Alan Wright's autobiography describes his early interest in boats and his chequered career of unusual occupations until he settled into boat construction, tugs and boat design. This book also contains photographs and short descriptions of the yachts, power catamarans and racing anecdotes from New Zealand's most prolific designer plus his devotion to family participation.

Alan had the good fortune to enter a sunrise industry that remained buoyant until the new millennium, when faceless big business began to edge out the priceless personal touch. Spanning over 80 years, Wright's story is a good read, full of serendipitous experiences, humour and quite remarkable achievement.

both would treasure until the end of their days How to Build a Boat celebrates the art of boat building the simple pleasures of working with your hands and the aspirations and glory of new fatherhood John Gornall tells the inspiring story of how even the least skilled of us can make something wonderful if we invest enough time and love The Daily Mail and taps into the allure of an ancient craft interpreting it in a modern way as tribute to the generations yet to come Both the book and place are magical The Sunday Telegraph
