Dougherty,1990 Students considered at risk are defined as students who lack a sense of identity personal connectedness and personal power Another characteristic of at risk students is the role parents play or fail to play in the at risk behavior A case is made for all students being at risk at some point in their lives Four programs were designed and implemented to help at risk and marginal students at one junior high school The four programs include the OK Club the Quest for Success Skills Program the I CANN Individualized Course Alternative Now or Never and the Student Assistance Council The OK Club is designed to build self esteem and to provide after school support and requires a strong parental component The Quest for Success Skills Program is a transition program which prepares at risk sixth graders for junior high school The I CANN Program provides counseling development of self esteem and a hands on curriculum It also has a strong parental component

The Student Assistance Council involves a staff team that assesses the needs of at risk students and recommends actions to address those needs. A successful program must begin with an attitude of caring. This caring attitude must be reflected by the total school staff toward every student and his or her family. ABL Youth at Risk David Capuzzi, Douglas R. Gross, 2014-11-21

In the latest edition of this best selling text David Capuzzi and Douglas Gross along with 24 experts in the field provide a prevention intervention paradigm to address contemporary issues facing today's youth. Written from a systemic perspective this book offers guidance in helping teens who are struggling with the complex challenges that can be brought on by peers, family members and difficult social environments. Part 1 presents information on at risk population identification, causal factors of problematic behaviors and promotion of resiliency in youth. Part 2 examines the development of at risk behaviors relating to dysfunctional family dynamics, low self esteem, depression, mood disorders and stress and trauma. Part 3 explores the behaviors most often identified as placing youth at risk such as eating disorders, suicidal preoccupation, teen sexuality, gang membership, school violence, substance abuse, homelessness, school dropout and bullying as well as the unique strengths of and stressors faced by multiracial and LGBTQ youth. Case studies illustrate prevention efforts from individual, family, school and community perspectives and text sidebars create greater reader self awareness and enhance the understanding of the concepts, skills and applications of the chapter material. As students continue to engage in online environments for education, social interaction and entertainment, understanding online risk behaviors becomes essential for promoting digital safety and well being. Psychoeducational predictors such as personality traits, mental health status and digital literacy play a significant role in shaping students' online activities and vulnerability to risks like cyberbullying, identity theft and exposure to inappropriate content. The outcomes of these behaviors can have lasting effects on both academic performance and personal development. By identifying these predictors and understanding their impacts, educators, parents and policymakers can develop targeted prevention strategies to give students the skills and knowledge to navigate the digital world. Students Online Risk Behaviors: Psychoeducational Predictors, Outcomes, and Prevention explores the determinants and outcomes of online risk behaviors among school and university students to explain if and how different factors can influence or be influenced by students' online risk behaviors in different developmental periods. It also focuses on prevention programs and actions aimed to promote a safe online culture both in the school and university community. This book covers topics such as internet technology, online behavior and risk management and is a useful resource for educators, psychologists, computer engineers, scientists academicians and researchers Programs and Interventions for Maltreated Children and Families at Risk Allen Rubin, 2011-10-14 Evidence based interventions are increasingly being required by third party payers and an evidence based orientation has come to define ethical practice This compendium of short how to chapters focuses on the programs and interventions to prevent child maltreatment that have the best scientific evidence supporting their effectiveness Interventions and programs discussed include Cognitive Behavioral Therapy EMDR Multisystemic Therapy Coping Cat and many more Busy practitioners will appreciate this book s implementation of evidence based practices by providing the practical and what now rather than using the typical academic approach Dismantling Contemporary Deficit Thinking Richard R. Valencia, 2010-09-13 Deficit thinking is a pseudoscience founded on racial and class bias It blames the victim for school failure instead of examining how schools are structured to prevent poor students and students of color from learning Dismantling Contemporary Deficit Thinking provides comprehensive critiques and anti deficit thinking alternatives to this oppressive theory by framing the linkages between prevailing theoretical perspectives and contemporary practices within the complex historical development of deficit thinking Dismantling Contemporary Deficit Thinking examines the ongoing social construction of deficit thinking in three aspects of current discourse the genetic pathology model the culture of poverty model and the at risk model in which poor students students of color and their families are pathologized and marginalized Richard R Valencia challenges these three contemporary components of the deficit thinking theory by providing incisive critiques and discussing competing explanations for the pervasive school failure of many students in the nation s public schools Valencia also discusses a number of proactive anti deficit thinking suggestions from the fields of teacher education educational leadership and educational ethnography that are intended to provide a more equitable and democratic schooling for all students Resources in Education , 2001-10 Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1997 United States.
