Fritz Lang Leben Und Werk:

Fritz Lang Dieter Dürrenmatt,1992 Fritz Lang ,2001 Fritz Lang: Leben u. Werk Dieter Duerrenmatt,1982 A New History of German Cinema Jennifer M. Kapczynski,Michael David Richardson,2012 A dynamic event centered exploration of the hundred year history of German language film This dynamic event centered anthology offers a new understanding of the hundred year history of German language film from the earliest days of the Kintopp to contemporary productions like The Lives of Others Each of the more than eighty essays takes a key date as its starting point and explores its significance for German film history pursuing its relationship with its social political and aesthetic moment While the essays offer ample temporal and topical spread this book emphasizes the juxtaposition of famous and unknown stories granting attention to a wide range of cinematic events Brief section introductions provide a larger historical and film historical framework that illuminates the essays within it offering both scholars and the general reader a setting for the individual texts and figures under investigation Cross references to other essays in the book are included at the close of each entry encouraging readers not only to pursue familiar trajectories in the development of German film but also to trace particular figures and motifs across genres and historical periods Together the contributions offer a new view of the multiple intersecting narratives that make up German language cinema The constellation that is thus established challenges unidirectional narratives of German film history and charts new ways of thinking about film historiography more broadly Jennifer Kapczynski is Associate Professor of German at Washington University St Louis and Michael Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College Theodor W. Adorno Detlev Claussen,2009-06-30 He was famously hostile to biography as a literary form And yet this life of Adorno by one of his last students is far more than literary in its accomplishments giving us our first clear look at how the man and his moment met to create critical theory An intimate picture of the quintessential twentieth century transatlantic intellectual the book is also a window on the cultural ferment of Adorno's day and its ongoing importance in our own The biography begins at the shining moment of the German bourgeoisie in a world dominated by liberals willing to extend citizenship to refugees fleeing pogroms in Eastern Europe Detlev Claussen follows Theodor Wiesengrund Adorno 1903 1969 from his privileged life as a beloved prodigy to his intellectual coming of age in Weimar Germany and Vienna from his exile during the Nazi years first to England then to the United States to his emergence as the Adorno we know now in the perhaps not so unlikely setting of Los Angeles There in 1943 with his collaborator Max Horkheimer Adorno developed critical theory whose key insight that to be entertained is to give one's consent helped define the intellectual landscape of the twentieth century In capturing the man in his complex relationships with some of the century's finest minds including among others Arnold Schoenberg Walter Benjamin Thomas Mann Siegfried Kracauer Georg Lukács Hannah Arendt and Bertolt Brecht Claussen reveals how much we have yet to learn from Theodor Adorno and how much his life can tell us about ourselves and our time Fritz Lang Dieter Dürrenmatt,1972 German

Weimar on the Pacific Ehrhard Bahr, 2008-08-08 In the 1930s and 40s LA became a cultural sanctuary for a distinguished group of German artists and intellectuals including Thomas Mann Theodor W Adorno Bertolt Brecht Fritz Lang and Arnold Schoenberg who were fleeing Nazi Germany This book is the first to examine their work and lives

Barbarism Revisited, 2015-10-27 The figure of the barbarian has captivated the Western imagination from Greek antiquity to the present Since the 1990s the rhetoric of civilization versus barbarism has taken center stage in Western political rhetoric and the media But how can the longevity and popularity of this opposition be accounted for Why has it become such a deeply ingrained habit of thought that is still being so effectively mobilized in Western discourses The twenty essays in this volume revisit well known and obscure chapters in barbarism s genealogy from new perspectives and through contemporary theoretical idioms With studies spanning from Greek antiquity to the present they show how barbarism has functioned as the negative outside separating a civilized interior from a barbarian exterior as the middle term in between savagery and civilization in evolutionary models as a repressed aspect of the civilized psyche as concomitant with civilization as a term that confuses fixed notions of space and time or as an affirmative notion in philosophy and art signifying radical change and regeneration Proposing an original interdisciplinary approach to barbarism this volume includes both overviews of the concept s travels as well as specific case studies of its workings in art literature philosophy film ethnography design and popular culture in various periods geopolitical contexts and intellectual traditions Through this kaleidoscopic view of the concept it recasts the history of ideas not only as a task for historians but also literary scholars art historians and cultural analysts

The to Z of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld, 2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship

Arminius the Liberator Martin M. Winkler,2015-11-03 Arminius the Liberator deals with the modern reception of Arminius Martin M Winkler examines the ideological abuse of historical myth in German nationalism and National Socialism and its various international ramifications up until today Special emphasis is on the representation of Arminius in visual media

M Anton Kaes,2021-03-25 Fritz Lang s M 1931 is an undisputed classic of world cinema Lang considered it his most lasting work Peter Lorre s extraordinary performance as the childlike misfit Hans Beckert was one of the most striking of film debuts and it made him an international star Lang s vision of a city gripped with fear haunted by surveillance and total mobilization is still remarkably powerful today And M resonates too in the serial killer genre which is so prominent in contemporary cinema M speaks to us as a timeless classic but also as a Weimar film that has too often been isolated from its political and cultural context In this groundbreaking book Anton Kaes reconnects M s much studied formal brilliance to its significance as an event in 1931 Germany recapturing the film s extraordinary social and symbolic energy Interweaving close reading with cultural history Kaes reconstitutes M as a crucial modernist artwork In addition he analyzes Joseph Losey s 1951 film noir remake and in an appendix publishes for the first time M s missing scene

The Horror Film Stephen Prince,2004-02-09 In this volume Stephen Prince has collected essays reviewing the history of the horror film and the psychological reasons for its persistent appeal as well as discussions of the developmental responses of young adult viewers and children to the genre The book focuses on recent postmodern examples such as The Blair Witch Project In a daring move the volume also examines Holocaust films in relation to horror Part One features essays on the silent and classical Hollywood eras Part Two covers the postWorld War II era and discusses the historical aesthetic and psychological characteristics of contemporary horror films In contrast to horror during the classical Hollywood period contemporary horror features more graphic and prolonged visualizations of disturbing and horrific imagery as well as other distinguishing characteristics Prince's introduction provides an overview of the genre contextualizing the readings that follow Stephen Prince is professor of communications at Virginia Tech He has written many film books including Classical Film Violence Designing and Regulating Brutality in Hollywood Cinema 1930-1968 and has edited Screening Violence also in the Depth of Field Series Expressionist Film Dietrich Scheunemann, 2003 Beginning with a fundamentally new interpretation of Dr. Caligari and with fresh views of other expressionist classics this book offers new perspectives on important alternative styles and genres that emerged in films by such eminent directors as Lubitsch Fritz Lang and E. A. Dupont Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multifaceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments: Wilhelmine Germany, the Weimar Republic, the Third Reich, the Federal Republic of Germany, West Germany, and the German Democratic Republic, East Germany, as well as a reunited Germany, two national industries, Germany and Austria, and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically, the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras, as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles, allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross-referenced entries on directors, actors, films, cinematographers, composers, producers, and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema Generic Histories of German Cinema Jaimey Fisher, 2013 Generic Histories offers a fresh approach tracing a series of key genres including horror, science fiction, the thriller, Heimat films, and war films over the course of German cinema history It also addresses detective films, comedies, policiers, and romances that deliberately localize global genres within Germany, a form of transnationalism frequently neglected This focus on genre and history encourages rethinking of the traditional opposition and hierarchy between art and popular cinema that has informed German film studies In these ways the volume foregrounds genre theory's potential for rethinking film history as well as cultural history more broadly Publisher's description

Campus Medius: Digital Mapping in Cultural and Media Studies Simon Ganahl, 2022-03-07 Campus Medius explores and expands the possibilities of digital cartography in cultural and media studies Simon Ganahl documents the development of the project from a historical case study to a mapping platform Based on the question of what a media experience is, the concepts of the apparatus, dispositif, and the actor network are translated into a data model A time space of twenty-four hours in Vienna in May 1933, marked by a so-called Turks Deliverance Celebration (Türkenbefreiungsfeier), serves as an empirical
