From A Race Of Storytellers:

From a Race of Storytellers Kimberley M. Holloway, 2003 From a Race of Storytellers will also be attractive to the general reader who wants to read more about the characters who inhabit McCrumb s fictional Hamelin Tennessee and to better understand the events that occur there Through essays written by fourteen different scholars of McCrumb's fiction and one by McCrumb herself readers will gain a deeper understanding of the real southern Appalachian mountains not just the popular image BOOK JACKET Envisioning Critical Race Praxis in Higher Education Through Counter-Storytelling Natasha N. Croom, Tyson E.J. Marsh, 2016-03-01 While critical race theory is a framework employed by activists and scholars within and outside the confines of education there are limited resources for leadership practitioners that provide insight into critical race theory and the possibilities of implementing a critical race praxis approach to leadership With a continued top down approach to educational policy and practice it is imperative that higher education leaders understand how critical race theory and praxis can assist them in utilizing their agency and roles as leaders to identify and challenge institutional and systemic racism and other forms manifestations of oppression Stovall 2004 In the tradition of critical race theory we are charged with the task of operationalizing theory into practice in the struggle for and commitment to social justice Though higher education leaders and leadership programs are often absent in this process given their influence and power higher education leaders need to be engaged in this endeavor. The objective of this edited volume is to draw upon critical race counter stories and praxis for the purpose of providing higher education leaders in training and practicing higher education leaders with tangible narratives that demonstrate how racism and its intersectionality with other forms of oppression manifest within higher education An additional aim of this book is to provide leaders with a working knowledge of the central tenets of critical race theory and the tools that are required in recognizing how they might be complicit in the reproduction of institutional and systemic racism and other forms of oppression More precisely this edited volume intends to draw upon and center the lived experiences and voices of contributors that have experienced racism in higher education Through the use of critical race methodology and counter storytelling Sol rzano Yosso 2002 contributors will share and interrogate their experiences while offering current and future higher education leaders insight in recognizing how racism functions within their respective institutions and how they can address it The intended goal of this edited volume is to translate critical race theory into practice while emphasizing the need for higher education leaders to develop a critical race praxis and anti-racist approach to leadership Envisioning a Critical Race Praxis in K-12 Education Through Counter-Storytelling Tyson E.J. provides a method for analyzing digital storytelling practices that focuses on the rhetorical dialogic co productive creative storymaking space rather than the finished stories or the technologies Looking through a new media lens Amanda Hill situates the digital storytelling genre and writing practice as a co creative media process created between writers storytellers educators facilitators institutions and the audience and discusses the inter relationships within the collaborative writing workshop as well as in those found in the dissemination of the final digital stories Digital Storytelling and Ethics provides a reflexive look at the responsibility of the facilitator in co creative digital storytelling writing spaces and makes use of diverse international case studies as examples Hill shows that writing educators facilitators should interpret their roles within the collaborative creation process This will ensure that responsible facilitation practices based in witnessing guide the storytelling process and create an environment that treats participants as subjects with the ability to respond to the world This innovative book is an essential read for collaborative digital writers and facilitators Sandplay and Storytelling Barbara A. Turner, Kristin Unnsteinsdottir, 2012-12-31 Combining the fields of child psychology and child education this groundbreaking work explores how engaging children in Jungian sandplay therapy and imaginative storytelling can improve classroom performance and to increase intelligence scores Written by child specialists it makes a solid argument for the necessary consideration of the unconscious and the inner world of the individual child in learning and advocates that curriculum design for children must include both imaginative therapeutic play and active attention to children s emotional needs Educators psychotherapists and concerned parents alike will find this book informative and useful English Education Lamar L. Johnson, 2021-11-29 Johnson's visionary and much needed book is a call for the transformation of English education to embrace rather than reject Blackness Confronting the context of heightened racial violence against Black youth that continues to sweep across the United States Johnson illuminates the interconnection between the physical and symbolic violence that unfolds in and outside the classroom and demonstrates the harm this causes to Black youth Employing an original framework Critical Race English Education Johnson reveals how English education and ELA classrooms are dominated by eurocentric language and literacy practices and provides a justice oriented framework that combats anti Black racism Throughout the book Johnson disperses love letters to Blackness Black culture and Black people which serve as actions and practices for positive thinking and self awareness about Blackness Critical Race English Education is a movement for Black lives A crucial resource for pre service ELA teachers researchers professors and graduate students in language and literacy education and sociology of education this book offers classroom lessons thematic units sample activities and other pedagogical and curricula practices that reconceptualize ELA pedagogies in humanizing ways and cater to the needs of students who come from racially and linguistically diverse backgrounds Aboriainal Women, Law and Critical Race Theory Nicole Watson, 2021-12-10 This book explores storytelling as an innovative means of improving understanding of Indigenous people and their histories and struggles including with the law It uses the Critical Race Theory

CRT tool of outsider or counter storytelling to illuminate the practices that have been used by generations of Aboriginal women to create an outlaw culture and to resist their invisibility to law Legal scholars are yet to use storytelling to bring the experiential knowledge of Aboriginal women to the centre of legal scholarship and yet this book demonstrates how this can be done by way of a new methodology that combines elements of CRT with speculative biography In one chapter the author tells the imagined story of Eliza Woree who featured prominently in the backdrop to the decision of the Supreme Court of Queensland in Dempsey v Rigg 1914 but whose voice was erased from the judgements This accessible book adds a new and innovative dimension to the use of CRT to examine the nexus between race and settler colonialism It speaks to those interested in Indigenous peoples and the law Indigenous studies Indigenous policy Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history feminist studies race and the law and cultural studies Handbook of Critical Race Theory in Education Marvin Lynn, Adrienne D. Dixson, 2021-10-25 This handbook illustrates how education scholars employ Critical Race Theory CRT as a framework to bring attention to issues of race and racism in education It is the first authoritative reference work to provide a truly comprehensive description and analysis of the topic from the defining conceptual principles of CRT in Law that gave shape to its radical underpinnings to the political and social implications of the field today It is divided into six sections covering innovations in educational research policy and practice in both schools and in higher education and the increasing interdisciplinary nature of critical race research New chapters broaden the scope of theoretical lenses to include LatCrit AsianCrit and Critical Race Feminism as well as coverage of Discrit Studies Research Methods and other recent updates to the field This handbook remains the definitive statement on the state of critical race theory in education and on its possibilities for the future Race, Nature, and the Environment Katie Meehan, 2024-11-01 What might it mean to unsettle our disciplinary understanding of race nature and the environment This book assembles diverse voices and approaches in geographic thinking on race and racialization during an era of climate crisis toxic legacies state violence mass extinctions carceral logics and racial injustices that shape and are shaped by the re production of nature The volume advances new critical scholarship on race and racialization in Anglo American geography reflects on its uneven diffusion and unmet challenges and notes city community region and world Race Nature and the Environment will interest students academics and researchers in Geography who are keen to learn about disciplinary approaches and debates in relation to race racialization environmental justice and the politics of nature in a world marked by white supremacy The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Annals of the American Association of Geographers Telling Stories Differently Janet Condy, 2015-09-01 The aim of this book is to share a relatively loose collection of studies using digital storytelling as a pedagogical tool in Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT The book takes an informed social justice approach to teaching and learning at the heart of which is the exploration of DST as a practice of voice and agency Voice and agency are important in excavating and recovering subjugated identities and moving the concerns of those occupying subaltern spaces to the mainstream of teaching and learning Yet this discursive shift is not without inherent challenges Multi modal technologies are reflective of wider inequities in the so called technological divide Whilst this is a book about higher education there are important lessons for schooling On the one hand the book is a powerful demonstration of the potential of DST for enhancing learning in schools particularly in schools serving the poor and marginalised On the other hand improving teaching and learning in higher education through the creative use of technology is essential to overcome the learning challenges of those entering tertiary level institutions Critical Race Theory and Classroom Practice Daniella Ann Cook, Nathaniel Bryan, 2024-05-03 This edited book shows how critical race theory CRT can shape teacher practices in ways that improve educational outcomes for all children especially those most marginalized in PreK 20 classrooms The volume bridges the gap between the theoretical foundations of critical race theory and its application in formal and informal learning environments To promote an active and interdisciplinary engagement of critical race praxis it illuminates the pedagogical possibilities of using CRT while explicitly addressing grade span specific content area standards and skills Each chapter explores how educators use a critical race theory lens to deepen student learning teach honestly about racism and white supremacy and actively prepare learners to equitably participate in a multiracial democracy Written for pre and in service teachers teacher educators and anti-racist community stakeholders the text addresses the applicability of CRT as a pedagogical practice for PreK 20 educators seeking to meaningfully combat intersectional racial injustice and to create a more just democracy This book is necessary reading for educators and courses in Educational Foundations Anti Racist Education Social Justice Education Curriculum Studies Educational Leadership and Multicultural Education Race Sounds Nicole Brittingham Furlonge, 2018-05-15 We live in a world of talk Yet Race Sounds argues that we need to listen more not just hear things but actively listen particularly in relation to how we engage race gender and class differences Forging new ideas about the relationship between race and sound Furlonge explores how black artists including well known figures such as writers Ralph Ellison and Zora Neale Hurston and singers Bettye LaVette and Aretha Franklin among others imagine listening Drawing from a multimedia archive Furlonge examines how many of the texts call on readers to listen in print In the process she gives us a new way to read and interpret these canonical aurally inflected texts and demonstrates how listening allows us to engage with the sonic lives of difference as readers thinkers and citizens Intervening in discourses of African American and black feminist literatures where sound and voice dominate Furlonge shifts our attention to listening as an aural strategy of cultural social and civic engagement that not only enlivens how we read write and critique texts but also informs how we might be more effective audiences for each other and against injustice in our midst The result is a fascinating examination that brings new insights to African American literature and art American literature democratic philosophy and sound studies Story Teller An Anthology Of Folklore From The Native American Indians G.W. Mullins, 2018-02-12 Before the time of books computers tablets and recording devices the history of many cultures was passed down from person to person by word of mouth The rich histories of so many people were told in songs chants poems and stories This was and still is the way of Native American tribes Each in its own way enriching their stories with their own experiences By exploring these stories you will be offered you a glimpse into an often forgotten past By reliving these stories and songs we have the opportunity to bring life back to the ancient spirits that created them We have a chance to walk with the spirits of the past These stories were passed from one generation to the next And now these stories are given to you to carry forward for younger generations to explore and learn The mythology of North America is a cultural treasure house but many of these myths and legends are hidden away in various old and rare books It would be difficult for the average person to track down and collect this material because the rarity of some of these books makes them hard to acquire So this vast body of wisdom lies out of reach of most people until now Included in this anthology are over 100 stories in the categories of Star People Animal Tales People Tales War Tales Origin Tales and Ghost Tales Among the stories collected are Origin of the Sweat Lodge The Story of Po a The Story of the Land of Northern Lights Tale of the Lazy Boys Who Became the Pleiades The Moon and the Thunders The Two War Gods and the Two Maidens The First War A Widow's Revenge A War Between the Alabama And the Choctaw The Death of Head Chief and Young Mule Two War Trails Escape of The Seneca Boys The End of The First World Mistakes of Old Man Iktomi s Blanket Iktomi and the Muskrat Beaver Medicine The Badger and the Bear The Tree Bound The Simpleton's Wisdom Crossing the Red Sea Wakiash and the First Totem Pole The Dogs of the Chief's Son The Orphan Boy Captured by the Bad Thunderbirds Godasiyo the Woman Chief Lodge Boy and Thrown Away s Father Blue Corn Maiden and the Coming of Winter The Beginning of Newness The Origin of the Society of Rattlesnakes Origin of the Raven and the Macaw How Glooskap Found the Summer Raven's Great Adventure How Raven Lost His Beak Apache Creation Story How the Old Man Made People Origin of the Medicine Man When the Animals and Birds Were Created Creation of the First Indians A Little Brave and the Medicine Woman The Man Who Was Afraid of Nothing The Ghosts Buffalo The Land of the Dead The Skin Shifting Old Woman and many more
