Changing European Commission Dionyssis G. Dimitrakopoulos, 2004-07-23 This book newly available in paperback examines a hitherto under researched aspect of the European Union's policy process the extent and the nature of the involvement of central governments in the implementation of EU public policy It discusses how the co ordination of these institutions affects their capacity to shape the way in which the commitments that they make in Brussels are turned into concrete reality at the national level It shows that the nature of their involvement in implementation reflects the pattern of their involvement in the formulation of EU policy However since implementation unfolds over long periods of time its patterns can change over time The author draws on empirical evidence regarding the liberalisation of public procurement to demonstrate how the institutions of central governments bring about change Comparing the central governments of Greece France and Britain over a twenty five year period the author demonstrates that far from being the passive conduits of pressure emanating from the EU the institutions of national central governments actively steer the implementation of EU

public policy Inclusion, Exclusion and the Governance of European Security Mark Webber, 2013-07-19 How inclusive are NATO and the EU Recently enlargement's limits have increasingly come to be recognised bringing with it an important debate on the balance to be struck between inclusion and exclusion This book examines that sometimes awkward balance International Relations of the Middle East Louise Fawcett, 2013-03-21 Leading scholars of Middle East politics and international relations present comprehensive coverage of the international politics of the Middle East a region at the forefront of international attention Europe and Civil Society Carlo Ruzza, 2004-07-16 Europe and Civil Society provides an in depth examination of how public interest groups and social movements seek to influence the European policy making process The book is based on a comparison of the role of networks of activists and their allies broadly defined as Movement Advocacy Coalitions in influencing decision making at the European Union level in three specific areas of policy making environmentalism anti racism and ethno nationalist regionalism It draws on systematic documentary analysis and an extensive series of interviews with activists and institutional actors to examine the role of public interest organizations in these three areas This focus reflects topical societal concerns and facilitates new insights into the study of European policy making political sociology and social movement research
