Effective Human Relations W/Classrm ACT Man (Custom) 10th, 2006-10-02 The Lublin Lectures and Works on Max Scheler Karol Wojtyla, 2023-04-28 The Catholic University of America Press is honored to publish the English Critical Edition of the Works of Karol Wojtya a John Paul II Under the auspices of an international editorial board the English Critical Edition will comprise more than 20 volumes covering all of John Paul s writings and correspondence in the years before and during his papacy This collection is essential for several reasons For one thing gaining access to the saint s writings has posed a significant challenge Except for official papal addresses and documents preserved and disseminated by the Vatican St John Paul s works have been scattered and limited Many documents need a new translation Finally English language audiences have faced the challenge even in the case of published texts of dealing with several languages various translations and textual idiosyncrasies The second volume of the series presents Wojtya s lectures at the Catholic University of Lublin and his works on Max Scheler This volume consists of three parts Karol Wojtya s lectures at the Lublin University from 1954 to 1957 during three academic years Wojtya s articles related to the ethical issues discussed in the Lublin lectures and his habilitation thesis on Max Scheler from 1953 with other essays related more closely to Scheler s thought As was the case with Volume 1 Volume 2 also relies on the original manuscripts and typescripts of Wojtya s works These original texts were compared with the Polish published editions and the significant differences between them were marked in the scholarly apparatus Some of the essays in this volume were never published in English others were never published before The Concept of Human Rights in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Catharina Rachik, Georges Tamer, 2022-12-05 The second volume of the series Key Concepts in Interreligious Discourses points out the roots of the concept of human rights in Judaism Christianity and Islam It shows how far the universal validity of human rights opposes in some crucial points with religious traditions The volume demonstrates that new perspectives are introduced to the general discussion about human rights when related to religious traditions Especially the interreligious viewpoint proves that a new kind of debate about human rights and its history is necessary Thomas Bradwardine: A View of Time and a Vision of Eternity in Fourteenth-Century Thought Edith Wilks Dolnikowski, 2021-12-06 This volume evaluates Thomas Bradwardine s view of time as a mathematical philosophical and theological concept within the context of ancient and medieval discussions of the problem of time The book begins with an historiographical analysis of Bradwardine s mathematical and theological works followed by an examination of the problem of time in classical early medieval and thirteenth century texts Next a series of chapters surveys Bradwardine s view of time as it related to proportionality contingency continuity and predestination A final chapter establishes Bradwardine s place among fourteenth century natural philosophers and theologians As it uses a wide range of Bradwardine s writings this book is able to show how Bradwardine s philosophical and theological views converged This study is especially useful for historians of late medieval science philosophy and theology Wealth, Poverty, and Human Destiny Doug

Bandow, David Schindler, 2014-05-06 The rapid spread of the liberal market order across the globe poses a host of new and complex questions for religious believers indeed for anyone concerned with the intersection of ethics and economics Is the market economy particularly as it affects the poor fundamentally compatible with Christian moral and social teaching Or is it in substantial tension with that tradition In Wealth Poverty and Human Destiny editors Doug Bandow and David L Schindler bring together some of today's leading economists theologians and social critics to consider whether the triumph of capitalism is a cause for celebration or concern Michael Novak Richard John Neuhaus Max Stackhouse and other defenders of democratic capitalism marshal a number of arguments in an attempt to show that among other things capitalism is more Christian in its foundation and consequences than is conceded by its critics that as Stackhouse and Lawrence Stratton write the roots of the modern corporation lie in the religious institutions of the West and that as Novak contends globalization is the natural ecology of Christianity The critics of liberal economics argue on the other hand that it is historically and theologically shortsighted to consider the global capitalist order and the liberalism that sustains it as the only available option Any system which has as its implicit logic that stable and preserving relationships among people places and things do not matter and are of no worth in the words of Wendell Berry should be regarded with grave suspicion by religious believers and all men and women of goodwill Bandow and Schindler take up these arguments and many others in their responses which carefully consider the claims of the essayists and thus pave the way for a renewed dialogue on the moral status of capitalism a dialogue only now re-emerging from under the Cold War rubble The contributors' fresh insightful examinations of the intersection between religion and economics should provoke a healthy debate about the intertwined issues of the market globalization human freedom the family technology and democracy T&T Clark Handbook of Suffering and the Problem of Evil Matthias Grebe, Johannes Grössl, 2023-07-13 This wide-ranging work provides an extensive exploration of the theology of theodicy asking questions such as should all instances of suffering necessarily be understood as evil Why would an omnipotent and benevolent God allow or perpetrate evil Is God unable or unwilling to reduce human and non-human suffering on Earth Does humanity have the capacity to exercise a moral evaluation of God's motives and intentions Conventional disciplinary boundaries have tended to separate theological approaches to these questions from philosophical ones This volume aims to overcome these boundaries by including biblical Part I historical Part II doctrinal Part III philosophical Part IV and pastoral interreligious perspectives and alternative intersections Part V on theodicy Authors include thinkers from analytic and continental traditions multiple Christian denominations and other religions and both established and younger scholars providing a full variety of approaches What unites the essays is an attempt to answer these questions from the perspective of biblical testimony historical scholarship modern theological and philosophical thinking about the concept of God non-Christian religions science and the arts The result is a combination of in-depth analysis and breadth of scope making this a benchmark work for further studies in the theology of suffering and evil Ethics ,
