FROM BURNOUT TO BALANCE SWATI. BISHT,2024 From Burnout to Balance Harriet Griffey, 2020-10-29 If you feel permanently exhausted wrung out trapped angry and dissociated you may be experiencing symptoms of burnout Do you feel you are working harder and longer but achieving less Do you constantly feel under the weather or suffer persistent aches pains niggles and minor illnesses that won t go away Living in a constant state of low level stress with an increasing reliance on our stress hormones to keep us going can lead to adrenal exhaustion One of the difficulties with burnout is that its build up can be very gradual and it s all too easy to hit crisis point without realising that this is where we ve been headed for weeks if not for months or years In From Burnout to Balance Harriet Griffey helps readers to reclaim their life by recognising their own signs of stress managing these and avoiding their escalation through positive lifestyle changes and ensuring basic self care measures every day adequate sleep regular nutritious meals exercise and relaxation to keep body and mind resilient all helps Featuring a guiz on how to recognise burnout information on how to understand what is the root cause of any issues a 24 hour crisis plan and four week programme to help you recover your life this book is essential reading for anyone who is experiencing symptoms or burnout and wants to live a calm happy stress free life Beyond the Schoolhouse Sheri S. Williams, 2022-10-01 Beyond the Schoolhouse introduces eight paradigm shifts that are urgently needed to challenge inequities in education and improve the conditions for historically marginalized school children The book provides educators and scholars with actionable strategies to shift the paradigm from schools alone to engaged partnerships with families and communities Too many educators enter the profession with an incompatible paradigm one that asks educators to resolve the problems facing school children from behind the closed doors of the school The book offers a new paradigm one that opens the power of partnerships to improve the conditions for school children from within and beyond the walls of the schoolhouse Drawing thoughtfully on leadership theory current research and evidence based practice the author engages practitioners and scholars in a spirited and candid conversation about why partnerships with families and communities are needed in this era of rapid cultural change and soaring inequalities The book features scenarios from the field along with lessons learned on the pitfalls and possibilities embedded in the paradigm shifts The scenarios reveal how the partners leveraged their power to disrupt historical patterns of racism classism and nativism The book offers a compelling analysis of the power of school family and community partners to embrace dramatically different paradigms for schooling With anecdotes and illustrations the author invites readers to consider their role in engaging in meaningful partnerships that reflect the community s best hopes for the education of their children Her narratives offer a deeply rooted understanding of the possibilities and pitfalls of school family and community partnerships in a diversity of settings including urban rural and tribal schools and systems in the U S and abroad The chapters build hope and a realistic optimism that engaged partners can leverage their talents and resources and work together to bring best practices to scale for the benefit of children of diverse identities cultures and ethnicities Chapters contain strategies and tools to tackle the growing inequalities which keep far too many children on the margins of schooling and furthest from justice and equity Strategies include equity focused protocols structured questions for dialogue in virtual and face to face settings and resources for extended reflection The book may be useful for scholars in academic circles principal and teacher preparation providers novice and experienced educators and administrators and the allies school board members and elected officials who are invested in enriching the education and well being of school Beating Burnout, Finding Balance Melo Calarco, 2023-03-06 children and the families and communities they serve INTERNATIONAL WINNER best WELLBEING and best WORK LIFE BALANCE book at the Goody Business Book Awards FINALIST in the award for HEALTH WELLBEING at the Australian Business Book Awards Manage overwhelm and find renewed passion in your life and work Never ending to do lists constant deadlines intense workloads and the guilty feeling you re not doing enough does this sound all too familiar If so it s time to take a step back and find a better balance for your work and life In this book you ll discover the simple practices that will help you create a healthy mindset boost your wellbeing and prevent overwhelm So say goodbye to fatigue with Beating Burnout Finding Balance you ll rediscover the energy you need to thrive Mindfulness and performance coach Melo Calarco shares the secrets to flourishing as a high achiever and an effective leader In this book he combines science practical knowledge and mindfulness techniques with the incredible life lessons he has learned as he cycled and trekked his way around the world You ll learn how you can apply the strategies that top performers from surgeons to CEOs to Olympic athletes use to conquer burnout and surpass their goals Use simple but highly effective strategies to improve your productivity and happiness Develop your self awareness so you can better balance your energy Build resilience and manage stress so you can perform in high stakes or unpredictable situations Find your focus and live with purpose passion and drive Through inspirational stories and proven techniques from mountaintop monasteries to executive boardrooms Beating Burnout Finding Balance gives you the tools to achieve your goals and live more meaningfully and mindfully Keeping the Fire from Burnout to Balance Ruth J.
