Francophone Africa 1905-2005 Prof. Daleep Singh, 2008-07-09 The book analyses in width and depth the evolution and growth of the economies and the economic institutions of the eighteen states of Francophone Africa since the beginning of the twentieth century It identifies the main milestones in the development of the vital sectors of agriculture industry and foreign trade A few chapters carry a special section on the individual country studies to focus attention on the pressing problems facing the country concerned Regimes in Tropical Africa Ruth Berins Collier, 2021-01-08 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology. This title was originally published Multiracial Identities in Colonial French Africa Rachel Jean-Baptiste, 2023-06-08 Explores the history of race in 1982 making belonging and rights by outlining the contested place of multiracial people in colonial French West and Equatorial Africa The Deadly Ethnic Riot Donald L. Horowitz, 2001 Donald Horowitz defines a deadly ethnic riot as an intense though not necessarily unplanned lethal attack by members of one ethnic group on civilian members of another ethnic group The book draws examples from all over the world and rigorously analyzes this brutal phenomenon Africa and World War II Judith A. Byfield, Carolyn A. Brown, Timothy Parsons, Ahmad Alawad Sikainga, 2015-04-16 This volume considers the military economic and political significance of Africa during World War II The essays feature new research and innovative approaches to the historiography of Africa and bring to the fore issues of race gender and labor during the war topics that have not yet received much critical attention It explores the experiences of male and female combatants peasant producers women traders missionaries and sex workers The first section offers three introductory essays that give a continent wide overview of how Africa sustained the Allied effort through labor and resources The six sections that follow offer individual case studies from different parts of the continent Contributors offer a macro and micro view of the multiple levels on which Africa s contributions shaped the war as well as the ways in which the war affected individuals and communities and transformed Africa s political economic and social landscape Ethnic Groups in Conflict, Updated Edition With a New Preface Donald L. Horowitz, 2001-04-09 Drawing material from dozens of divided societies Donald L Horowitz constructs his theory of ethnic conflict relating ethnic affiliations to kinship and intergroup relations to the fear of domination A groundbreaking work when it was published in 1985 the book remains an original and powerfully argued comparative analysis of one of the most Why Slavery Endures David W. Bulla, 2020-11-09 This book examines important forces in the contemporary world slavery an antiquated ugly inhumane practice seemingly abolished in the nineteenth century yet never eradicated The legacies of historical slavery have become increasingly subject to public debate manifested in calls for reparations the UNESCO Slave Route Project and in the dismantling of Confederate monuments in the United States NGOs have researched and publicized the extent of contemporary slavery which some of the essays in this collection discuss This area of inquiry intersects with wider debates about the legacies of colonialism and structural racism which could be seen in the Rhodes Must Fall campaigns in South Africa and Oxford NGOs estimate that there are between 21 and 46 million slaves worldwide today The essays gathered here critically examine the historical roots of slavery the issue of reparations and deconstruct contemporary human trafficking Bibliography on Land-locked States, Economic Development and International Law Martin Ira Glassner, 2001 Revised and expanded for the fifth edition this text provides an academic reference on the subject of land lockedness as it relates to economic development international law transport economies international organizations and political and economic geography Department of State Publication ,1980 External Research, ER List United States. Department of State. External Research Division,1958 Black France. White Europe Emily Marker, 2022-10-15 Winner of the George Louis Beer Prize Black France White Europe illuminates the deeply entangled history of European integration and African decolonization Emily Marker maps the horizons of belonging in postwar France as leaders contemplated the inclusion of France's old African empire in the new Europe in the making European integration intensified longstanding structural contradictions of French colonial rule in Africa Would Black Africans and Black African Muslims be French If so would they then also be European What would that mean for republican France and united Europe more broadly Marker examines these questions through the lens of youth amid a surprising array of youth and education initiatives to stimulate imperial renewal and European integration from the ground up She explores how education reforms and programs promoting solidarity between French and African youth collided with transnational efforts to make young people in Western Europe feel more European She connects a particular postwar vision for European unity which coded Europe as both white and raceless Christian and secular to crucial decisions about what should be taught in African classrooms and how many scholarships to provide young Africans to study and train in France That vision of Europe also informed French responses to African student activism for racial and religious equality which ultimately turned many young francophone Africans away from France irrevocably Black France White Europe shows that the interconnected history of colonial and European youth initiatives is key to explaining why despite efforts to strengthen ties with its African colonies in the 1940s and 1950s France became more European during those years Longman Companion to European Decolonisation in the Twentieth Century Muriel E. Chamberlain, 2014-06-11 This new Companion brings together in one single volume all the essential facts and figures relating to European decolonisation in the twentieth century Professor Chamberlain has taken each European empire in turn the British French Dutch Portuguese Spanish Belgian and Italian and for each one she has provided a detailed chronology of the process of decolonisation in the individual states ,1961-05 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Foreign Commerce and Navigation of the United States United States.
