The History of Gardens in Painting Nils Büttner, 2008-09-23 This book by Nils Buttner traces the history of gardens as seen through the eyes of artists over the course of 2 000 years The focus of this book is not gardens themselves or different concepts of the garden but rather the representation of gardens in art In this study the author explains why pictures of gardens are a mirror of the social historical and aesthetic context in which gardens were conceived He also examines how artists paint gardens by presenting some 185 beautifully reproduced pictures including full views and details of both well heralded and little known masterpieces The wide ranging coverage includes late medieval devotional pictures featuring Madonnas in idyllic gardens Botticelli's masterwork La Primavera an allegory of love set in a grove of orange trees that was created for a bridal chamber sixteenth century views of well known historic gardens like those of the Vatican which were in demand because of a new interest in geography and topography realistic depictions of nature without any attempt to beautify it by Courbet and other so called naturalists painters gardens like Monet's Giverny and representations of modern gardens like David Hockney's Red Pots in the Garden which are extremely varied in style and reflect the artist's subjectivity In sum the carefully chosen paintings in this book represent a progression of developments in art history and foster a deep appreciation for actual gardens as well as paintings of them
