The Empowerment Church Carlyle Fielding Stewart, 2001 The purpose of the church is simple it exists to bring people to salvation in Christ and to positively and permanently change lives for the good of the community The way the church fulfills this basic calling is through empowerment endowing people with the capacity to be recipients and catalysts of positive social and personal change Too many churches in North American have neglected this basic calling argues the author If they are to become thriving centers of personal and social transformation then they must work to empower the whole person through ministries that work at the same time for spiritual relational and communal transformation Only when they thus empower individuals to be disciples of Jesus Christ in ways that then transform those individuals personal relations and the communities in which they live will the church have fulfilled its basic calling Transformative Pastoral Leadership in the Black Church J. Tribble, 2005-07-04 Transformative Pastoral Leadership in the Black Church offers practical wisdom from comparative analysis of the experiences of a male pastor and a female pastor in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church Church leaders must be transformed themselves as they are transforming their churches to serve their communities From his research of the perspectives of laity clergy and scholars of the black church Jeffery L Tribble offers hopeful stories and helpful strategies for those who believe that the black church must continue its historic mission of being an instrument of survival elevation and liberation for its people Transformative Pastoral Leadership in the Black Church is an important contribution to studies of black religion womanist thought and social justice Do You Believe? Nancy Ann McLaughlin, 2006 The Shape of Zion Michael I. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal glocal mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace The Mark of
