From My Sisters' Lips Na'ima bint Robert, Naima Bint Robert, 2005 Covered from head to toe with only her eyes visible the sight of a Muslim woman on a western city street rarely fails to provoke a strong reaction Feelings of shock horror repulsion pity or even fear are not uncommon But have you ever wondered who it is behind the veil and what makes her tick Ever wondered what her life is really like and whether her dreams hopes and aspirations differ from yours Now in FROM MY SISTERS LIPS Na ima B Robert offers a rare glimpse into the lives of a community of women most of whom are converts to Islam and invites you to share their joys sorrows convictions and faith years ago it was not a decision taken lightly Yet soon after she took the first tentative steps towards covering she felt empowered no longer judged on physical appearances alone no longer seeking the approval to feel beautiful or using her looks to wield power over men the experience effected her greatly Before long she grew in confidence and courage As she says Something just clicked I thought Good don t look don t compare me with your latest squeeze don t try and guess my measurements my body is my own business As Na ima recounts the compelling story of her conversion to Islam she also offers first hand accounts of just some of the extraordinary Muslim women she has come to know in recent years women like herself who have chosen to live behind the veil What emerges is a vivid and intimate portrait of a sisterhood as they speak candidly and with conviction on a diverse range of subjects ranging from marriage to motherhood stereotypes submission and self image we hear the strong proud voices of those who are seldom heard world usually seen only by those privileged enough to be admitted to it s inner circle It is also a celebration of womanhood a celebration of those who have chosen to live behind the veil
