From Motherhood To Mothering The Legacy Of Adrienne Rich's Of Woman Born:

From Motherhood to Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2012-02-01 In the years since the publication of Adrienne Rich's Of Woman Born the topic of motherhood has emerged as a central issue in feminist scholarship. Arguably still the best feminist book on mothering and motherhood, Of Woman Born is not only a wide-ranging far-reaching meditation on the meaning and experience of motherhood that draws from the disciplines of anthropology, feminist theory, psychology, and literature, but it also narrates Rich's personal reflections on her experiences of mothering. Andrea O'Reilly gathers feminist scholars from diverse disciplines such as literature, women's studies, law, sociology, anthropology, creative writing, and critical theory, and examines how Of Woman Born has informed and influenced the way feminist scholarship thinks and talks about motherhood. The contributors explore the many ways in which Rich provides the analytical tools to study and report upon the meaning and experience of motherhood.

Toni Morrison and Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-04-08 Traces Morrison's theory of African American mothering as it is articulated in her novels, essays, speeches, and interviews. Mothering is a central issue for feminist theory, and motherhood is also a persistent presence in the work of Toni Morrison. Examining Morrison's novels, essays, speeches, and interviews, Andrea O'Reilly illustrates how Morrison builds upon black women's experiences of and perspectives on motherhood to develop a view of black motherhood that is in terms of both maternal identity and role, radically different from motherhood as practiced and prescribed in the dominant culture. Motherhood in Morrison's view is fundamentally and profoundly an act of resistance, essential and integral to black women's fight against racism and sexism, and their ability to achieve well-being for themselves and their culture. The power of motherhood and the empowerment of mothering are what make possible the better world we seek for ourselves and for our children. This argues O'Reilly is Morrison's maternal theory, a politics of the heart. As an advocate of a politics of the heart, O'Reilly has an acute insight into discerning any threat to the preservation and continuation of traditional African American womanhood and values. Above all, Toni Morrison and Motherhood, based on Andrea O'Reilly's methodical research on Morrison's works as well as feminist critical resources, proffers a useful basis for understanding Toni Morrison's works. It certainly contributes to exploring in detail Morrison's rich and complex works, notable from the perspectives of nurturing and sustaining African American maternal tradition. African American Review: O'Reilly boldly reconfigures hegemonic western notions of motherhood while maintaining dialogues across cultural differences. Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering: Andrea O'Reilly examines Morrison's complex presentations of and theories about motherhood with admirable rigor and a refusal to simplify, and the result is one of the most penetrating and insightful studies of Morrison yet to appear, a book that will prove invaluable to any scholar, teacher, or reader of Morrison. South Atlantic Review: it serves as a sort of annotated bibliography of nearly all the major theoretical work on motherhood and on Morrison as an author; anyone conducting serious study of either Toni Morrison or motherhood, not to mention the combination, should read this book. O'Reilly's exhaustive research, her facility with theories of Anglo American and Black feminism and her penetrating analyses of Morrison's works result in a highly useful scholarly read Literary Mama By tracing both the metaphor and literal practice of mothering in Morrison's literary world O'Reilly conveys Morrison's vision of motherhood as an act of resistance American Literature Motherhood is critically important as a recurring theme in Toni Morrison's oeuvre and within black feminist and feminist scholarship An in depth analysis of this central concern is necessary in order to explore the complex disjunction between Morrison's interviews which praise black mothering and the fiction which presents mothers in various destructive and self destructive modes Kudos to Andrea O'Reilly for illuminating Morrison's maternal standpoint and helping readers and critics understand this difficult terrain Toni Morrison and Motherhood is also valuable as a resource that addresses and synthesizes a huge body of secondary literature Nancy Gerber author of Portrait of the Mother Artist Class and Creativity in Contemporary American Fiction In addition to presenting a penetrating and original reading of Toni Morrison O'Reilly integrates the evolving scholarship on motherhood in dominant and minority cultures in a review that is both a composite of commonalities and a clear representation of differences Elizabeth Bourque Johnson University of Minnesota Andrea O'Reilly is Associate Professor in the School of Women's Studies at York University and President of the Association for Research on Mothering She is the author and editor of several books on mothering including with Sharon Abbey Mothers and Daughters Connection Empowerment and Transformation and Mothers and Sons Feminism Masculinity and the Struggle to Raise Our Sons

Feminist Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2008-10-09 Feminist Mothering goes beyond critiques of patriarchal motherhood to locate and investigate feminist maternal practices as sites for women's empowerment and social change The contributors see feminist mothering as practices of mothering that seek to challenge and change the norms of patriarchal motherhood that are limiting and oppressive to women For many women practicing feminist mothering offers a way to disrupt the transmission of sexist and patriarchal values from generation to generation Contributors explore the ways in which women integrate activism paid employment nonsexist childrearing practices and non child centered interests in their lives and other caregivers into their children's lives in order to challenge existing societal inequality and create new egalitarian possibilities for women men and families BOOK JACKET Feminist Mothering Andrea O'Reilly, 2008-10-09 Feminist Mothering goes beyond critiques of patriarchal motherhood to locate and investigate feminist maternal practices as sites for women's empowerment and social change The contributors see feminist mothering as practices of mothering that seek to challenge and change the norms of patriarchal motherhood that are limiting and oppressive to women For many women practicing feminist mothering offers a way to disrupt the transmission of sexist and patriarchal values from generation to generation Contributors explore the ways in which women integrate activism paid employment nonsexist childrearing practices and non child centered interests in their lives and other caregivers into their children's lives in order to challenge existing societal inequality and create new egalitarian possibilities for women men and families The Mother Blame Game Vanessa

Reimer,2015-11-01 The Mother Blame Game is an interdisciplinary and intersectional examination of the phenomenon of mother blame in the twenty first century As the socioeconomic and cultural expectations of what constitutes good motherhood grow continually narrow and exclusionary mothers are demonized and stigmatized perhaps now more than ever for all that is perceived to go wrong in their children s lives This anthology brings together creative and scholarly contributions from feminist academics and activists alike to provide a dynamic study of the many varied ways in which mothers are blamed and shamed for their maternal practice Importantly it also considers how mothers resist these ideologies by engaging in empowered and feminist mothering practices as well as by publicly challenging patriarchal discourses of good motherhood Twenty-first-Century Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2010-09-28 Andrea O Reilly s coverage is comprehensive Her book reflects current trends in the field particularly the examination of reproductive technologies and the Internet and their implications for motherhood and mothering Heather Hewett State University of New York New Paltz writer and editor of the Global Mama column for Girl with Pen www.girlwpen.com White Feminists and Contemporary Maternity D. Hallstein,2010-03-29 This work explores matrophobia the fear not of one s mother or of motherhood but of becoming one s mother in past and present white feminist analyses of motherhood and mothering By tracing white second wave feminism s strategic choice to organize first as sisters then as daughters O Brien Hallstein argues matrophobia became embedded in past and continues to linger in contemporary feminist analyses As a result contemporary analyses reveal crucially important but limited understandings of contemporary motherhood and mothering This important work concludes that matrophobia can be reduced and eliminated by reorienting analyses to mutual responsiveness between sisters and daughters second and third wave feminists Motherhood in Literature and Culture Gill Rye,Victoria Browne,Adalgisa Giorgio,Emily Jeremiah,Abigail Lee Six,2017-06-26 Motherhood remains a complex and contested issue in feminist research as well as public discussion This interdisciplinary volume explores cultural representations of motherhood in various contemporary European contexts including France Italy Germany Portugal Spain and the UK and it considers how such representations affect the ways in which different individuals and groups negotiate motherhood as both institution and lived experience It has a particular focus on literature but it also includes essays that examine representations of motherhood in philosophy art social policy and film The book s driving contention is that through intersecting with other fields and disciplines literature and the study of literature have an important role to play in nuancing dialogues around motherhood by offering challenging insights and imaginative responses to complex problems and experiences This is demonstrated throughout the volume which covers a range of topics including discursive and visual depictions of pregnancy and birth the impact of new reproductive technologies on changing family configurations the relationship between mothering and citizenship the shaping of policy imperatives regarding mothering and disability and the difficult realities of miscarriage child death violence and infanticide The collection expands and complicates hegemonic notions of motherhood as the authors map and analyse shifting conceptions of maternal subjectivity and embodiment explore some of the constraining and or enabling contexts in which mothering takes place and ask searching questions about what it means to be a mother in Europe today It will be of interest not only to those working in gender women s and feminist studies but also to scholars in literary and cultural studies and those researching in sociology criminology politics psychology medical ethics midwifery and related fields Textual Mothers/Maternal Texts Elizabeth Podnieks,Andrea O'Reilly,2011-04-07 Textual Mothers Maternal Texts focuses on mothers as subjects and as writers who produce auto biography fiction and poetry about maternity International contributors examine the mother without child with child and in her multiple identities as grandmother mother and daughter The collection examines how authors use textual spaces to accept negotiate resist or challenge traditional conceptions of mothering and maternal roles and how these texts offer alternative practices and visions for mothers Further it illuminates how textual representations both reflect and help to define or re shape the realities of women and families by examining how mothering and being a mother are political personal and creative narratives unfolding within both the pages of a book and the spaces of a life The range of chapters maps a shift from the daughter centric stories that have dominated the maternal tradition to the matrilineal and matrifocal perspectives that have emerged over the last few decades as the mother s voice moved from silence to speech Contributors make aesthetic cultural and political claims and critiques about mothering and motherhood illuminating in new and diverse ways how authors and the protagonists of the texts read their own maternal identities as well as the maternal scripts of their families cultures and nations in their quest for self knowledge agency and artistic expression

Mothers Jacqueline Rose,2018-05 An essay about culture and feminism argues that human culture simultaneously romanticizes and vilifies mothers making them into a scapegoat for all failings Taking the Village Online: Mothers, Motherhood and Social Media Basden Lorin Arnold,2016-11-01 The rise of social media has changed how we understand and enact relationships across our lives including motherhood The meanings and practices of mothering have been significantly impacted by the availability of communities found via forums blogs and sites like Twitter Facebook and Instagram as well as internet resources that function to inform maternal experience and self concept ex motherhood websites Pinterest or YouTube The village that now contributes to the mothering experience has grown exponentially granting mothers access to interactional partners and knowledge never before available This volume of works explores the impact of social media forms on our cultural understandings of motherhood and the ways that we communicate about the experience and practice of mothering Theorizing Motherhood and Emerging Adulthood Maya Bhavé,Talia Esnard,,Kae Solomon,2025-05-14 While motherhood as an area of scholarship has been significantly advanced with extensive global theorizations examinations of the thinking and experiences around mothering emerging adults are still in need of deeper interrogation This edited volume addresses this gap with a rich array of empirical reflective and creative pieces that speak to the contextual emotive or affective discursive and performative aspects of mothering The volume is framed around the theoretical concepts of normative motherhood maternal regret silence and maternal social transitions The contributing authors bring to light new and innovative analyses on subjects including but not limited to eco disconnect non proximate and e mothering neurodiversity abuse mental health issues and mothering tiger mothering and racialized understandings of mothering emerging adults The findings revealed within this volume broaden our understanding of the often unexamined latter period of the motherhood arc

Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2010-04-06 In the last decade the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical historical and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences

Mothering in Marginalized Contents: Narratives of Women Who Mother In the Domestic Violence Caroline Mcdonald-Harker,2016-02-01 This book provides a rare and in depth examination of the narratives experiences and lived realities of abused mothers a group of women who despite being the victims are often criticized vilified and stigmatized for failing to meet dominant ideologies of what a good mother is should be because they have lived and mothered in domestic abuse relationships Based on a qualitative research study conducted with 29 abused mothers residing in abused women s shelters in Calgary Alberta this book highlights the ways that these mothers experience the dominant ideology of intensive mothering negotiate the resulting discourses of the good and the bad mother and ultimately find ways to exercise agency resistance and empowerment in and through their mothering This book discusses how abused mothers engage in empowered mothering by constructing valued fortified and liberating identities for themselves as mothers in the face of an ideology of intensive mothering that delegitimizes and subjugates them These mothers are not passive victims but rather are active agents who resist and question the idealized standards of intensive mothering as being restrictive and unachievable who view their mothering in a positive light even though they have lived and mothered in social milieus deemed outside the boundaries of acceptable mothering and who uphold that they are indeed worthy mothers despite their stigmatized status Particular attention is given to the ways that intersections of gender race and social class shape and influence abused mothers constructions of their mothering identities This book calls into question the false notion that there is only one standard one definition and one social location in which effective mothering is performed It is a voice against the judgment of mothers a call to end the oppressive and restrictive bifurcation of mothers into categories of either good or bad mothers and an attempt to re envision a more inclusive understanding of mothering This book is a movement towards the empowerment of all mothers regardless of differences in their lives and social circumstances

Mary, Mother of Martyrs Kathleen Gallagher Elkins, 2020-10-21 The Virgin Mary has been idealized as a self sacri cing mother throughout Christian history but she is not the only ancient maternal gure whose story is connected to violent loss This book examines several ancient representations of mothers and children in contexts of sociopolitical violence demonstrating that notions of early Christian motherhood as today are contextual and produced for various political social and ethical reasons In each chapter the ancient maternal gure is juxtaposed with an example of contemporary maternal activism to show that maternal self sacri ce can be understood as strategic varied politically charged and rhetorically flexible

Global Perspectives on Motherhood, Mothering and Masculinities Andrea Moraes, Tola Olu Pearce, 2021-06-01 The two phenomena highlighted in this edited volume motherhood mothering and masculinities are each recent areas of development in critical Feminist and Men s Studies In contributing to these areas of gender studies this book draws attention to the fact that much can also be gained when we explore relationships between them an idea that may not readily come to mind While femininities and masculinities are co constructed motherhood and mothering bring additional perspectives to the study of femininity that affect the construction of masculinity in complex ways The 12 chapters in this volume allow readers to ponder some of these complexities and may suggest other issues that require investigation Spanning many continents the essays have both a global and historical reach emphasising cultural differences and historical changes Of import is the idea that mothers have agency and are active in constructions affecting their lives They are able to bring motherhood out of the shadows as they strive to build re evaluate or alter their roles within families and communities These have an impact on developments in masculinities The book is divided into three parts and the chapters investigate a wide range of issues including cultural constructs gender in parent child relationships non binary developments the impact of war on mothering decolonisation struggles and much more Mothers, Mobility, Narrative Mary Jo Bona, 2025-05-01 Shows how US literary representations of mothering across racial ethnic and LGBTQ communities challenge ideological prescriptions about motherhood and maternal love Mothers Mobility Narrative pairs women identified writers whose work illuminates a range of maternal practices in the face of egregious structural inequalities and obstacles By using the critical lens of maternal feminism alongside recent theories of time space and memory Mary Jo Bona reengages the field of motherhood studies to explore linkages between motherhood and movement Across genres Harriet Jacobs Willa Cather Toni Morrison Audre Lorde Kym Ragusa Carole Maso Cristina Garcia and Rebecca Makkai develop maternal figures who in battling against institutional oppressions in eras of slavery colonialism dictatorship and pandemic expose the fundamentally intersectional nature of social categorization and disrupt traditional discourses of the maternal Mothers Mobility Narrative rethinks maternity across a century and a half of literary expression in the United States compelling readers to embrace more capacious understandings of maternal subjectivity care and kinship

Unmasking (New) Maternal Realities Laura Lazzari, Giulia Po DeLisle, 2025-04-07 This book aims to shed light on artistic works centered on mothering and reproductive experiences ones which defy outdated stereotypes break taboos overcome trauma and empower women The goal of this collection is to contribute to this field of studies and foster our understanding of what motherhood and mothering really look like in our society Throughout this collaborative volume the voices of established and emerging scholars merge to broaden the discourse on maternity by examining the complex and constantly evolving maternal experiences that are unique and yet transnational and universal in their essence
