Kendi, 2016-04-12 The National Book Award winning history of how racist ideas were created spread and deeply rooted in American society Some Americans insist that we're living in a post racial society But racist thought is not just alive and well in America it is more sophisticated and more insidious than ever And as award winning historian Ibram X Kendi argues racist ideas have a long and lingering history one in which nearly every great American thinker is complicit In this deeply researched and fast moving narrative Kendi chronicles the entire story of anti black racist ideas and their staggering power over the course of American history He uses the life stories of five major American intellectuals to drive this history Puritan minister Cotton Mather Thomas Jefferson abolitionist William Lloyd Garrison W E B Du Bois and legendary activist Angela Davis As Kendi shows racist ideas did not arise from ignorance or hatred They were created to justify and rationalize deeply entrenched discriminatory policies and the nation s racial inequities In shedding light on this history Stamped from the Beginning offers us the tools we need to expose racist thinking In the process he gives us reason to hope

Begin Here Rocio G. Davis, 2007-01-31 An analytically innovative work Begin Here widens the current critical focus of Asian North American literary studies by proposing an integrated thematic and narratological approach to the practice of autobiography It demonstrates how Asian North American memoirs of childhood challenge the construction and performative potential of national experiences This understanding influences theoretical approaches to ethnic life writing expanding the boundaries of traditional autobiography by negotiating narrative techniques and genre and raising complex questions about self representation and the construction of cultural memory By examining the artistic project of some fifty Asian North American writers who deploy their childhood narratives in the representation of the individual processes of self identification and negotiation of cultural and national affiliation this work provides a comprehensive overview of Asian North American autobiographies of childhood published over the last century Importantly it also attends to new ways of writing autobiographies employing comics blending verse prose diaries and life writing for children and using relational approaches to self identification among others Artists and Their Autobiographies from Today to the Renaissance and Back Charles Reeve, 2022-11-25 Reading life writing that runs from Tracey Emin Faith Ringgold and Judy Chicago to Marie Bashkirtseff Benvenuto Cellini and beyond Artists and Their Autobiographies from Today to the Renaissance and Back investigates the intriguing doubled truths of artists autobiographies truth in life and truth in art authorial truth s and the truth of their art as they saw it However this book focuses specifically on the truth of sincerity which here following classic discussions by Reindert Dhondt Philippe Lejeune and Lionel Trilling appears as a truth to self that floats free from facts to link avowal and feeling From there this volume merges autobiography studies with a history of ideas approach to art to trace sincerity s constancy and variability across times and cultures Through this pre disciplinary dialogue this book shows that recent and historical artists autobiographies differ in how not if they intertwine sincerity in life and art Along the way this volume leverages the foregrounding of sincerity caused by this doubling to explore such key issues of autobiography studies as autobiography s relation to fiction serial autobiography as told to narrative and what happens when liars claim to tell all Virginia Woolf in Richmond Peter Fullagar, 2018-11-15 I ought to be grateful to Richmond Hogarth and indeed whether it's my invincible optimism or not I am grateful Virginia Woolf. Although more commonly associated with Bloomsbury Virginia and her husband Leonard Woolf lived in Richmond upon Thames for ten years from the time of the First World War 1914-1924. Refuting the common misconception that she disliked the town this book explores her daily habits as well as her intimate thoughts while living at the pretty house she came to love Hogarth House. Drawing on information from her many letters and diaries the author reveals how Richmond's relaxed way of life came to influence the writer from her experimentation as a novelist to her work with her husband and the Hogarth Press from her relationships with her servants to her many famous visitors. Reviews: Lively, diverse and readable this book captures beautifully Virginia Woolf's time in leafy Richmond her mixed emotions over this exile from central London and its influence on her life and work. This illuminating book is a valuable addition to literary history and a must read for every Virginia Woolf enthusiast. Emma Woolf, writer, journalist, presenter and Virginia Woolf's great niece. About the Author: Peter Fullagar is a former English Language teacher having lived and worked in diverse locations such as Tokyo and Moscow. He became fascinated by the works of Virginia Woolf while writing his dissertation for his Masters in English Literature and Language. During his teaching career he was head of department at a private college in West London. He has written articles and book reviews for the magazine English Teaching Professional and The Huffington Post. His first short story will be published in an anthology entitled Tempest in March 2019. Peter was recently interviewed for the forthcoming film about the project to fund, create and install a new full-sized bronze statue of Virginia Woolf in Richmond upon Thames.

Relating Narratives Adriana Cavarero, 2014-02-25 Relating Narratives is a major new work by the philosopher and feminist thinker Adriana Cavarero. First published in Italian to widespread acclaim Relating Narratives is a fascinating and challenging new account of the relationship between selfhood and narration. Drawing a diverse array of thinkers from both the philosophical and the literary tradition from Sophocles and Homer to Hannah Arendt, Karen Blixen, Walter Benjamin and Borges, Adriana Cavarero's theory of the narratable self shows how narrative models in philosophy and literature can open new ways of thinking about formation of human identities. By showing how each human being has a unique story that can be told about them, Adriana Cavarero inaugurates an important shift in thinking about subjectivity and identity which relies not upon categorical or discursive norms but rather seeks to account for who each one of us uniquely is.

Evolving Nationalism Nadav G. Shelef, 2018-09-05 Evolving Nationalism examines how the idea of Israel as a nation-state has developed within Zionist and Israeli discourse over the past eight decades. Nadav G. Shelef focuses on the changing ways in which the main nationalist movements answered three distinct questions in their private and public ideological articulations between 1925 and 2005.

Where is the Land of Israel Who ought to be Israeli What should the Zionist national mission be Framed within broader debates about how and why changes in foundational definitions of the nation occur Shelef s analysis centers on the mechanisms of ideological change and then subjects them to empirical scrutiny He thus moves beyond the common but problematic assumptions that such transformations must be either a rare rational adaptation to traumatic shock or a relatively constant product of manipulation by power hungry elites He finds that nationalist movements including radical and religious fundamentalist ones can and do change cardinal components of their ideological beliefs in both moderating and radicalizing directions These changes have more to do with the unguided consequences of engagement in day to day politics than with strategic reaction to new realities the use of force or the changing incentives of leaders Engaging with some of the most contentious debates about the nature of Israeli nationalism and the geographic religious and ethnic definition of the state of Israel Shelef has made signal contributions to our understanding of Middle East politics and of the ideological underpinnings of nationalism itself The Pain Killer "Journey to Loving Yourself" First Men's Editon Uganda TheGoddess,
