From Heart And Mind A Classroom Odessey:

From Heart and Mind Stanley J. Bezuszka, 1993-01-01 Here is a collection of motivational thoughts that have inspired Stanley Bezuszka's teaching career drawn from his more than 900 presentations workshops and minicourses in the U S and abroad

Math Sense Christine Moynihan, 2012 How is that you can walk into a classroom and gain an overall sense of the quality of math instruction taking place there What contributes to getting that sense In Math Sense wuthor Christine Moynihan explores some of the components that comprise the look sound and feel of effective teaching and learning Does the landscape of the classroom feature such items as student work samples a math literature collection and a number line Do the lessons include wait time checks for understanding and written feedback Do you feel a spirit of collaboration risk taking and a sense of pride In Math Sense Moynihan provides a series of self assessment rubrics to help you identify the earmarks of a vibrant mathematics community that will help inform and refine your practice This practical guide offers a road map for taking stock of your teaching and building a stronger mathematics classroom environment for you and your students

The Odyssey of a Heart Mervin Wagler, 2007-04 Set within the conservative religious subculture of the Amish The Odyssey of a Heart is a searing examination of the authors heart as he struggles with intense doubt and fear brought on by his own youthful insecurities The work is a piercing call to defy the destructive tendencies that lie within and to live from a deep and full heart

Motivation School, 1928

At the Heart of Teaching Grace Hall McEntee, John Appleby, JoAnne Dowd, Jan Grant, Simon Hole, Peggy C. Silva, Joseph Check, 2003 Featuring engaging narratives this how to book delves into reflection as a concept and provides specific replicable tools for professional practice Each chapter draws on a particular school situation demonstrating the value of teacher reflection and describing the nuts and bolts of the process including protocols for handling many different circumstances At the end of each chapter I was dying to go back to the classroom and adapt a new idea into my practice But probably more importantly I saw my own practice in a new light as I read these engaging accounts of the work of other teachers They ring true and honest to what schooling is about and how and why good teachers never give up and why they love their work Deborah Meier Co principal of Mission Hill School and author of In Schools We Trust Typical professional development fare will rarely take us close to the particulars of our own practice As I read through these chapters finally it's that sense of thoughtful becoming that possibility of action in the midst of uncertainty that at the end of the day is the promise of this book From the Foreword by Mike Rose

A Creative Approach to the Common Core Standards Harry Chaucer, 2012-04-12 A Creative Approach to the Common Core Standards The Da Vinci Curriculum challenges educators to design programs that boldly embrace the Common Core State Standards by imaginatively drawing from the genius of great men and women such as Leonardo da Vinci A central figure in the High Renaissance Leonardo made extraordinary contributions as a painter architect sculptor scientist engineer and futurist A Creative Approach demonstrates that schools can cultivate genius such as Leonardo's while insuring that all students realize the core skills that are crucial to all citizens Chaucer's Da Vinci Curriculum is relevant to public and independent educators who are creating schools within schools charter schools renewing schools or rethinking their own classrooms A Creative Approach serves as a model of biographical curricula that embraces the standards that Americans share as citizens in a democracy The text is rich in theory that has been tested in real classrooms By example Chaucer demonstrates that high schools can be more demanding imaginative engaging and joyous than most high schools tend to be today By adapting the Da Vinci Curriculum all educators can participate in this educational renaissance The School Journal, 1908 Project Earth Science Alfredo L.
