From Adjustment To Development In Africa Gerald K. Helleiner, 1994-09-22 This book considers the principal sources of agreement and disagreement among policymakers and analysts concerning the current economic problems of Sub-Saharan Africa A distinguished collection of international and African authors including economists from the IMF and the World Bank as well as their critics addresses the key policy issues in agriculture trade macroeconomic management social issues privatization external capital flow and political economy An introductory interpretive essay searches for areas of consensus and identifies those of continuing controversy

From Crisis to Renewal Kempe R. Hope, 2002 This book provides a thorough analysis of the evolution implementation and impact of development policy and management in Africa covering the post independence period It traces the emergence of and factors contributing to the continent s development crisis and the efforts and results of renewal strategies

Economic Growth and Development in Africa Horman Chitonge, 2015-01-09 In recent years Africa has undergone the longest period of sustained economic growth in the continent s history drawing the attention of the international media and academics alike This book analyses the Africa Rising narrative from multidisciplinary perspectives offering a critical assessment of the explanations given for the poor economic growth and development performance in Africa prior to the millennium and the dramatic shift towards the new Africa Bringing in perspectives from African intellectuals and scholars many of whom have previously been overlooked in this debate the book examines the construction of Africa s economic growth and development portraits over the years It looks at two institutions that play a vital role in African development providing a detailed explanation of how the World Bank and the IMF have interpreted and dealt with the African challenges and experiences The insightful analysis reveals that if Africa is rising only 20 30 per cent of Africans are aboard the rising ship and the main challenge facing the continent today is to bring on board the majority of Africans who have been excluded from growth This book makes the complex and sometimes confusing debates on Africa s economic growth experience more accessible to a wide range of readers interested in the Africa story It is essential reading for students and researchers in African Studies and will be of great interest to scholars in Development Studies Political Economy and Development Economics

The International Relations of Sub-Saharan Africa Ian Taylor, 2010-04-01 Despite the myth of marginality and irrelevance Africa has always been inextricably linked to the global stage and has long played an important often vital role in international politics Critically analyzing the modalities of governance in large parts of Africa the book provides a comprehensive overview of the continent s international relations arguing that contra to the notion that Africa is a passive bystander to global processes its elites have generally proven themselves excellent arch manipulators of the international system Chapters on American British French Chinese Indian and European interactions with the continent engage with chapters on the role of the World Bank and IMF and the new scramble for Africa s oil to explain such processes Book Jacket      Achieving Financial Stability and Growth in Africa Stephany Griffith-Jones, Ricardo Gottschalk, 2016-03-24 This book explores how the financial system should be regulated and structured to achieve the twin goals of inclusive growth and financial stability with a focus on African low income countries LICs The subject and content of this book is original in that it attempts to draw on the lessons and radical rethinking on the financial sector in developed and middle income countries arising in the wake of the international financial crisis It includes four in depth country case studies of Kenya Ghana Nigeria and Ethiopia but also analyses the empirical evidence for Sub Saharan Africa as a whole evaluating the relevance or not of such major changes for the very different financial sectors and economies in low income countries Achieving Financial Stability and Growth in Africa has major academic and policy implications especially for low income countries but also more generally on broader issues These include the desirable size of the financial sector as well as more specific issues such as the high cost of borrowing of small and medium enterprises in LICs and possible measures to reduce it Highly topical subjects like the appropriate regulation of the financial sector and management of capital flows are discussed in depth Though drawing on comprehensive reviews of the literature this volume has the virtue of the large comparative academic and policy experience of researchers as well as in depth case studies that take account of institutional and economic features of low income countries Written by senior academics and policy makers this book is a must read for those researching or participating in the financial sectors of low income countries as well as in developed economies It is also suitable for those who study political economy and public finance      Development of Rural Financial Markets to

Sub-Saharan Africa Sabapathy Thillairajah, 1994 World Bank Environment Paper 6 Here is a holistic approach to analyzing the environmental impact of various power systems Unlike standard impact studies that begin at the project level this method calls for environmental assessments that start at the planning stage of a national framework for energy policymaking The framework would take into account the energy needs of Sri Lanka s total economy It also would make it easier to incorporate environmental goals into power sector decisionmaking at the critical investment stage Sri Lanka s development options for the power sector are reviewed in detail Topics include alternative ways to assess the economic value of a power plant s impact on biodiversity human health and air and water pollution The study also assesses which energy planning options work best and recommends ways in which the Ceylon Electricity Board can improve its environmental policies

The Food and Financial Crises in Sub-Saharan Africa Muna Ndulo, 2011 Dramatic increases in food prices as witnessed on a global scale in recent years threaten the food security of hundreds of millions of the rural poor in Sub Saharan Africa alone This book focuses on recent food and financial crises as they have affected Africa illustrating the problems using country case studies that cover their origins effects on agriculture and rural poverty their underlying factors and making recommendations as to how such crises could best be addressed in the future      Sub-Saharan Africa , 1989

Good Growth and Governance in Africa Akbar Noman, 2012 This volume reflects the highlights of their deliberations

Legitimate Governance in Africa Edward Kofi Quashigah, Obiora Chinedu Okafor, 2024-01-22 Any attempt to address the ever present problem of instability in Africa gives rise to questions regarding legitimate governance Without future thinking and action on the legitimacy of governance in Africa and how to secure it past mistakes will go unheeded rather than informing forward movement Surprisingly no existing work has comprehensively addressed this critical issue Legitimate Governance in Africa provides this needed coverage for the first time examining such key components in the struggle for legitimate governance as the role of the international community in addressing the problem the particular role women can play and ways in which women can improve their involvement in the whole enterprise of governance and the roles of non governmental organizations and civil society In this diverse collection of essays a wide range of expert legal contributors all familiar with the status of the struggle for legitimate governance in a specific institution or particular African state brings unique perspectives to the scholarly investigation of legitimate governance in Africa The individual authors have thought deeply about the complexities and subtleties of conducting and evaluating the business of African state governance considering both the practical sustainability of potential approaches and theoretical problems and issues The probing high quality essays facilitate a real understanding of the obstacles to progress in the struggle for legitimate governance Through their depth and diversity of views every one of the papers included in this collection enriches the pool of knowledge on this important subject Africa's Changing Agricultural Development Strategies Christopher L. Delgado, 1995 Similarities and dominant paradigms Chronology and elements of the dominant paradigms of agricultural development Insights for paradigms of African Agricultural Development Unity and Diversity in Development Ideas Yves Berthelot, 2004-01-30 This second volume from the United Nations Intellectual History Project surveys the history of the UN's regional commissions and the ideas they have developed over the last 40 years Each essay is devoted to one of the five regional commissions Europe Asia and the Far East Latin America Africa and Western Asia and how it has approached its mission of assessing the condition of regional economies and making prognoses about future conditions The essays describe how each commission has added local perspectives to global debates over economic development and brought an authentic regional voice to the UN Contributors are Adebayo Adedeji Yves Berthelot Leelananda de Silva Blandine Destremau Paul Rayment and Gert Rosenthal

Democratic Governance, Law, and Development in Africa Maame Efua Addadzi-Koom, Michael Addaney, Lydia A. Nkansah, 2022-12-10 This volume analyses democratic governance the rule of law and development in Africa It is unique and timely First the theme and sub themes were carefully selected to solicit quality chapters from academics practitioners and graduate students on topical and contemporary issues in constitutional law human rights and democratic governance in Africa The chapters were subjected to a single blind peer review by experts and scholars in the relevant fields to ensure that high quality submissions are included Due to the dearth of knowledge and studies on the chosen thematic areas the publication will remain relevant after several years due to the timeless themes it covers In this regard this edited volume audits the progress of democratic consolidation rule of law and development in Ghana with selected case studies from other African countries This book is intended for higher education institutions universities institutes and centres public libraries general academics practitioners and students of law democracy human rights and political science especially those interested in African affairs Africa: Beyond Recovery Thandika Mkandawire, 2015-04-26 Professor Thandika Mkandawire

the first to hold the Chair in African Development at the London School of Economics delivered the thirty second in the Aggrey Fraser Guggisberg Memorial Lecture series at the University of Ghana in 2013 In these lectures combining with and imagination with down to earth political economy he traces Africas attempts at growth and development since the independence era her attempts at recovery from a string of serious socio political set backs and advocates for the role of universities as essential agents in the drive to sustained development Agricultural Development in China and Africa

Li Xiaoyun, Qi Gubo, Tang Lixia, Zhao Lixia, Jin Leshan, Guo Zhanfeng, Wu Jin, 2012-05-04 Many African countries are increasingly interested in learning from China s experiences in achieving effective agricultural development The Chinese government and academic community are also keen to share experiences and lessons with Africa China made agriculture one of its development assistance priorities at the Third FOCAC Summit in Beijing in 2006 This systematic comparative study of agricultural development in China and Africa provides a unique basis for African countries and international organizations seeking to understand agricultural development in China and for China to understand agricultural development on the African continent The book highlights experiences and lessons from China and in particular analyzes why Africa has not yet been able to emulate China s agricultural development trajectory It compares the similarities and discrepancies in conditions processes and outcomes between China and Africa from the perspectives of investment science and technology policies and international development aid Based on this it explores which experiences and lessons from China s agriculture development can be shared with African countries in order to contribute to the sustainable improvement and transformation of African agriculture It does not claim that China has all of the answers but while recognizing the diversity within both China and Africa concludes that much can be gained from such a comparison The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics: Context and concepts Célestin Monga, Justin Yifu Lin, 2015

For a long time economic research on Africa was not seen as a profitable venture intellectually or professionally few researchers in top ranked institutions around the world chose to become experts in the field This was understandable the reputation of Africa centered economic research was not enhanced by the well known limitations of economic data across the continent Moreover development economics itself was not always fashionable and the broader discipline of economics has had its ups and downs and has been undergoing a major identity crisis because it failed to predict the Great Recession Times have changed many leading researchers including a few Nobel laureates have taken the subject of Africa and economics seriously enough to devote their expertise and creativity to it They have been amply rewarded the richness complexities and subtleties of African societies civilizations rationalities and ways of living have helped renew the humanities and the social sciences and economics in particular to the point that the continent has become the next major intellectual frontier to researchers from around the world In collecting some of the most authoritative statements about the science of economics and its concepts in the African context this handbook the first of two volumes opens up the diverse acuity of commentary on exciting topics and in the process challenges and stimulates the quest for knowledge Wide ranging in its scope themes language and approaches this volume explores examines and assesses economic thinking on Africa and Africa s contribution to the discipline The editors bring a set of powerful resources to this endeavor most notably a team of internationally renowned economists whose diverse viewpoints are complemented by the perspectives of philosophers political scientists and anthropologists

Globalization in Africa Etham B. Mijah, Moses E. U. Tedheke, Usman A. Tar, 2016-10-28 This book presents critical perspectives on the impacts of globalization in Africa with particular reference to the crisis of development and governance the crisis of peace and security and the environmental crisis It explores both global and local factors that exacerbate these crises and seeks solutions to these challenges With a strong slant on African experience and perspectives the book reveals that globalization has presented Africa with both challenges and opportunities for governance and existence in an increasingly inter connected planet

The Governance, Security and Development Nexus Kenneth Omeje, 2020-10-01 This edited book analyses the changing links between governance security and development in Africa as they relate to the narrative that contemporary Africa has made remarkable progress in recent years a phenomenon popularly known as Africa rising The book presents a rigorous evaluation of the Africa rising debate and consequently offers innovative policy guidelines for Africa s governance and development transformation
