Effective Leadership In Student Services Voices From The Field:

Effective Leadership in Student Services Linda M. Clement, Scott T. Rickard, 1992-10-07 Based on a study of over two hundred vice presidents deans and directors of student services programs the book reveals the attributes skills and relationships necessary for successful leadership in student services Exemplary leaders in the profession offer pragmatic advice and often inspirational insights on a wide range of issues from their basic philosophies of leadership to how to manage such crises as campus protests or the death of a student The Handbook of Student Affairs Administration George S. McClellan, Jeremy Stringer, 2011-01-11 What issues and trends affect higher education and student affairs today In this fully updated handbook leading experts discuss the answer to this and other essential questions They provide a definitive reference for student affairs professionals at all levels of administration and management The handbook offers specific practical advice as well as broad approaches to planning and problem solving It contains modernized discussions on such critical topics as institutional mission institutional governance understanding campus environments finance and budgeting assessment program planning staff selection training and evaluation and much more The Techniques of Inner Leadership Gilbert W. Fairholm, 2003-10-30 Leadership is fundamentally different from management but traditional leadership skills were based on an ill fitting management oriented model When leadership is recognized as a discrete professional specialty new techniques and methods are needed to operationalize the new values based theories In addition to distinguishing leadership from management this book distinguishes inner leadership practiced by those in the middle ranks from leadership as practiced by the CEO Inner leadership is an applied complex of specialized knowledge theory skills attitudes and attributes used to make things happen in the lives and behavior of other community members The leader's goal is to cause followers to accept the leader's values e.g. his or her standards of what are acceptable goals behavior and overall conduct as their own It is an intimate personal life transforming task that resolves itself into a set of discrete techniques sets of attitudes actions and intentions that distinguish leaders from managers or other corporate workers The special focus of the 21 leadership techniques presented here is on those unique methods of group interaction that characterize leadership activities in the middle of the corporation These techniques represent a substantial body of inner leadership practice that differentiates leadership from all other group roles and functions New Realities in the Management of Student Affairs Ashley Tull, Linda Kuk, 2023-07-03 Student affairs organizations are at a crossroads They face expanding enrollments a concomitant increase need for often more complex services changing demographics a growing cohort of non traditional and first generation students shifting and more demanding responsibilities and increased expectations from the greater campus community parents and external constituents These challenges are intensified by the accelerating speed of advancements in technology globalization innovation and student consumerism and by the long term reality of shrinking resources and limitations on the ability to increase tuition and fees This book shares alternative ideas about organizational design and about ways to restructure roles and responsibilities to enable student affairs organizations to respond to these challenges and demands more effectively at a time of reduced resources It also addresses the many emerging roles that student affairs organizations are increasingly being expected to address such as IT fund raising and development external communications human resources management and professional development as well as research and assessment and describes approaches developed by a variety of institutions The contributors also pay attention to the solutions appropriate for smaller institutions and for community colleges They explore the various dimensions of change and offer frameworks to help student affairs leaders and practitioners to more effectively understand and manage the changes they are confronting and describe ideas and solutions adopted by others within the profession Strategic Planning in Student Affairs Shannon E. Ellis, 2011-01-11 Here finally is a publication completely dedicated to strategic planning in student affairs This volume applies business and nonprofit techniques to higher education bringing the topic of strategic thinking planning and acting to the daily work of the profession Editor Shannon Ellis vice president of student services in the College of Education at the University of Nevada Reno and contributing authors take the student services practitioner through the process of preplanning implementation and assessment They explore the role that student services strategic planning plays in budget work academic relations and crisis management With case studies from Tulane University and University of Nevada Reno and in depth advice from the field this volume provides student affairs professionals with the guidance needed to launch collaborative flexible and effective student services strategic planning in their own institutions This is the 132nd volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Student Services An indispensable resource for vice presidents of student affairs deans of students student counselors and other student services professionals New Directions for Student Services offers guidelines and programs for aiding students in their total development emotional social physical and intellectual Women Administrators in Higher Education Jana Nidiffer, Carolyn Terry Bashaw, 2001-01-04 Shows the tenacious spirit and hard work of women administrators in their struggles to enhance opportunities for women on college campuses Resources in Education , 1993

Leadership and the Culture of Trust Gilbert W. Fairholm, 1994-06-22 Leadership is not something one does alone It is an expression of collective community action unified action of leaders and followers who trust enough to jointly achieve mutual goals The task of creating a culture conducive to interactive trust is perhaps the preeminent leadership task This practical guide identifies the key elements leaders need to manipulate to create such a trust culture in any work environment By learning to shape culture to meet changing needs by learning to be continually responsive to the organization's vision as well as to the needs of a changing follower core the leader can create the situation necessary for any successful organization one where followers can trust others and feel free to work together to gain mutually desired goals Campus Crisis Management Eugene L. Zdziarski, Norbert W. Dunkel, J.
