High Art Lite Julian Stallabrass, 1999 High Art Lite takes a cool and critical look at the way in which British art in the 1990s has reinvented itself successfully appealing both to the mass media and to the elite art world In this extensively illustrated polemic Julian Stallabrass asks whether it has done so at the price of dumbing down and selling out 18 color and 53 b w photographs

The Road to Parnassus: Artist Strategies in Contemporary Art Diego Mantoan, 2020-10-06 How can one become a successful artist Where should one start a career in the art world What are useful strategies to achieve recognition in the art system Such questions hoard in students minds ever since entering art school and they probably chase every kind of art professional who is at an early career stage The Road to Parnassus tries to understand what makes a good start in today s art world who are influential players in the field and which strategies might apply The swift career ascension of Glasgow artist Douglas Gordon one of today s leading visual artists and of the broader YBA generation that rose into worldwide prominence in the 1990s Damien Hirst and Sarah Lucas among the best known serves as a convenient case to analyse contemporary artist strategies This book takes a multidisciplinary approach spanning from traditional art history to sociology and economics pursuing the reconstruction of the field of forces in art as intended by French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Compared to previous publications on art system dynamics such as Thompson s The 12 Million Stuffed Shark this book offers an enhanced understanding of the factors that allow a young artist to enter the arena of contemporary art The present research should help uncover the art system logic which appears enigmatic to non experts revealing that artists are aware they need to consider global trends beat competitors and meet the demands of dealers collectors curators and museums This book furthers existing contributions on the YBAs for example Stallabrass High Art Lite offering innovative conclusions on recent British art such as on the duality between London and Glasgow the gender opposition among emerging artists and the predominance of resourceful authors

Christine van Assche, Clarrie Wallis, 2016-09-13 Born in Beirut to a Palestinian family artist Mona Hatoum came to Britain as a student in the mid 1970s settling in London in 1975 Her art whether video performance sculpture or installation is concerned with confrontational themes including violence oppression and voyeurism often in reference to the human body and with the juxtaposition of opposites such as beauty and horror desire and revulsion With 250 colour images covering the whole of Hatoum's oeuvre this is the essential book on a distinctly powerful voice in contemporary art Chambers's Journal of Popular Literature, Science and Arts, 1852 American Culture in the 1990s Colin Harrison, 2010-03-31 American Culture in the 1990s focuses on the dramatic cultural transformations of the last decade of the millennium Lodged between the fall of Communism and the outbreak of the War on Terror the 1990s was witness to America's expanding influence across the world but also a period of anxiety and social conflict National traumas such as the Los Angeles riots the Oklahoma City bombing and the impeachment of President Clinton lend an apocalyptic air to the decade but the book looks beyond this to a wider context to identify new voices emerging in the nation This is one of the first attempts to bring together developments taking place across a range of different fields from Microsoft to the Internet from black fiction to gangsta rap from abject art to new independent cinema and from postfeminism to posthumanism Students of American culture and general readers will find this a lively and illuminating introduction to a complex and immensely varied decade Key Features 3 case studies per chapter featuring key texts genres writers and artists Chronology of 1990s American Culture Bibliographies for each chapter 18 black and white illustrations Everybody's Magazine, 1905 Arts Therapies in Schools Vassiliki Karkou, 2010 This book outlines the potential uses of music art drama and dance movement therapies in educational settings and the contribution they have to make to the emotional and social development of children and adolescents Drawing on international evidence the book outlines a wide range of applications of arts therapies across a range of settings The Space that Time Forgot Angela Bulloch, 2008 New work by the Spanish sculptor and installation artist known for her large scale systems of enclosed passageways made from interconnected and organic feeling metal lattices Represented in New York by Marion Goodman Gallery Iglesias has had one person shows at such major international venues as the Guggenheim Museum New York Jesus is Coming Sam Taylor-Wood, Sam Taylor-Johnson, 2006 Screening the Hollywood rebels in 1950s Britain Anna Ariadne Knight, 2021-09-28 This book examines issues of censorship publicity and teenage fandom in 1950s Britain surrounding a series of controversial Hollywood films The Wild One Blackboard Jungle Rebel Without a Cause Rock Around the Clock and Jailhouse Rock It also explores British cinema's commentary on juvenile delinquency through a re-examination of such British films as The Blue Lamp Spare the Rod and Serious Charge Taking a multi-dimensional approach the book intersects with star studies and social history while reappraising the stardom of Marlon Brando James Dean and Elvis Presley By looking at the specific meanings pleasures and uses British fans derived from these films it provides a logical and sustained narrative for how Hollywood star images fed into and disrupted British cultural life during a period of

unprecedented teenage consumerism American Paintings Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1965

Suffering and Sentiment in Romantic Military Art Philip Shaw,2017-07-05 In a moving intervention into Romantic era depictions of the dead and wounded Philip Shaw's timely study directs our gaze to the neglected figure of the common soldier How suffering and sentiment were portrayed in a variety of visual and verbal media is Shaw's particular concern as he examines a wide range of print and visual media from paintings to sketches to political prose and anti war poetry and from writings on culture and aesthetics to graphic satires and early photographs Whilst classical portraiture and history painting certainly conspired with official ideologies to deflect attention from the true costs of war other works of art literary as well as visual proffered representations that countered the view that suffering on and off the battlefield is noble or heroic Shaw uncovers a history of changing attitudes towards suffering from mid eighteenth century ambivalence to late eighteenth and early nineteenth century concepts of moral sentiment Thus Shaw's story is one of how images of death and wounding facilitated and queried these shifts in the perception of war qualifying as well as consolidating ideas of individual and national unanimity Informed by readings of the letters and journals of serving soldiers surgeons notebooks and sketches and the writings of peace and war agitators Shaw's study shows how an attention to the depiction of suffering and the development of liberal sentiment enables a reconfiguring of historical and theoretical notions of the body as a site of pain and as a locus of violent national imaginings Christian Art Ralph Adams Cram,1908
