Edwards Skyscraper Outlet, Outlet Book Company Staff, 1984-09-02 Buildings and Building Management, 1922
Vols for 1933 42 include an annual directory number for 1959 an annual roster of realtors Building the Empire State Donald Friedman, 1998 The construction of the Empire State Building was orchestrated by general contractors Starrett Brothers and Eken premier skyline builders of the 1920s They scheduled the delivery of materials and the construction and recorded daily the number of workers by trade Compiled from these records an in house notebook documented the construction process Meticulously typed on graph paper and illustrated with construction photographs this unique document combines a professional specificity of detail with a charming rhapsody to the firm's crowning achievement Constructed in eleven months the 1250 foot Empire State Building the world's tallest skyscraper from 1931 to 1971 was a marvel of modern engineering The frame rose more than a story a day no comparable building since has matched that rate of ascent The Architect and Building News, 1929 Skyscraper Facades of the Gilded Age Joseph J. Korom, Jr., 2013-02-01 This book is about the design of the facade of 51 of America's most extravagant early skyscrapers Included are the biographies of noted architects and the aristocrats who financed America's first skyscrapers This book discusses the influences of European aesthetic values in America and scandals rogues and class distinctions Interpretations by contemporary critics are sprinkled throughout the text Woven throughout the book are inquiries about the validity of Greek and Roman mythologies and their relationships to modern America and its spirit of invention and progress Foreign traditions were challenged by some architects but then accepted by most Why was it necessary for the long dead hero of a faraway civilization to be included on the facade of a newly invented American skyscraper This book tells why Edward James Lennox Marilyn M.
Litvak, 1996-09-01 From 1876 to 1915 Edward James Lennox was a formidable force in Toronto's architectural community Many of his buildings are still landmarks in a city that continues to evolve Born and educated in Toronto Lennox looked to the past for inspiration but was never captured by it His prototypical Annex houses on Madison Avenue Old City Hall and Casa Loma bear witness to his technical expertise and aesthetic sensibilities Through text and illustrations this volume tells the story of the a resolute architect whose vision helped shape an emerging city and who in his time was called the builder of Toronto Edward James Lennox Builder of Toronto is the first volume in the Canadian Master Architect series Each publication will profile the work of an individual Canadian architect The series editor is Marilyn M Litvak The American Skyscraper, 1850-1940 Joseph J. Korom, 2008 The skyscraper is an American invention that has captured the public's imagination for over a century The tall building is wholly manmade and borne in the minds of those with both slide rules and computers This is the story of the skyscraper's rise and the recognition of those individuals who contributed to its development This volume is unique its approach information and images are fresh and telling The text examines America's first tall buildings the result of twelve years of in depth research by an accomplished and published architect and architectural historian Over 300 compelling photographs charts and notes make this the ultimate tool of reference for this subject Biographies woven throughout with period norms politics and lifestyles help to place featured skyscrapers in context Quite simply there is no book like this The text carefully and insightfully written is clear concise and easily digestible the text being the product of well documented original research written in an informative tone The American Skyscraper 1850 1940 A Celebration of Height is a richly documented journey of a fascinating topic and it promises to be a superb addition to libraries schools of architecture students of architecture and lovers of art
