Ancient Near East to Christian Byzantium Mario Baghos, 2021-03-11 This book combines concepts from the history of religions with Byzantine studies in its assessments of kings symbols and cities in a diachronic and cross cultural analysis The work attests firstly that the symbolic art and architecture of ancient cities commissioned by their monarchs expressing their relationship with their gods show us that religiosity was inherent to such enterprises It also demonstrates that what transpired from the first cities in history to Byzantine Christendom is the gradual replacement of the pagan ruler cult which was inherent to city building in antiquity with the ruler becoming subordinate to Christ exemplified by representations of the latter as the Master of All Pantokrator Beginning in Mesopotamia the book continues with an analysis of city building by rulers in Egypt Greece and Rome before addressing Judaism specifically the city of Jerusalem and Christianity as shifting the emphasis away from pagan gods and rulers to monotheistic perceptions of God as elevated above worldly kings It concludes with an assessment of Christian Rome and Constantinople as typifying the evolution from the ancient and classical world to Christendom

Shubert, Kei Yamamoto, 2021-03-20 The wish to affiliate with a specific cultural social or ethnical group is as important today as it was in past societies such as that of the ancient Egyptians The same significance applies to the self presentation of an individual within such a group Although it is inevitable that we perceive ancient cultures through the lens of our time place and value systems we can certainly try to look beyond these limitations Questions of how the ancient Egyptians saw themselves and how individuals tried to establish and thus present themselves in society are central pieces of the puzzle of how we interpret this ancient culture This volume focuses on the topic of identity and self presentation tackling the subject from many different angles the ways in which social and personal identities are constructed and maintained the manipulations of culture by individuals to reflect real or aspirational identities and the methods modern scholars use to attempt to say something about ancient persons Building on the work of Ronald J Leprohon to whom this volume is dedicated contributions in this volume present an overview of our current state of understanding of patterns of identity and self presentation in ancient Egypt The contributions approach various aspects of identity and self presentation through studies of gender literature material culture mythology names and officialdom AEB ,1997
