Farewell To Democracy In Sarawak:

Farewell to Democracy in Sarawak Roy Bruton,1993 Women Workers, Migration and Family in Sarawak Cheng Sim Hew,2003-08-27 Based on research among the women of the Bidayuh people in Sarawak all of them first generation migrant wage workers this book explores the changes in women s lifestyles from traditional rural lifestyles to modern urban ones IBSS: Sociology: 1993 Vol 43 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation,1994 This bibliography lists the most important works published in sociology in 1993 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures the IBSS provides researchers and librarians with the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences The IBSS is compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics one of the world s leading social science institutions Published annually the IBSS is available in four subject areas anthropology economics political science and sociology

Language, Education and Nation-building P. Sercombe,R. Tupas,2014-09-02 This volume tracks the complex relationships between language education and nation building in Southeast Asia focusing on how language policies have been used by states and governments as instruments of control assimilation and empowerment Leading scholars have contributed chapters each representing one of the countries in the region International Bibliography of the Social Sciences ,1994 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences A Catalogue of the Collections of Dr. Roy Bruton on Sarawak, Malaysia and on the Sociology of Education ,1995 Malaysia in the World Economy (1824-2011) Azlan Tajuddin,2012-06-14 Does the industrial development of a country entail the democratization of its political system Malaysia in the World Economy examines this theme with regards to Malaysia in the period between 1824 and 2011 Capitalism was first introduced into Malaysia through colonialism specifically to supply Britain with much needed raw materials for its industrial development Aside from economic exploitation colonial rule had also produced a highly unequal and socially distant multicultural society whose multifaceted divisions kept the colonial rulers in supreme authority After independence Britain ensured that Malaysia became a staunch western ally by structuring in a capitalist system specifically helmed by western educated elites through what appeared to be formal democratic institutions In such a system the Malaysian ruling elites have been able to manage the country s democratic processes to its advantage as well as preempt or suppress serious internal challenges to its power often in the name of national stability As a result an increasingly unpopular National Front political coalition has remained in power in the country since 1957 Meanwhile Malaysia s marginal position in the world economy which has maintained its economic subordination to the developed countries of the west and Japan has reproduced the internal social inequities inherited from colonial rule and channeled the largest returns of economic growths into the hands of the country s foreign investors as well as local elites associated with the ruling machinery Over the years however the state has lost some of its political legitimacy in the face of widening social disparities increased ethnic polarization and prevalent corruption This has been made possible by extensive exposures of these issues via new social media and communications technology Hence informational globalization may have begun to empower Malaysians in a new struggle for political reform thereby reconfiguring the balance of power between the state and civil society Unlike other past research Malaysia in the World Economy combines both macro and micro theoretical approaches in critically analyzing the relationship between capitalist development and democratization in Malaysia within a comparative historical and world systemic context Borneo Research Bulletin ,1995 Christian-Muslim Relations

Theodore P. C. Gabriel,1996 A monograph analyzing the current state of Christian Muslim relations in the religiously diverse and well balanced East Malaysian state of Sarawak Index Islamicus ,1994 A bibliography of books and index of articles in periodicals on Islam and the Muslim world Also includes reviews A Sleeping Tiger Clare L. Boulanger,2009 A

A Sleeping Tiger Clare L. Boulanger,2009 A Sleeping Tiger is a rare book length treatment of urbanization among Dayaks and also offers a fresh perspective on ethnicity class and the context in which they function to the benefit of some and the great detriment of others Although readers may never have heard of Dayaks the indigenous largely non Muslim peoples of Sarawak Malaysian Borneo they have surely witnessed the impact of ethnicity and class on the world today Dayaks have hardly been spared this impact Formerly forest dwellers in the main Dayaks have been migrating en masse into Sarawak s towns and cities but despite their better efforts to succeed in the urban environment they feel demeaned and disadvantaged relative to the other ethnic groups of Malaysia
