McNeil,2023-04-04 Today s multi modal participatory exhibitions and attractions are bound by a desire to convey information excite the viewer and create social and narrative experiences Without design at the helm and employed effectively these experiential moments would not become lasting memories that inform and inspire an increasingly sophisticated audience This full color illustrated handbook based on the author's research and expertise as an exhibition designer, educator and critic is the first title to simultaneously explain how to design exhibitions and attractions successfully contextualize contemporary exhibition design practice through its historical and theoretical underpinnings, elevate understanding of one of the most rapidly evolving and transdisciplinary creative disciplines, illuminate exhibition design's contributions to the expanding global market for civic, cultural, commercial and entertainment experiences and reframe the exhibition design process using a set of recurring tropes and the methods they employ, making this book distinct from other practice-based museological or commercially driven titles. This full color book with over 250 photographs and drawings uses real world examples, museum and exhibition design studio profiles, historical and contemporary voices and draw on the author's own creative practice and exhibition making experience as well as contributions from his extensive network of international museum attraction and design professionals. The author introduces a new methodology for understanding exhibition and experience design. One that elevates understanding of one of the most rapidly evolving and transdisciplinary creative disciplines. Twelve easy to follow illustrated chapters introduce a set of reoccurring exhibition design conventions or tropes that are omnipresent in exhibition making and can be used to chart a new methodology for understanding exhibition design and its process.
