Excerpt from Fantastica Being the Smile of the Sphinx and Other Tales of Imagination Two of these tales have appeared in serial The Smile of the Sphinx in the first number of the London Mercury and Sir Perseus and the Fair Andromeda in the English Review Both tales have been slightly revised Golgotha which since the writing of the Preface has grown to be the most ambitious of these tales appears in print for the first time I should like to remark that a volume of amusing and well written stories entitled The Pilgrim of the Smile in which sundry characters go in search of the secret of the smile of the Sphinx appeared about a year after the publication in the London Mercury referred to above I lay no charge of plagiarism to the Witty Norman Davey though the coincidence appears unusually striking I merely wish to clear myself of any such charge About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
