English Teaching Professional 1999 Issue 10 Etp:

EIL, ELF, Global English Cesare Gagliardi, Alan Maley, 2010 How can you teach the English language to global English speakers Can English be taught as an international language Is it worth teaching Isn't it more proper and profitable to learn a standard variety of English How realistic and useful is the identification of an EIL ELF variety Can an EIL ELF standard be identified These are some of the questions the present volume has addressed with the contribution of some of the most qualified scholars in the field of English linguistics The book is divided into four sections The first part deals with the definition of English as an international language and English as a lingua franca Section two takes six different teaching issues into consideration The third section examines some learning issues and the last part of the volume debates the relationship between teacher and student in an English as a lingua franca environment

Towards a New Paradigm for English Language Teaching Hajime Terauchi, Judy Noguchi, Akira Tajino, 2019-10-30 This book proposes a new paradigm for English language teaching based on concepts from English for Specific Purposes ESP research and applications as well as from growing evidence relating pattern recognition to language learning ability The contributors to the volume argue that learners should not try to become proficient all around users of idealistic native like English but instead should be realistic about what they need to acquire and how to go about achieving their specific goals The book discusses the present situation by describing the status quo of English language education in Japan taking into consideration recent trends of CLIL content and language integrated learning EMI English medium instruction and TBLT task based language teaching as well as the work done on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEFR It introduces new movements in ESP in Japan and in other Asian regions covering topics ranging from genre analysis to corpus linguistics and presents application examples of ESP practice in a range of educational situations in Japan from the graduate school level to elementary and middle school contexts It also offers readers application examples of ESP practice in a range of business settings and expands the discussion to the global sphere where EAP and ESP are gaining importance as the number of ELF English as a Lingua Franca speakers continue to increase The book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students working in the fields of EFL and ESL

Educational Research and Innovation Languages in a Global World Learning for Better Cultural Understanding OECD, 2012-04-24 This book examines the links between globalisation and the way we teach and learn languages

Education, Gender and Development Mari-Anne Okkolin, 2016-10-14 This compelling book takes a novel approach to the complexities of girls and women's education in the global South To unravel the critical issues and processes behind educational advancement and to identify the factors that support the construction of educational well being and agency from gender perspective the book narrates the stories of women who have successfully built their educational careers to higher education The book creatively applies the human development and capabilities approach to analyze and assess educational advancement and development Mari Anne Okkolin offers a fresh voice to the field of education gender and development The book draws on rich in depth evidence from Tanzanian women who have reached higher education placing them amongst the very small percentage of women in the Tanzanian and sub Saharan contexts The book explores the women s school experiences everyday life practices and familial arrangements and the values expectations and assumptions associated with education and the schooling of girls and women Due to the multi disciplinary nature of the book it will be of great interest to multiple academic audiences post graduates researchers and academics It is of particular relevance for all those interested in education sociology development studies gender women s studies and qualitative research methodology The book will appeal especially to scholars working with the capabilities approach It will also be of value beyond academia for education practitioners in planning and implementing education and equality policies internationally
