Empowering Students To Transform Schools:

Empowering Students to Transform Schools Gary Goldman, Jay B. Newman, 1998-01-12 In school reform students are rarely consulted This book presents a step by step process for involving students in transforming schools and empowering them to make real decisions that affect their education

Next-Level Teaching Jonathan Alsheimer, 2020-01-19 Next level teachers are anything but average They're willing to use any and every strategy to reach students increase motivation and improve student outcomes A next level teacher never settles for the status quo Instead they ignite students passion for learning and that enthusiasm spreads through the whole school What's more next level teachers can create school environments so exciting and electric that not only the students but even other teachers and administrators are inspired to greatness Whether he's creating unique content retention strategies collaborating with streetwear brands or bringing out of the box guest speakers into the classroom award winning teacher Jonathan Alsheimer never says no to an opportunity to incorporate innovative tools in his teaching With unstoppable enthusiasm in Next Level Teaching Alsheimer demonstrates how educators can generate productive excitement in students using nonacademic strategies transform student enthusiasm into engagement create powerful relationships with students and colleagues seek out every chance to be a positive motivating influence and become valued assets not only in the classroom but throughout the school With dedication creativity and a vision of what's possible any educator can be that teacher for their students Are you ready to level up

Empowering Ourselves and Transforming Schools Judith W. Irwin, 1996-09-12 In this readable and ground breaking text Irwin examines the forces that keep educators and students from feeling fully empowered She defines empowerment as gaining the power to self actualize and to facilitate this for others Grounding her arguments in feminist and critical examinations of domination Irwin begins by defining empowerment as fundamentally opposed to domination She then examines the implications of this definition for our educational system This book encourages the reader to consider new directions for educational reform and synthesizes current innovations under the umbrella philosophy of empowerment suggesting how the change from the patriarchal paradigm to one based on cooperation and connection might revolutionize the organization of schools and their classrooms The reader is challenged to develop his or her own philosophy and agenda for change through a series of reflective activities A comparative case study of five empowered teachers is included to demonstrate that empowerment is an individual as well as a collective process

Reimagining the Purpose of Schools and Educational Organisations Anthony Montgomery, Ian Kehoe, 2015-12-22 This book features a diverse set of perspectives all focused towards questioning the role schools actually play in society and more importantly the role they could potentially play Containing papers presented at the 1st International Conference on Reimagining Schooling which took place in Thessaloniki Greece June 2013 bringing together international and multi disciplinary perspectives on the future of education and schools Combines diverse specialties analyzing schools as organizations and questions the purpose of schools The book explores the current purpose of schooling and debates what roles and values young people currently learn from schooling It examines such issues as the impact of Neoliberalism the pursuit of the socially just school and imagining contemporary schools beyond their consumerist mentality Tackling development in the growing economic and social crisis in Europe and offering transformative analysis of the psychology and decision making involved for innovating teaching learning socio economic and policy contexts In addition the book shows different ways young people can be creatively involved in reimagining schooling It also details both innovative and radical ideas that currently exist about school transformation such as building learning partnerships for all and creating synergies across formal and informal settings of learning Raising important questions for the future of the relationship between teacher and pupil and positive and pro active behavior There is a growing realization that schools fail to accommodate diverse types of learning and that their purpose is not simply about education Featuring academics and practitioners from many different disciplines this book boldly questions the values that currently permeate school walls and suggests ways that schooling itself can be made better

Transforming Schools D. G. Mulcahy, 2013-05-01 President Obama has on a number of occasions rejected policies that have been tried and do not work Legislation such as No Child Left Behind and policies such as Race to the Top are neither effective nor based on sound research Educational policy making is now more than ever the preserve of politicians advocacy foundations and lobbyists parading as corporate leaders Teachers have little voice their role is merely to be held responsible for policies foisted upon them In Transforming Schools Alternative Perspectives on School Reform our aim is to provide alternative perspectives to the dead end educational policies by which our governments have become consumed We turn the spotlight on a select range of topics that have become the focus of concern and we consider the implications for school improvement These topics include school reform in general the achievement gap literacy standardized assessment social justice and ecojustice aesthetic and moral education and general education

Student Voice and School Governance Marc Brasof, 2015-06-05 While student voice has been well defined in research how to sustain youth adult leadership work is less understood Students are rarely invited to lead school reform efforts and when they are their voice is silenced by the structural arrangements and socio cultural conditions found in schools This volume investigates problems with the neoliberal school reform movement and how youth adult partnerships have resulted in more effective reforms within schools and community organizations nationally and internationally Stemming from an eight year ethnographic study at a civic themed public high school the volume highlights the process of creating a school governance structure which produces active and informed citizens Made up of executive legislative and judicial branches the program gives students the power to make implement and review school policies and practices a model that has found to effectively distribute leadership and trigger organizational learning and is thus at the forefront of civic education
