Gómez,2024-03-01 Professional Development Schools are complex and comprehensive school university partnerships focusing on professional development of new teachers and veteran teachers while providing high quality education to P 12 students The chapters of this book contain the stories of 8 highly successful and nationally recognized professional development schools Each story provides the reader with practical ideas procedures and policies that can be implemented by the reader to begin new partnerships or help improve and sustain existing partnerships Each chapter discusses the rich clinical preparation combined with progressive experiences in PDSs that have made the partnership successful. The diverse authors from several different states describe their efforts to forge PDS partnerships to develop and deliver high quality teacher preparations, practical experiences for teacher candidates and simultaneously provide professional development for experienced practitioners. The book will be a valuable resource to school and university faculty and administrators as they transition to a partnering model of clinical preparation for teacher candidates; it will help stakeholders decide if their schools and institutions are ready to commit to a partnership and highlight the benefits they stand to gain. The book also realistically addresses challenges in a way the reader can prepare for to reduce obstacles in establishing and sustaining PDSs.

Leading Professional Learning Communities Shirley M. Hord, William A. Sommers, 2008-02-01

Hord is the originator of the triple headed concept of professional learning communities. Sommers is an experienced administrator and past president of the National Staff Development Council. With the authors' extensive backgrounds in educational evaluation and the implementation of school change and development, they are uniquely equipped to delineate and defend a particular vision of professional learning communities that has educational depth, professional richness, and moral integrity.

From the Foreword by Andy Hargreaves: The most important volume available to help principals undertake the challenging yet exhilarating work of building true communities of professional learning.

Joseph Murphy, Professor, Vanderbilt University: The book does not gloss over the challenges that leaders will encounter. The authors draw upon rich research evidence and personal experiences and offer many practical, proven change strategies. This is a valuable resource for any educational leader who wishes to become a head learner.

Arthur L. Costa, Professor Emeritus, California State University, Sacramento: Hord and Sommers create a powerful bridge between the research base on PLCs and practitioner knowledge and action. The book's dual focus on principles and rocks in the road provide a grounded basis for school leaders. A dog-eared copy should be in every principal's office and in every professional developer's tool kit.

Karen Seashore Louis, Rodney S. Wallace, Professor, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis: The authors' rationale and suggestions will resonate because they come from experience and great insight. The bottom line remains steadfast for these two distinguished educators: you implement a PLC so that teachers learn and students achieve. This text will help educators reach toward that compelling vision.

Stephanie Hirsh, Executive Director, National Staff Development Council: Imagine all professionals in all schools engaged in continuous professional learning. Current research shows a strong positive relationship between successful professional learning communities and increased student achievement. In this practical and reader-friendly guide, education experts Shirley M. Hord and William A. Sommers explore the school-based learning opportunities offered to school professionals and the principal's critical role in the development of an effective professional learning community (PLC). This book provides school leaders with readily accessible information to guide them in developing a PLC that supports teachers and students. The authors cover building a vision for a PLC, implementing structures, creating policies and procedures, and developing the leadership skills required for initiating and sustaining a learning community Each chapter includes meaningful quotes from the field rocks in the road and ways to overcome them examples from real PLCs and learning activities to reinforce chapter content The text illustrates how this research based school improvement model can help educators Increase leadership capacity Embed professional development into daily work Create a positive school culture Develop accountability Boost student achievement Discover how you can grow a vital community of professionals who work together to increase their effectiveness and strengthen the relationship between professional learning and student learning
