Morning Glory Linda Dahl, 2012-09-19 Mary Lou Williams pianist arranger composer and probably the most influential woman in the history of jazz receives the attention she has long deserved in the definitive biography by a leading scholar of women in jazz The illegitimate child of an impoverished and indifferent mother Williams began performing publicly at the age of seven when she became known admiringly in her native Pittsburgh as the little piano girl of East Liberty playing one day for the Mellons at bridge teas and the next in gambling dens where the hat was passed for change She grew up with the jazz of the early part of the century championed by the likes of Earl Hines and Fats Waller yet unlike so many other musicians of her time she was open to new forms in jazz she was an early champion of bop and a mentor and colleague to its central figures such as Thelonius Monk and Bud Powell and in broader musical styles as well after her conversion to Catholicism she wrote masses and other sacred music Most of the other famous women in jazz Billie Holiday Ella Fitzgerald have been singers Williams was instead a phenomenal pianist who performed solo with small groups and big bands in vaudeville and clubs and on numerous records But she is equally well known today as a composer and arranger of remarkable versatility and power having worked with among others Duke Ellington and Benny Goodman Her compositions have been recorded by artists as varied as Marian McPartland Dizzy Gillespie Nat King Cole Sarah Vaughan Ella Fitzgerald and herself and more recently by cutting edge players Geri Allen and Dave Douglas But Williams was more than just a musician her interests were catholic in both senses and she struggled to combine her love of music with her love of God She was a tireless humanitarian and made ongoing attempts to help dozens of down and out musicians in the 1950s her apartment was at times virtually a rehab Though she was often in emotional despair she found comfort for her many disappointments and hurts not only in her music but in her spirituality Linda Dahl granted unprecedented access to the large Williams archive has given us the whole of Williams s very full life from her often harrowing days on the road to her tumultuous marriages and love affairs from the ups and downs of her unique fifty year career to the remarkable spirituality that came to inform both her daily life and her music This is a striking portrait of one of our least understood and most important musicians Glory Days Simon

Dekeyser,2025-07-07 Red Lights Dark Roads is a raw and gripping true story that takes you into the heart of trauma survival and unshakable resilience After surviving multiple life threatening encounters being shot in the face by police targeted in road rage shootings and enduring betrayal and silence from loved ones Allen De Keyser shares his journey through darkness PTSD and pain But this is more than just a memoir It s a call to be seen To be heard To be believed With every red light comes a choice freeze in fear or fight for your life Through powerful storytelling emotional honesty and spiritual grounding Allen reveals what it means to keep driving through the dark when healing seems impossible and hope feels far away For anyone who s ever been let down by the system lost in the shadows of trauma or desperate to find peace after chaos Red Lights Dark Roads will speak straight to your soul Essential Cinema Jonathan Rosenbaum,2004-04-27 In his astute and deeply informed film reviews and essays Jonathan Rosenbaum regularly provides new and brilliant insights into the cinema as art entertainment and commerce Guided by a personal canon of great films Rosenbaum sees in the ongoing hostility toward the idea of a canon shared by many within the field of film studies a missed opportunity both to shape the discussion about cinema and to help inform and guide casual and serious filmgoers alike In Essential Cinema Rosenbaum forcefully argues that canons of great films are more necessary than ever given that film culture today is dominated by advertising executives sixty second film reviewers and other players in the Hollywood publicity machine who champion mediocre films at the expense of genuinely imaginative and challenging works He proposes specific definitions of excellence in film art through the creation a personal canon of both well known and obscure movies from around the world and suggests ways in which other canons might be similarly constructed Essential Cinema offers in depth assessments of an astonishing range of films established classics such as Rear Window M and Greed ambitious but flawed works like The Thin Red Line and Breaking the Waves eccentric masterpieces from around the world including Irma Vep and Archangel and recent films that have bitterly divided critics and viewers among them Eyes Wide Shut and A I He also explores the careers of such diverse filmmakers as Robert Altman Ra l Ruiz Frank Tashlin Elaine May Sam Fuller Terrence Davies Edward Yang Hou Hsiao hsien and Orson

Welles In conclusion Rosenbaum offers his own film canon of 1 000 key works from the beginning of cinema to the present day A cogent and provocative argument about the art of film Essential Cinema is also a fiercely independent reference book of must see movies for film lovers everywhere
