From Hipsters To Gonzo How New Journalism Rewrote The World:

From Hipsters to Gonzo Marc Weingarten, 2005 Throughout the 1960s and 1970s an eclectic gang of writers and editors began to experiment blending the creative techniques of literary fiction with so-called objective journalism The result was a revolution in style that was provocative culturally and politically engaged and self-consciously cool From Hipsters to Gonzo tells the fascinating stories behind some of the classics of the genre including In Cold Blood Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas The Right Stuff Armies of the Night The Electric Kool Aid Acid Test and Slouching Towards Bethlehem It shows how the New Journalism pushed reportage beyond its narrow limits and changed the literary culture Fear and Loathing Worldwide Robert Alexander, Christine Isager, 2018-07-26 For more than 40 years the radically subjective style of participatory journalism known as Gonzo has been inextricably associated with the American writer Hunter S Thompson Around the world however other journalists approach unconventional material in risky ways placing themselves in the middle of off-beat stories and relate those accounts in the supercharged rhetoric of Gonzo In some cases Thompson's influence is apparent even explicit in others writers have crafted their journalistic provocations independently only later to have that work labelled Gonzo In either case Gonzo journalism has clearly become an international phenomenon In Fear and Loathing Worldwide scholars from fourteen countries discuss writers from Europe the Americas Africa and Australia whose work bears unmistakable traces of the mutant Gonzo gene In each chapter Gonzo emerges as a powerful but unstable signifier read and practiced with different accents and emphases in the various national cultural political and journalistic contexts in which it has erupted Whether immersed in the Dutch crack scene exploring the Polish version of Route 66 following the trail of the 2014 South African General Election or committing unspeakable acts on the bus to Turku the writers described in this volume are driven by the same fearless disdain for convention and profound commitment to rattling received opinion with which the outlaw journalist Thompson scorched his way into the American consciousness in the 1960s 70s and beyond

Challenging the News Susan Forde, 2017-09-16 Community media journalists are in essence filling in the gaps left by mainstream news outlets Forde's extensive 10-year study now develops an understanding of the journalistic practices at work in independent and community news organisations Alternative media has never been so widely written about until now

Hipster Culture Heike Steinhoff, 2021-07-29 Twenty-first century popular culture has given birth to a peculiar cultural figure the hipster Stereotypically associated with nerd glasses beards and buns boho clothing and ironic T-shirts hipsters represent a post-postmodern post-subculture whose style aesthetics and practices have increasingly become mainstream Hipster Culture is the first comprehensive collection of original studies that address the hipster and hipster culture from a range of cultural studies perspectives Analyzing the cultural economic aesthetic and political meanings and implications of a wide range of phenomena prominently associated with hipster culture the contributors bring their expertise and own research perspectives to bear thus shaping the volume's transnational and intersectional approach Chapters address global and local manifestations of hipster culture processes of urban gentrification and cultural appropriation alternative foodways and eclectic fashion styles the significance of nostalgia retro technologies and social media and the aesthetics and cultural politics of literature film art and music marked by self reflexivity irony and a simultaneous longing for an earnest authenticity Hipster Culture explores the diversification of hipster culture sheds light on popular constructions of the hipster as cultural Other and critically investigates hipster culture s entanglements with and challenges to dominant cultural discourses of gender ethnicity race sexuality age religion and nationality

Fear and Loathing Worldwide Robert Alexander, Christine Isager, 2019 For more than 40 years the radically subjective style of participatory journalism known as Gonzo has been inextricably associated with the American writer Hunter S Thompson Around the world however other journalists approach unconventional material in risky ways placing themselves in the middle of off beat stories and relate those accounts in the supercharged rhetoric of Gonzo In some cases Thompson s influence is apparent even explicit in others writers have crafted their journalistic provocations independently only later to have that work labelled Gonzo In either case Gonzo journalism has clearly become an international phenomenon In Fear and Loathing Worldwide scholars from fourteen countries discuss writers from Europe the Americas Africa and Australia whose work bears unmistakable traces of the mutant Gonzo gene In each chapter Gonzo emerges as a powerful but unstable signifier read and practiced with different accents and emphases in the various national cultural political and journalistic contexts in which it has erupted Whether immersed in the Dutch crack scene exploring the Polish version of Route 66 following the trail of the 2014 South African General Election or committing unspeakable acts on the bus to Turku the writers described in this volume are driven by the same fearless disdain for convention and profound commitment to rattling received opinion with which the outlaw journalist Thompson scorched his way into the American consciousness in the 1960s 70s and beyond Bloomsbury Publishing

The New New Journalism Robert Boynton, 2005-03-08 Forty years after Tom Wolfe Hunter S Thompson and Gay Talese launched the New Journalism movement Robert S Boynton sits down with nineteen practitioners of what he calls the New New Journalism to discuss their methods writings and careers The New New Journalists are first and foremost brilliant reporters who immerse themselves completely in their subjects Jon Krakauer accompanies a mountaineering expedition to Everest Ted Conover works for nearly a year as a prison guard Susan Orlean follows orchid fanciers to reveal an obsessive subculture few knew existed Adrian Nicole LeBlanc spends nearly a decade reporting on a family in the South Bronx And like their muckraking early twentieth century precursors they are drawn to the most pressing issues of the day Alex Kotlowitz Leon Dash and William Finnegan to race and class Ron Rosenbaum to the problem of evil Michael Lewis to boom and bust economies Richard Ben Cramer to the nitty gritty of politics How do they do it In these interviews they reveal the techniques and inspirations behind their acclaimed works from their felt tip pens tape recorders long car rides and assumed identities to their intimate understanding of the way a truly great story unfolds Interviews with Gay Talese Jane Kramer Calvin Trillin Richard Ben Cramer Ted Conover

Alex Kotlowitz Richard Preston William Langewiesche Eric Schlosser Leon Dash William Finnegan Jonathan Harr Jon Krakauer Adrian Nicole LeBlanc Michael Lewis Susan Orlean Ron Rosenbaum Lawrence Weschler Lawrence Wright The Gang That Wouldn't Write Straight Marc Weingarten, 2010-03-31 In Cold Blood The Electric Kool Aid Acid Test Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas Slouching Towards Bethlehem The Armies of the Night Starting in 1965 and spanning a ten year period a group of writers including Tom Wolfe Jimmy Breslin Gay Talese Hunter S Thompson Joan Didion John Sack and Michael Herr emerged and joined a few of their pioneering elders including Truman Capote and Norman Mailer to remake American letters The perfect chroniclers of an age of frenzied cultural change they were blessed with the insight that traditional tools of reporting would prove inadequate to tell the story of a nation manically hopscotching from hope to doom and back again from war to rock assassination to drugs hippies to Yuppies Kennedy to the dark lord Nixon Traditional just the facts reporting simply couldn't provide a neat and symmetrical order to this chaos Marc Weingarten has interviewed many of the major players to provide a startling behind the scenes account of the rise and fall of the most revolutionary literary outpouring of the postwar era set against the backdrop of some of the most turbulent and significant years in contemporary American life These are the stories behind those stories from Tom Wolfe's white suited adventures in the counterculture to Hunter S Thompson's drug addled invention of gonzo to Michael Herr's redefinition of war reporting in the hell of Vietnam Weingarten also tells the deeper backstory recounting the rich and surprising history of the editors and the magazines who made the movement possible notably the three greatest editors of the era Harold Hayes at Esquire Clay Felker at New York and Jann Wenner at Rolling Stone And finally Weingarten takes us through the demise of the New Journalists a tragedy of hubris miscalculation and corporate menacing This is the story of perhaps the last great good time in American journalism a time when writers didn't just cover stories but immersed themselves in them and when journalism didn't just report America but reshaped it Within a seven year period a group of writers emerged seemingly out of nowhere Tom Wolfe Jimmy Breslin Gay Talese Hunter S Thompson Joan Didion John Sack Michael Herr to impose some order on all of this American mayhem each in his or her own distinctive manner a few old hands like Truman Capote and Norman Mailer chipped in as well They came to tell us stories about ourselves in ways that we couldn't stories about the way life was being lived in the sixties and seventies and what it all meant to us The stakes were high deep fissures were rending the social fabric the world was out of order So they became our master explainers our town criers even our moral conscience the New Journalists from the Introduction The New Journalism Michael L. Johnson, 1971
