The Supernatural and Fantastic in Short Detective Fiction Laird R. Blackwell, 2020-11-23 Although fantasy and supernatural literature have long and celebrated histories many critics contend that the fantastic and the supernatural have no place in the logical rational world of the detective story This book is the first extensive study of the fantastic in detective fiction and it explores the highly debated question of whether detective fiction and the fantastic can comfortably coexist The locked room mystery which often uses the fantastic as a red herring to eventually be debunked by reason and logic has long been among the most popular subgenres of detective fiction This book also explores stories featuring almost supernaturally gifted detectives stories where the supernatural is truly encountered and stories with ambiguous endings Close to 500 detective stories from 1841 to 2000 in which the fantastic or supernatural plays a central role are discussed and analyzed Although not all the stories are judged to be successful as detective tales in the great majority the fantastic enlivens the tale and deepens the mystery without weakening the detective elements

role we love best or one that causes great insecurity There is no formal training for parenthood There are no clear benchmarks of success and yet it demands all our resources skills and attention Parenting has no blueprint This book is the merging of the author's deep convictions of parenting with examples of both When it worked and When it did not work He has also elicited the help of his sons to write their perspectives on how their experiences and memories connect or differ from his own Each chapter has two sections Section A contains reflections on habits that seemed to work in passing on faith Section B then reflects on the same habit but from a more critical perspective These five chapters come from the author's experiences as a dad as a Christian leader and as a theologian The first section in each chapter marks those habits that he believes in passionately They are the Do's those habits formed in parenting for faith They emerged in the business of parenting and have become clearer over life The second section notes when parenting seemed to go wrong These are the nightmares that skulk around the edges of a parent's consciousness the failures when high hopes are not realised However it could be that in these cock ups in being a parent are when the actual parenting for faith is really carried out That at least is the comment made by the three sons commenting on the script At Home With The Buckleys James & Clair
