The Empty House Mystery: A Ted Wilford Mystery Norvin Pallas, 2019-01-01 The Empty House Mystery combines a real puzzle with the story of Ted Wilford's strenuous efforts to get out the bi-weekly Town Crier while the editor is ill. Ted and his friend Nelson, who have just graduated from high school, devote part of their pre-college summer to finding the thief of a set of plans for the new state thruway. It all began for Ted one day in the office of The Town Crier when a man came in to advertise in the Lost and Found column for a missing folder with a peculiar zipper. Later when it was brought to the office by the finder, Ted carried away by his desire to demonstrate the splendid service offered by the paper, personally left the folder at the advertiser's address. It turned out to be an empty house, but Ted had reasons for thinking it was logical to leave it there However later when he discovered that the folder really contained plans stolen from the highway department Ted knew he must find it as quickly as possible The quest leads Nelson and him into adventures in several empty houses into an investigation of the mysteriously ringing telephones and finally to a completely different solution than he or the reader had anticipated The daily doings in a small town newspaper office plus a well plotted story make another satisfying Ted Wilford mystery
