Why Are Our Pictures Puzzles? James Elkins, 2004-11-23 With bracing clarity James Elkins explores why images are taken to be more intricate and hard to describe in the twentieth century than they had been in any previous century Why Are Our Pictures Puzzles uses three models to understand the kinds of complex meaning that pictures are thought to possess the affinity between the meanings of paintings and jigsaw puzzles the contemporary interest in ambiguity and levels of meaning and the penchant many have to interpret pictures by finding images hidden within them Elkins explores a wide variety of examples from the figures hidden in Renaissance paintings to Salvador Dali s paranoiac meditations on Millet s Angelus from Persian miniature paintings to jigsaw puzzles He also examines some of the most vexed works in history including Watteau s meaningless paintings Michelangelo s Sistine Ceiling and Leonardo s Last Supper

Farm Journal, 1904 Our Animal Friends, 1908 Missing Persons Clair Wills, 2024-04-02 How far would you go for the missing Blending private and public history cultural analysis family memoir and autobiography Clair Wills explores profound questions about memory loss motherhood and emigration She traces a history of sexual secrecy through four generations of unplanned pregnancies in her own family stretching from the 1890s to the 1980s and from the West of Ireland to Massachusetts London and the English countryside dramatizing the power of secret keeping as a form of care but also as a form of violence and exclusion At the heart of her search is a cousin who went missing from her own family born in a mother and baby home in the 1950s and brought up in an institution Wills asks not only what happened but why Why did families consent to the institutional care and control of unmarried mothers and their children Why did the system make sense to ordinary families and how can we make sense of it now What questions should we be asking about guilt blame and responsibility In order to uncover how people thought about illicit sex illegitimacy and institutions Wills follows the tracks laid down in family stories and anecdotes She interprets the gaps as places where the past was both preserved and disavowed We are all born into families regardless of whether we are allowed to belong to them In Missing Persons Wills asks us to undertake a radical reshaping of our idea of the family We are all part of the historical archive the remembering and forgetting is in us whether we like it or not
