From Cosmogony to Exorcism in a Javanese Genesis Stephen C. Headley, 2001-02-01 In 1925 the influential Dutch anthropologist W H Rassers posed the question of the relationship of myth to ritual taking as his case study the Javanese myth of the birth of the man eating demon Kala The light shed by this myth and its re enactment on the social morphology of Java was immediately the subject of debate among students of Javanese culture Stephen C Headley translates and studies ritual and myth in their variant forms He expands illuminatingly upon Rasser s general proposition that the movement from cosmogony to exorcism founds fundamental social forms within which values circulate in Javanese society Richly detailed descriptions confirm the permanence of these networks of circulating values in modern day Java and their persistence in the face of contemporary individualism

Tantric Temples Peter Levenda, 2011-11-01 Tantra is one of the most misunderstood of the esoteric disciplines In order to get a clear idea as to the nature of Tantric ritual and belief it is necessary to go where Tantra is still practiced and from where important Tantric teachings originated a thousand years ago the island of Java in present day Indonesia This book illustrates the history of Tantrism in Java with more than a hundred photographs of temples statues and iconography dedicated to the system some rarely seen before including the recently excavated white temple of Yogyakarta and accounts of contemporary practices in the shrines cemeteries and secret schools of Java It is this Tantra the Tantra of Java that has influenced secret societies mystics alchemists Kabbalists and magicians for hundreds if not thousands of years This book tells the story of how human sexuality became a metaphor and a template for both spiritual transformation and the manipulation of reality of how various sexual acts and psycho biological states became the basis for a comprehensive cosmology that incorporates every aspect of human experience Sometimes the secrets are buried where you least expect to find them Sometimes they are hidden in plain sight Sometimes they are both In the largest Muslim country in the world we will discover a path of Tantra so unique yet so vibrant and alive that we will be astonished that no one had heard of it until now

The Encoded Cirebon Mask Laurie Margot Ross, 2016-08-29 In The Encoded Cirebon Mask Materiality Flow and Meaning along Java s Islamic Northwest Coast Laurie Margot Ross situates masks and masked dancing in the Cirebon region of Java Indonesia as an original expression of Islam This is a different view from that of many scholars who argue that canonical prohibitions on fashioning idols and imagery prove that masks are mere relics of indigenous beliefs that Muslim travelers could not eradicate Making use of archives oral histories and the performing objects themselves Ross traces the mask s trajectory from a popular entertainment in Cirebon once a portal of global exchange to a stimulus for establishing a deeper connection to God in late colonial Java and eventual links to nationalism in post independence Indonesia

Islam and Citizenship in Indonesia Robert W. Hefner, 2023-12-19 Islam and Citizenship in Indonesia examines the conditions facilitating democracy women s rights and inclusive citizenship in Indonesia the most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy in the world The book shows that Muslim understandings of Islamic traditions and ethics have coevolved with the understanding and practice of democracy and citizen belonging Following thirty two years of authoritarian rule in 1998 this sprawling Southeast Asian country returned to electoral democracy The achievement brought with it however an upsurge in both the numbers and assertiveness of Islamist militias as well as a sharp increase in violence against religious minorities The resulting mobilizations have pitted the Muslim supporters of an Indonesian variety of inclusive citizenship against populist proponents of Islamist majoritarianism Seen from this historical example the book demonstrates that Muslim actors come to know and practice Islam in a manner not determined in an unchanging way by scriptural commands but in coevolution with broader currents in politics society and citizen belonging By exploring these questions in both an Indonesian and comparative context this book offers important lessons on the challenge of democracy and inclusive citizenship in the Muslim majority world Well written and informative this book will be suitable for adoption in university courses on Islam Southeast Asian Politics Indonesian and Asian studies as well as courses dealing with religion democracy and citizen belonging in multicultural societies around the world The book will be of interest to the general reader with an interest in Islam citizenship and democracy

Engaging Evil William C. Olsen, Thomas J. Csordas, 2019-05-03 Anthropologists have expressed wariness about the concept of evil even in discussions of morality and ethics in part because the concept carries its own cultural baggage and theological implications in Euro American societies Addressing the problem of evil as a distinctly human phenomenon and a category of ethnographic analysis this volume shows the usefulness of engaging evil as a descriptor of empirical reality where concepts such as violence criminality and hatred fall short of capturing the darkest side of human existence

Islamic Prayer Across the Indian Ocean Stephen Headley, David Parkin, 2018-10-24 In its attempt to squash the influence of animism and pantheism or polytheism and to promote the idea of the One and Only Absolute God Islam has come up against a tendency within itself to incorporate certain local religious traditions and practices This book shares that combination of universality and local particularity exploring this paradox and the contradictory tendencies contained in it

Muslim Merit-making in Thailand's Far-South Christopher M. Joll, 2011-11-02 This volume provides an ethnographic description of Muslim merit making rhetoric rituals and rationales in Thailand s Malay far south This study is situated in Cabetigo one of Pattani s oldest and most important Malay communities that has been subjected to a range of Thai and Islamic influences over the last hundred years The volume describes religious rhetoric related to merit making being conducted in both Thai and Malay that the spiritual currency of merit is generated through the performance of locally occurring Malay adat and globally normative amal ibadat

Concerning the rationale for merit making merit makers are motivated by both a desire to ensure their own comfort in the grave and personal vindication at judgment as well as to transfer merit for those already in the grave who are known to the merit maker While the rhetoric elements of Muslim merit making reveal Thai influence its ritual elements confirm the local impact of reformist activism Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia Robert W. Hefner, 2018-01-03 Few countries as culturally rich politically pivotal and naturally beautiful as Indonesia are as often misrepresented in global media and conversation Stretching 3 400 miles east to west along the equator Indonesia is the fourth most populous country in the world and home to more than four hundred ethnic groups and several major world religions This sprawling Southeast Asian nation is also the world's most populous Muslim majority country and the third largest democracy Although in recent years the country has experienced serious challenges with regard to religious harmony its trillion dollar economy is booming and its press and public sphere are among the most vibrant in Asia A land of cultural contrasts contests and contradictions this ever evolving country is today rising to even greater global prominence even as it redefines the terms of its national religious and civic identity The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Indonesia offers an overview of the modern making and contemporary dynamics of culture society and politics in this powerful Asian nation It provides a comprehensive survey of key issues in Indonesian politics economics religion and society It is divided into six sections organized as follows Cultural Legacies and Political Junctures Contemporary Politics and Plurality Markets and Economic Cultures Muslims and Religious Plurality Gender and Sexuality Indonesia in an Age of Multiple Globalizations Bringing together original contributions by leading scholars of Indonesia in law political science history anthropology sociology religious studies and gender studies this Handbook provides an up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous exploration of Indonesia It will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Indonesian politics economics religion and society in an accessible format Personal States Catherine Alexander, 2002 Catherine Alexander charts how Turkish people both within and outside the state bureaucracy attempt to personalise the impersonality of the state Based on a detailed study of the nationalized Turkish Sugar Corporation she considers how people from the highest levels of the state bureaucracy to farming villages understand the state and how in turn they imagine themselves to be perceived The narratives and metaphors used in these constructions draw on resources close to hand such as the material organization of state factory compounds state personnel encountered in the course of everyday life and the image of the family structure By also exploring notions of state and personhood within the highest echelons of the administration itself Alexander shows how ideas of the state recede once one is actually within For officials the state becomes other institutions and Ministries with which they have little contact The continual process of striving to make connections with other groups and people occurs both at all hierarchical levels of the Sugar Corporation and between farmers and factory engineers This elegant nuanced ethnography of modernity will cause scholars of state institutions across a broad range of disciplines radically to rethink

what the state actually is and the relations that create it thus taking understandings of the state to an entirely new level
