hands at the Jordan So He took away all the sins of the world through His baptism and was crucified to pay for the sins But most Christians don t know why Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist in the Jordan Jesus baptism is the keyword of this book and the indispensable part of the Gospel of Water and the Spirit We can be born again only by believing in the baptism of Jesus and His Cross
