From Innocence To Reality A Family Memoir:

From Innocence to Reality Patricia Simms Harrison, 2002 Since the winter of 1971 when my father and my brothers sued Keith resulting in their paying him 91 839 60 for his stock I have attempted to discover what would end the lasting conflict between the Harrison family and the Simms family I have assumed as do most Americans that all problems have a solution that the Harrisons and the Simmses would once again become one happy family Yet more than thirty years later the solution has not been revealed Therefore as I am now nearing the last stage of my life I have decided to adopt a different attitude I shall settle for an examination of the past in order to determine the causes and to banish from my mind the achievement of a reunion between our families Soon most of us who have been involved in the conflict will be with God in Heaven and those left on earth will neither know nor care Thus with the writing of this book I shall hopefully gain peace contentment and acceptance for life as it exists rather than life as it were before the suit Innocence & Reality Mathew E. Sikorski, 2005 Memoirs of Innocence & Experience Innocent (Hondo) Chirawu, 2011-01-20 I was born Innocent Murambiwa Hondo on 11 January 1961 in Chinyemba Village Glendale Mazoe District of the then Rhodesia I had an official change of my maternal surname Hondo to my paternal surname Chirawu and acquired the middle name Blessed in 1983 Since my childhood I have always aspired to utilise every opportunity that helps me help my fellowman best I was brought up in colonial Rhodesia which was dominated by divide and rule politics in favour of the white minority population As a result the black child's school was far inferior compared to his white counterpart's There was also a deliberate public policy to provide the average black child with an education only adequate for him to perform a subordinate role to his white master and only 12% of the black children were expected to proceed to secondary education These would form the elite part of the society taking up occupations like nurses teachers clerks agricultural extension officers and others I was very fortunate to fall into the category of the elite group who made it through the bottleneck system into secondary education Salvation Army's Howard Secondary School which was a syndicate examination centre for The University of Cambridge whereby GCE O Level examinations were set and marked at that reputable university I sat for those Exams in November/December 1978 and passed with grades B and C in 8 subjects including Maths Science and English thus obtaining a University of Cambridge GCE certificate in First Division I later on proceeded to a private institution Ranche House College where I did my English and Sociology at Advanced level My first job after school was working as a bank clerk for Standard Chartered Bank from May 1980 to Sept 1981 I then intercalated from banking to study for my Diploma in Theology at the International Bible Training Centre Lagos in 1982 resumed banking for a stint then did my initial teacher training from 1984 to 1987 I then taught Woodwork RE and English in Zimbabwean secondary schools for 11 years during which period I rose through the ranks of being an ordinary class teacher head of department Religious Education English and deputy head teacher While in full time teaching I managed to study for a degree in educational administration planning and policy studies as well as a part one in

BA Media studies through Zimbabwe Open University the latter which was interrupted by socio politico economic problems in Zimbabwe that time I was doing all those study programmes paying the fees from my salary and without a penny of assistance from the government In Zimbabwe switching from being a teacher to being a journalist for the independent press was and still is like jumping from the frying pan into the fire In April 1999 I then joined the Daily News the then Zimbabwe s once most popular and best seller tabloid later banned and defunct from 2003 2010 where I served as a subeditor cum proofreader until the time I migrated to England in December 2001 By the time I left Zimbabwe there was every sign that the future of my colleagues our newspaper and I was very gloom After the bombings of our offices and printing press our then editor in chief Geoff Nyarota announced that due to the political situation and the hostility that time we were experiencing he could not guarantee our safety anymore So I had no choice but sell my family property buy a ticket flew into self exile in England and I have always lived here since then Later on I called my family over to join my stay in the country My grandmother my childhood mentor

The Memoirs of an Innocent Man Derrick Hazelwood, 2022-08-01 You are about to embark on a journey of love deceit betrayal and faith which will have you on the edge of your seat Now that I have your attention let me ask you a question When faced with egregious tests how do you react The answer for most people would be that they don t know until they are put in the situation This was also the answer for Damien in this story When accused of murder his reaction changed his life forever Choosing the path of God and faith put in motion a testimony to glorify God and demonstrated his absolute power There is a saying which goes God does not give us more than we can bear We will see in the story when Damien s burdens get too heavy God lightens the load This story reflects on Damien s mental emotion physical and spiritual growth while he faced tragedy and persecution Throughout the journey you will witness how faith in God during horrific times in life can change a person s perspective
