backgrounds this is an invaluable resource and guidebook for anyone seeking a better quality of understanding and engagement with LGBT individuals and communities

The Fenway Guide to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Health Harvey J. Makadon, Jennifer Potter, 2008 The Fenway Guide to Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender Health is the first truly comprehensive clinical reference to enhancing the health care and wellness of LGBT patients Written by leading experts in the field and created in conjunction with Fenway Community Health of Boston one of America's most respected community based research and treatment centers this one of a kind resource examines the unique issues faced by sexual minority patients and provides readers with clear and authoritative guidance Book Jacket Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Aging Douglas C. Kimmel, 2006 This volume fills a unique gap Gerontologists seldom focus on special concerns of gay and lesbian older adults lesbian gay bisexual and transgender aging organizations rarely address issues of aging and the mental health field has demonstrated an ability to marginalize both aging and homosexuality This book lays out the state of knowledge with respect to lesbian gay bisexual and transgender aging physical health sexuality family ties victimization and legal and financial concerns The references at the end of individual chapters and the bibliographical material at the end of the book provide an invaluable resource For any gerontologist intrigued by the interplay of historical changes and individual aging it is difficult to imagine a more powerful example than Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender Aging Evolution of attitudes toward homosexuality the emergence of HIV AIDS and legal protections beginning to be afforded to same sex relationships are all part of the changing world that has shaped and been shaped by lesbian gay bisexual and transgender individuals who are now old Substance Use Disorders in Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Clients Sandra C. Anderson, 2009-07-29 Internalized homophobia alienation poor support structures and high levels of depression all contribute to substance abuse among lesbian gay bisexual and transgender individuals with social activity at bars and clubs reinforcing addictive behavior The threat of bias in treatment programs also prevents many from seeking help An essential resource for human service professionals searching for the latest research on these unique issues this volume features both state of the art practice methods for treating substance use disorders and up to date analyses of sexual orientation and gender identity issues heterosexism and the ethical challenges of working with the LGBT community Sandra Anderson discusses practice with individuals couples families and small groups as well as practice at the program level Drawing on case studies with her own clients and from social service agencies that treat LGBT clients Anderson emphasizes evidence based treatment models including motivational enhancement therapy contingency management the matrix model and community reinforcement Packed with recommendations for effective practice this singular volume confronts the obstacles faced not only by clients with addictions but also by the LGBT population as a whole Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Trans People (LGBT) and the Criminal Justice System Charlotte Knight, Kath Wilson, 2016-05-23 This book explores the experiences of lesbian gay bisexual and trans LGBT communities as victims offenders and staff within the criminal justice system It draws on both emerging and existing LGBT research and campaigns to identify and explore issues relevant to the criminal justice system including agencies of the criminal justice system victimisation domestic violence and abuse transgender experiences LGBT people as offenders international perspectives and the personal experiences of LGBT people Charlotte Knight and Kath Wilson trace the legislative journey toward equal treatment before and after the Wolfenden Report They consider why for example lesbians are over represented on death row in the US how the prosecution characterises them and what part homophobia might play in offending and in sentencing They raise important questions about the causes of and responses to same sex domestic violence and abuse and how the system delivers justice to trans people Sodomy laws and the treatment of LGBT people worldwide are also considered and models of good practice are offered Their insights will be of interest to practitioners policy makers and scholars of the criminal justice system particularly those concerned with the rights of LGBT communities
