

▲ A model shows off a new tweed trouser suit by BAKS, classic British designers of casual and leisure wear since 1894.

▲ Women workers at a spark plug factory in Britain, 1941, wearing special hats and snoods to prevent hair from becoming tangled in machinery.

▲ Utility fashions for the British company Berkatex by Norman Hartnell, 1943.

While American and French high fashion recognized the high quality of British export textiles, the runways of the ISLFD salons offered no serious competition at this time to those of Paris and New York, and not just because rationing was still in force. From their memoirs and biographies, it seems most of the British designers did not consider this period of austerity their "finest hour" and preferred, on the whole, to forget it.
