From Anger To Zion An Alphabet Of Faith

Marcel A. Müller

From Anger To Zion An Alphabet Of Faith:

From Anger to Zion Porter Taylor, 2004-08-01 Anger judgment forgiveness wisdom All of these and more are biblical words we've used so often that they have very little meaning for us anymore For others seekers and those who are coming to church for the first time these words sound like jargon They are words that divide new church members from those who have been there a lifetime In From Anger to Zion Porter Taylor reflects on an alphabet of biblical words in ways that will help newcomers understand and speak the language and that will encourage those familiar with these words to rethink them A wonderful storyteller and writer Taylor's essays each based on a biblical text take ancient words and ideas and bring them into contemporary life Egypt of old is today's broken place in our lives the place where like Moses God is most likely to call us to go Forgiveness is explored as a way of unfreezing time without forgiveness we cannot grow What does Isaiah's and the Israelites homesickness have to do with today's homeless and lost people These beautifully written essays are wonderful devotional material but they also can serve as material for preparing to preach or for small group discussion within parish reading groups

The Living Church, 2004-07 Speaking to the Soul Vicki K. Black, 2009-09 The flourishing website EpiscopalCafe.org produced by the Diocese of Washington attracts several thousand visitors a day Its popular column Speaking to the Soul which contains a concise well developed spiritual reflection for every day of the year draws from many different sources including scripture church history saints biographies books of prayers liturgies and ancient and contemporary theologians and spiritual writers This daily reader grew out of that column It follows the Episcopal Church's liturgical seasons and includes observation of major feast days as well as saints days The reading for a particular saint's day might be taken from the saint's writings prayers or biography or might develop a theme such as martyrdom or growth in the spirit Other readings focus on particular emphases of the seasons the Incarnation during Advent and Christmas spiritual disciplines during Lent or speak more generally to the Christian life prayer discipleship ministry the sacraments conflict and reconciliation and so on Readings are taken from every century of the church's life with particular attention to how the writings and experiences of earlier Christians can shed light on the difficulties joys and concerns of the church today Excerpts are long enough to give a satisfying and complete context of the writer's intended meaning
