Crisis and Legitimacy in Atlantic American Narratives of Piracy Alexandra

Ganser,2020-08-11 This Open Access book Crisis and Legitimacy in Atlantic American Narratives of Piracy 1678 1865

examines literary and visual representations of piracy beginning with A O Exquemelin's 1678 Buccaneers of America and ending at the onset of the US American Civil War. Examining both canonical and understudied texts from Puritan sermons James Fenimore Cooper's The Red Rover and Herman Melville's Benito Cereno to the popular cross dressing female pirate novelette Fanny Campbell and satirical decorated Union envelopes this book argues that piracy acted as a trope to negotiate ideas of legitimacy in the contexts of U.S. colonialism, nationalism, and expansionism. The readings demonstrate how pirates were invoked in transatlantic literary production at times when dominant conceptions of legitimacy built upon categorizations of race, class, and gender had come into crisis. As popular and mobile maritime outlaw figures it is suggested pirates asked questions about might and right at critical moments of Atlantic history.

The Maroon Narrative Cynthia James, 2002 This book analyzes the concept of the maroon to provide a better understanding of Caribbean literature.

The Athenaeum, 1854 The Trinidad Awakening Reinhard Sander, 1988-08-12 Sander presents a definitive, thoroughly researched, gracefully expressed study of literary activity in Trinidad in the 1930s and its literary cultural implications for West Indian literature in general. In Caribbean literary studies Sander's work is pioneering in its drawing of successful links between cultural productions and historical realities. The book's organization is clear and logical, its accessibility enhanced by a well documented index.

Choice This is the first comprehensive history of the Trinidadian literature that paved the way for the emergence over the past forty years of many major West Indian literary works. Sander contends that the sporadic nature of literary output in the island before the late 1920s can be explained in part as the consequence of Trinidad's linguistic diversity and its rapidly changing patterns of settlement. Until 1797 Trinidad had been a Spanish colony with a large proportion of French speaking inhabitants and it was not until the end of the nineteenth century that English became more widely spoken. The burst of creative activity in the late 1920s was related to the new ascendancy of English and the fact that the society had begun to resolve itself into well defined racial, social, and economic groupings.
