Poetry of Almost Abhishek Singh, 2025-05-15 What happens to love when it lingers in the silence When goodbye is whispered but never heard When healing begins but memory still aches The Poetry of Almost is a tender and haunting journey through the echoes of a love that nearly was told from a woman's soul that felt it all and survived In six raw and evolving phases these poems trace the quiet collapse of a relationship the aching ache of absence and the fragile hope that grows from letting go Each verse peels back a layer of what it means to lose to remember to rebuild until almost becomes enough to carry forward For the ones who stayed too long For the ones who left too late For anyone still learning how to let go without hating the love This isn't a story of endings It's the poetry of what nearly bloomed and what quietly remains
