Going To Prison:

Going Local John Pierson, 2007-09-12 Going Local explains how social workers can develop approaches to neighbourhood work engage with users and their locality and contribute to strengthening local communities and how these principles work out in practice in specific services

Mr. Smith Goes to Prison Jeff Smith, 2015-09-01 A senator's account of imprisonment that is partly funny partly urgent and wholly unnerving a mashup of House of Cards and Orange Is the New Black New York Post The fall from politico to prisoner isn't necessarily long but the landing as Missouri State Senator Jeff Smith learned is a hard one In 2009 Smith pleaded guilty to a seemingly minor charge of campaign malfeasance and earned himself a year and one day in Kentucky's FCI Manchester Mr Smith Goes to Prison is the fish out of water story of his time in the big house of the people he met there and the things he learned how to escape the attentions of fellow inmate Cornbread and his friends in the Aryan Brotherhood what constitutes a prison car and who's allowed to ride in yours how to bend and break the rules whether you're a prisoner or an officer And throughout his sentence the young Senator tracked the greatest crime of all the deliberate waste of untapped human potential Smith saw the power of millions of inmates harnessed as a source of renewable energy for America's prison industrial complex a system that aims to build better criminals instead of better citizens In Mr Smith Goes to Prison he traces the cracks in America's prison walls exposing the shortcomings of a racially based cycle of poverty and crime that sets inmates up to fail Speaking from inside experience he offers practical solutions to jailbreak the nation from the financially crushing grip of its own prisons and to jumpstart the rehabilitation of the millions living behind bars Hilarious insightful and disturbing all at once Daily Kos

You are Going to Prison Jim Hogshire, 1999

The Prisoners' World William Tregear, Marjorie Larmour, 2009-01-01 Drawing on twenty five years of teaching prison college and volunteer classes in eleven Michigan and California prisons The Prisoners World strives to make the prisoners voice come alive for regular college students The book starts off by tracing shifts in social definitions of criminality and lays out the premises of the U S incarceration binge in the 1986 War on Drugs laws and subsequent mandatory sentencing and policing Later chapters discuss issues such as leaving home cell life correctional officers and treatment the homosexual prisoner and drugs Furthermore the book discusses the teachers experiences via author narrative essays that draw the reader into prisoner student and prisoner teacher interaction and what it is like inside prison college classes where both young and older black prisoner students describe growing up in the inner cities The book also draws upon over sixty prisoner essays that provide insight on prisoner life and self concept with insights on pathways to prison drug selling the inner city and guns There is also a strong focus on the inside experiences of entering prison and orientation daily work routine correctional officers and surreptitious activities like cell cooking and contraband These essays are capped by prisoner critiques of prison life from those still in the system The Prisoners World serves as a successful supplemental book whose material has proven useful in undergraduate criminal justice classes As college students themselves on campus students in these classes will identify with the prisoner student voices who share their experiences but in a radically different environment Young black people and the criminal justice system Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Home Affairs Committee,2007-06-15 Young black people and the criminal justice System Second report of session 2006 07 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence Dead to Deliverance Steve Champion,2010 Cody Coffey,2009-11 I wrote this book because I feel there is a reason for all that is going on in the world a cauldron of misery suffering anguish and strife Everyone is caught up in it and those who feel they are not or feel they have an educated reason and philosophy for what they see are not seeing the bigger picture Most people come up with the biggest most elaborate questions and answers but most do not tap into another reason or meaning for what life is about and what is transpiring What if there is a very deeper meaning deeper purpose besides the basic fundamentals of life that we know of and our purpose here What if everything we say do and think about are just conforming to our own selfish reasons I am trying to put forth the argument of what the real reasons are The answers so many accept and try to figure out based on nothing else but the theoretical speculation and trial and error The most brilliant minds in the world the most compelling arguments explanations and theories have played and still play a major role into where we are where we are going and what we have reduced ourselves to While many may look to rationalize an incoherent world with rational thought many are ignoring what could be a devastating calamity taken place right under our noses Something so subtle that it is less resound then a feather hitting the ground half way around the world yet would have the impact to wipe out humanity or create hell on earth Prison Profiteers Tara Herivel,Paul Wright,2011-05-10 No country in history has ever handed over so many inmates to private corporations This book looks at the consequences Eric Schlosser bestselling author of Fast Food Nation In Prison Profiteers coeditors Tara Herivel and Paul Wright follow the money to an astonishing constellation of prison administrators and politicians working in collusion with private parties to maximize profits Publishers Weekly From investment banks guard unions and the makers of Taser stun guns to health care providers telephone companies and the US military which relies heavily on prison labor this network of perversely motivated interests has turned the imprisonment of 1 out of every 135 Americans into a lucrative business Called an essential read for anyone who wants to understand what s gone wrong with criminal justice in the United States by ACLU National Prison Project director Elizabeth Alexander this incisive and deftly researched volume shows how billions of tax dollars designated for the public good end up lining the pockets of those private enterprises dedicated to keeping prisons packed An important analysis of a troubling social trend that is sure to inform and outrage any concerned citizen Prison Profiteers reframes the conversation by exposing those who stand to profit from the imprisonment of millions of Americans Booklist Indispensable An easy and accessible read and a necessary one The San Diego Union Tribune This is lucid eye opening reading for anyone interested in American justice Publishers Weekly Impressive A thoughtful comprehensive and accessible analysis of the money trail behind the prison industrial complex The Black Commentator

Mortland,2008-03-05 The Khmer Rouge ruled Cambodia for three years eight months and twenty days After overthrowing

Lon Nol in April 1975 and establishing a so called Democratic Kampuchea the Communist sponsored government was responsible for the deaths of as many as two million people almost one third of the country's population Here Chileng Pa vividly recalls life under the Cambodian Communists Attempting to conceal his identity as a policeman for the previous government Chileng changed his name and moved his family to the village of Prayap near the Vietnamese border In April of 1977 after two years of starvation and cruelty at the hands of the Khmer Rouge Chileng was forced to watch as Communist guerillas brutally murdered his wife and two year old son With nothing left for him in Prayap Chileng fled to Vietnam but eventually returned to Cambodia as part of a Vietnamese invasion force that would end the bloody reign of the Khmer regime In 1981 Chileng and his new family found their way to America His simple strand of remembrance serves to honor all those who died at the hands of the Khmer Rouge
