Faraway Places:

Faraway Places Albert Trajstman, 2019-02-01 Faraway Places is a collection of three novellas that goes to dark and dingy places that the faint hearted might wish are truly faraway But are they Not when you take a crazed trip with an odd ball who dreams of a faraway place while all the while he is on a slow burn to insanity Maybe he can solve the problem of living in a caravan alongside a garbage tip with a foul mouthed significant other and a companion dog That s not an easy problem to solve when you lack initiative Perhaps the frozen wastelands of pre revolutionary Russia are a change of location but still you ll find that it s that kind of faraway place where many bizarre things could be possible dogheaded people might exist a nasty con man can become a tsar and if you want to save your skin there are people you should avoid If that s not enough then waiting to be solved is the provenance of two mysterious trunks and their contents in the basement of St Petersburg s Hermitage Finally a misconstruction about a killing on an isolated farm in a British colony in 1815 leads to disastrous consequences Decent men can commit abominable acts and criminals can be decent In this faraway place it s brutal times all round brutal times for the original native inhabitants for settlers and their women and for the convicts and child convicts A gripping read

Faraway Places Tom Spanbauer, 2011-10-20 During a fateful summer 13 year old Jake Weber witnesses the brutal murder of a Native American woman by the town banker Jake s parents forbid him to speak of the killing or name its perpetrator even as the woman s African American lover stands falsely accused The crime and what follows it forever alter Jake s view of his parents and the world around him Faraway Places won widespread praise for its vivid narrative and incantatory style and Spanbauer displays singular skill in inhabiting the mind of a troubled adolescent boy

Small Wars, Faraway Places Michael Burleigh, 2014-11-25 A sweeping history of the Cold War s many hot wars born in the last gasps of empire The Cold War reigns in popular imagination as a period of tension between the two post World War II superpowers the United States and the Soviet Union without direct conflict Drawing from new archival research prize winning historian Michael Burleigh gives new meaning to the seminal decades of 1945 to 1965 by examining the many largely forgotten hot wars fought around the world As once great Western colonial empires collapsed counter insurgencies campaigns raged in the Philippines the Congo Iran and other faraway places Dozens of new nations struggled into existence the legacies of which are still felt today Placing these vicious struggles alongside the period defining United States and Soviet standoffs in Korea Vietnam and Cuba Burleigh swerves from Algeria to Kenya to Vietnam and Kashmir interspersing top level diplomatic negotiations with portraits of the charismatic local leaders The result is a dazzling work of history a searing analysis of the legacy of imperialism and a reminder of just how the United States became the world s great enforcer

Boarding Passes to Faraway Places Guy A. Sibilla, 2017-08-16 This entertaining and engaging collection of travelogues offers road warriors and arm chair travelers alike stories from distant isolated locales in a loop encircling the world Sibilla describes his chance meeting with the President of Guatemala who choppered into a jungle LZ next to his mules the surreal morning he awoke in Rangoon on his birthday living in a Tibetan Buddhist Monastery in Uttar Pradesh India sleeping among the moai of Rapa Nui Easter Island and many other stories of relentless adventuring From the Indian subcontinent to the Middle East from Africa to Central America and finally across the vast Pacific Ocean this collection of stories illustrates that as Robert Louis Stevenson suggested the great affair of travel is to move With an acute eye for detail and an irrepressible sense of wonderment the narratives here reflect the thrill that comes from arriving at a destination without a plan from wandering at the suggestion of strangers and the feeling of exuberance you experience when you let go and allow the path to choose you

The Lure of Faraway Places Herb Pohl,2007-05-11 The Lure of Faraway Places is the publication canoeist Herb Pohl 1930 2006 did not live to see published But Pohl s words and images provide a unique portrait of Canada by one who was happiest when travelling our northern waterways alone Austrian born Herb Pohl died at the mouth of the Michipicoten River on July 17 2006 He is remembered as Canada s most remarkable solo traveller While mourning their loss Herb Pohl s friends found to their surprise and delight a manuscript of wilderness writings on his desk in his lakeside apartment in Burlington Ontario He had hoped one day to publish his work as a book With help and commentary from best selling canoe author and editor James Raffan Natural Heritage is proud to present that book Herb s book The Lure of Faraway Places There s nothing like it in canoeing literature says Raffan It s part journal part memoir part wilderness philosophy and part tips and tricks of the most pragmatic kind written about parts of the country most of us will never see by the most committed and ambitious solo canoeist in Canadian history

Little Trains to Faraway Places Karl R. Zimmermann,2010-06-22 Narrow gauge railroading conjures images of marginal track wooden coaches and antique steam locomotives Yet consider the extraordinarily glamorous and comfortable South African Blue Train and Australia s Queenslander as well as the electrified network of meter gauge mountain railways in Switzerland that run with a precision similar to that of the country s famed timepieces Often used to penetrate the most challenging and breathtaking terrain that larger trains are unable to reach narrow gauge railways offer even the most seasoned of travelers an experience to remember Karl Zimmermann railroad author and accomplished photographer chronicles his journeys aboard these rarest of trains Individual chapters weave history and travelogue complemented by more than 100 color illustrations The result is a spirited tribute to the world s most charismatic railways

Short Stories of Growing up in Milford and Other Faraway Places Jamie Boss,2023-07-19 This memoir is about alternative paths of viewing life How the creative mind can set its own course How youthful adventure can grow into something others may find terrifying How youth can be fortunate to survive the folly of its own nature How consequences are learned by practical experiences How practical experiences become the most efficient teacher Having led an unconventional childhood I was always captivated by unusual circumstances during my formative years I grew up viewing life differently To me dangerous was adventurous A challenge was something that required action I sought creativity where others sought common place The word trite was not in my vocabulary Creative inspiration pushed me towards my life's goals. As I grew older it was my love of unusual experiences that developed my mindset. I listened carefully to the advice those over 60 offered. I questioned what others ignored. I chose the direction of my life based on fulfillment rather than wealth. This memoir was written out of pure joy. Part adventure, part insight of the human condition and part foolhardy examples of youth. This book will reveal a colorful perspective on life. Happy reading. The Nearest Faraway Place Hayley Long, 2017-07-13. A powerfully told story of the love between two brothers in the aftermath of a family tragedy. Griff and Dylan are driving into Manhattan with their parents when the worst happens. There is a terrible car accident and Dylan and Griff's parents are killed. The boys are suddenly orphans with nowhere to go until a kind aunt and uncle give them a new home in Wales. Now Dylan and Griff have everything they need: love, a happy home and a future. But Dylan is worried about Griff: whether he is OK, whether he is coping with his grief. He doesn't seem to want to speak about it or really acknowledge the loss of their parents. But Dylan needs to be even braver than Griff because there is something very important he needs to face up to before he can move on. The heartbreaking new novel from award-winning author Hayley Long. Winner of the Mal Peet Children's Book Award at the 2017 East Anglian Book Awards, the Tir na n Og Award (English language), 2018 the Staffordshire Libraries YTF 2018 Young Teen Fiction Book Award and the Young Jury Prize 2020 Flanders. Nominated for the Carnegie Medal 2018, Shortlisted for the Brilliant Book Award 2019, the Warwickshire Secondary Books Award 2019, the Stockport Children's Book Award 2018, the Hillingdon Secondary Book of the Year 2018 and the Dudley Teen Book Awards 2018. Questions Kids Ask about Faraway Places Richard Comely, Jocelyn Smyth, 1989. The Charisma of Distant Places Courtney Luckhardt, 2019-07-15. This cultural history of early medieval travel and religion reveals how movement affected society, demonstrating the connectedness of people and regions between 500 and 850 CE. In The Charisma of Distant Places, Courtney Luckhardt enriches our understanding of migration through her examination of religious movement. Vertical links to God and horizontal links to distant regions identified religious travelers, both men and women, as holy, connected to the human and the divine across physical and spiritual distances. Using textual sources, material culture and place studies, this project is among the first to contextualize the geographic and temporal movement of early medieval people to reveal the diversity of religious travel, from the voluntary journeys of pilgrims to the forced travel of Christian slaves. Luckhardt offers new ways of understanding ideas about power, holiness, identity and mobility during the transformation of the Roman world in the global Middle Ages. By focusing on the religious dimensions of early medieval people and the regions they visited, this book addresses probing questions including how and why medieval people communicated and connected with one another across boundaries, both geographical and imaginative. Dancing at the Crossroads Helena Wulff, 2007. A key metaphor in Irish cultural and political life, dancing at the crossroads, once a widespread country tradition, is the departure point for an exploration of the role of dance in Irish identity as the nation embraces European modernity. LIFE, 1949-04-11. LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled

Remote Places Phillip Vannini, 2023-07-21 Mobilities in Remote Places explores the meanings challenges and opportunities of remoteness as practiced and experienced by those who live and work in some of the world's most remote communities As mobilities around the world proliferate in countless forms the meanings of remoteness undergo significant change Places once considered impossibly distant have appeared to become closer more accessible and less distinct from global centers of geopolitical power But instead of disappearing altogether configurations of remoteness evolve manifesting themselves through new possibilities new challenges and new insecurities Drawing from a variety of case studies from around the globe the contributors of the book examine remoteness as an outcome of evolving mobility constellations Rather than defining remoteness as an absolute or objective time distance condition the book shows how remoteness is a practice experience and representation that is situated relational and emergent This collection of original and thought provoking chapters will be of interest to students and researchers in the humanities and social sciences with an interest in mobilities place and human geography

Children's Places Karen Fog Olwig, Eva Gullov, 2013-04-15 Children's Places examines the ways in which children and adults from their different vantage points in society negotiate the proper place of children in both social and spatial terms It looks at some of the recognised constructions of children including perspectives from cultures that do not distinguish children as a distinct category of people as well as examining contexts for them from schools and kindergartens to inner cities and war zones The result is a much needed insight into the notions of inclusion and exclusion the placement and displacement of children within generational ranks and orders and the kinds of places that children construct for themselves Based on in depth ethnographic research from Europe Asia Africa North America Australia and New Zealand
