It's football season again
I hope my team does well this year
Football season again
I'm a fan

It's football season again
Spread that ball across the field
Football season again
I'm a fan

Through the cold and the rain
I'll be there at the game
A voice screaming to be heard
I'll cry sometimes, sometimes I'll smile
As my voice echoes through the crowd
I'm a fan, I'm a fan, I'm a fan

It's football season again
I hope my team does well this year
Football season again
I'm a fan

It's football season again
Tackle hard and play it fair
Football season again
I'm a fan

And at the end of the year
We'll be dressed in the gear
As they turn to salute the crowd
And we'll stand with pride
'Cause they're our side
And we'll sing their praises loud
We're the fans, We're the fans, We're the fans

Mallarmé, 2011-01-15 In this classic tale Richard Kim paints seven vivid scenes from a boyhood and early adolescence in Korea at the height of the Japanese occupation 1932 to 1945 Taking its title from the grim fact that the occupiers forced the Koreans to renounce their own names and adopt Japanese names instead the book follows one Korean family through the Japanese occupation to the surrender of the Japanese empire Lost Names is at once a loving memory of family and a vivid portrayal of life in a time of anguish Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1922 A Concordance to the Poems of John Keats Michael G. Becker, Robert J. Dilligan, Todd K. Bender, 2016-05-05 First published in 1981 A Concordance to the Poems of John Keats intended to provide the user with a volume suitable to the varying and increasingly specialised interests of scholarship This title offers a high degree of inclusiveness that attends to the poems and plays the emended and authoritative headings and virtually all of the variant readings considered substantive in the riches of the Keats manuscript materials This title will be of interest to students of literature Collected Poems and Other Verse Stéphane Mallarmé, 2008-11-13 Stéphane Mallarmé was a radically innovative poet of the 19th century in English as well as in French This text contains his poetry and his Poesies in the last arrangement known to have been approved by the author and provides a wide ranging survey of his work analyses the centrality of an aesthetic of brevity to American modernist verse      Manifest in Words, Written on Paper Christopher M.B. Nugent, 2020-10-26 This study aims to engage the textual realities of medieval literature by shedding light on the material lives of poems during the Tang from their initial oral or written instantiation through their often lengthy and twisted paths of circulation Tang poems exist today in stable written forms assumed to reflect their creators original intent Yet Tang poetic culture was based on hand copied manuscripts and oral performance We have almost no access to this poetry as it was experienced by contemporaries This is no trivial matter the author argues If we do not understand how Tang people composed experienced and transmitted this poetry we miss something fundamental about the roles of memory and copying in the circulation of poetry as well as readers dynamic participation in the creation of texts We learn something different about poems when we examine them not as literary works transcending any particular physical form but as objects with distinct physical attributes visual and sonic The attitudes of the Tang audience toward the stability of texts matter as well Understanding Tang poetry requires acknowledging that Tang literary culture accepted the conscious revision of these works by authors readers and transmitters 2012 Joseph Levenson Book Prize Pre 1900 Category China and Inner Asia Council of the Association for Asian Studies      Poetry of the First World War Tim Kendall, 2013-10-10 The First World War produced an extraordinary flowering of poetic talent poets whose words commemorate the conflict more personally and as enduringly as monuments in stone Lines such as What passing bells for these who die as cattle and They shall not grow old as they that are left grow old have come to express the feelings of a nation about the horrors and aftermath of war This new anthology provides a definitive record of the achievements of the Great War poets As well as offering generous selections from the celebrated soldier poets including Wilfred Owen Siegfried Sassoon Rupert Brooke and Ivor Gurney it also incorporates less well known writing by civilian and women poets Music hall and trench songs provide a further lyrical perspective on the War A general introduction charts the history of the war poets reception and challenges prevailing myths about the war poets progress from idealism to bitterness The work of each poet is prefaced with a biographical account that sets the poems in their historical context Although the War has now passed out of living memory its haunting of our language and culture has not been exorcised Its poetry survives because it continues to speak to and about us      Alphabetical Finding List Princeton University. Library, 1921      Fashioned Texts and Painted Books Erin E. Edgington, 2017-10-01 Fashioned Texts and Painted Books examines the folding fan s multiple roles in fin de si cle and early twentieth century French literature Focusing on the fan s identity as a symbol of feminine sexuality as a collectible art object and especially as an alternative book form well suited to the reception of poetic texts the study highlights the fan s suitability as a substrate for verse deriving from its myriad associations with coquetry and sex flight air and breath Close readings of St phane Mallarm s ventails of the 1880s and 1890s and Paul Claudel s Cent phrases pour ventails 1927 consider both text and paratext as they underscore the significant visual interest of this poetry Works in prose and in verse by Octave Uzanne Guy de Maupassant and Marcel Proust along with fan leaves by Edgar Degas douard Manet Berthe Morisot and Paul Gauguin serve as points of comparison that deepen our understanding of the complex interplay of text and image that characterizes this occasional subgenre Through its interrogation of the correspondences between form and content in fan poetry this study demonstrates that the fan was in addition to being a ubiquitous fashion accessory a significant literary and art historical object straddling the boundary between East and West past and present and high and low art     Reading Medieval Chinese Poetry

,2014-11-20 Nine renowned sinologists present a range of studies that display the riches of medieval Chinese verse in varied guises All major verse forms including shi fu and ci are examined with a special focus on poetry s negotiation with tradition and historical context Dozens of previously untranslated works are here rendered in English for the first time and readers will enter a literary culture that was deeply infused with imperatives of wit learning and empathy Among the diverse topics met with in this volume are metaphysical poetry as a medium of social exchange the place of ruins in Chinese poetry the reality and imaginary of frontier borderlands the enigma of misattribution and how a 19th century Frenchwoman discovered Tang poetry for the Western world Contributors include Timothy Wai Keung Chan Robert Joe Cutter Ronald Egan David R Knechtges Paul W Kroll Stephen Owen Wendy Swartz Ding Xiang Warner and Pauline Yu     The Great Recreation Daniel Bryant,2008 The poetry of the Ming dynasty has been relatively neglected in scholarship of the past century and the Archaist poets of the middle Ming especially so This book attempts to redress this neglect by presenting by far the most detailed treatment available in any language of the life milieu and work of Ho Ching ming 1483 1521 While Ho s participation in the Archaist circle of Li Meng yang in his youth is confirmed the later development of his ideas is shown to move toward a stance usually thought more representative of the following century The book also argues that May Fourth accounts of the pre modern literary tradition are seriously flawed and require replacement     The Oxford Handbook of Classical Chinese Literature (1000 BCE-900 CE) Wiebke Denecke,Wai-yee Li,Xiaofei Tian,2017 This volume introduces readers to classical Chinese literature from its beginnings ca 10th century BCE to the tenth century BCE through a conceptual framework centered on textual production and transmission It focuses on recuperating historical perspectives for the period it surveys and attempts to draw connections between the past and present     Diamond Classics Mike Shannon,2024-10-11 Each work chosen with exquisite care by an expert is analyzed and summarized Its greatness as baseball literature its place in the genre its peculiarities weaknesses strengths how the critics went for it all are discussed in such a way with quotations that reading or browsing Shannon s book is equivalent to absorbing a rich history of the sport     Mallarmé and Circumstance Roger Pearson,2004 This is a comprehensive study of Mallarm s poetry of circumstance a series of lucid and accessible readings of Mallarm s verse and prose writings     Passionate Women Paul Ropp,Paola Zamperini,Harriet Zurndorfer,2021-07-26 This is a collection of original essays which focuses on the causes meanings and significance of female suicides in Ming and Qing China It is the first attempt in English language scholarship to revise earlier views of female self destruction that had been shaped by the May Fourth Movement and anti Confucian critiques of Chinese culture and to consider the matter of female suicide in the wider context of more recent scholarship on women and gender relations in late imperial China The essays also reveal the world of tensions conflicting demands and expectations and a variety of means by which both women and men made moral sense of their lives in late imperial China The volume closes with an extensive bibliography of relevant and important Chinese Japanese and Western publications related to female suicide in late imperial China
