Going Some Place Creative Nonfiction Across Canada:

Wild Words Donna Coates, George Melnyk, 2009 As the first collection of literary criticism focusing on Alberta writers Wild Words establishes a basis for identifying Alberta fiction poetry drama and nonfiction as valid subjects of study in their own right The idea for this collection began with 100 years of literary tradition for Alberta s centenary However Alberta s literary roots go back much farther than that to the oration of First Nation s peoples and the colonizing exploration and travel literature of the 18th and 19th centuries Hidden Lives Lenore Rowntree, Andrew Boden, 2017-06-08 A revised and updated edition of a collection of personal essays that illuminate what life is like for those who live with mental illness and how it impacts their family members More than 4 million Canadians and 57 million Americans suffer from a diagnosable mental illness and yet there are still considerable stigmas and a great deal of misunderstanding surrounding even the most common diagnoses schizophrenia bipolar disorder autism obsessive compulsive disorder clinical depression post traumatic stress disorder and dissociative identity disorder Rather than analyze the diagnoses and symptoms these first hand accounts focus on the very essence of a psycho emotional breakdown and respond to the mental physical and emotional turmoil it inevitably causes What does a mother do when her teenage son s personality suddenly fractures How does a police officer cope when his employer refuses to provide adequate care until he can prove his PTSD is work related How do children grow up under the care of a manic father whose illness lands him in and out of medical and social incarceration Raw honest and painful these essays communicate disappointment and despair but also courage and compassion They offer a lifeline for sufferers and support for their friends and family and promote new and improved attitudes toward those with mental illness With a foreword by respected physician bestselling author and renowned speaker Dr Gabor Mat Hidden Lives gives readers a place to turn and provides a platform to share their struggle Nobody's Mother Marlene A. D. Lynne Van Luven, 2006 Statistics say that one in 10 women has no intention of taking the plunge into motherhood Nobody s Mother is a collection of stories by women who have already made this choice From introspective to humorous to rabble rousing these are personal stories that are well and honestly told The writers range in age from early 30s to mid 70s and come from diverse backgrounds All have thought long and hard about the role of motherhood their own destinies what mothering means in our society and what their choice means to them as individuals and as members of their ethnic communities or social groups Contributors include Nancy Baron a zoologist and science writer who works in the United States for eaWeb COMPASS and has won two Science in Society awards a National Magazine Award and a Western Magazine Award for Science Lorna Crozier well known poet and the author of a dozen books as well as the recipient of a Governor General s award and numerous other writing prizes Cautiously Hopeful Marie Carrière, 2020-10-22 If feminism has always been characterized by its divisions it is metafeminism a term coined by Lori Saint Martin that defines and embraces that disorder As a carefully devised reading practice metafeminism understands contemporary feminist literature and theory as both recalling and extending the tropes and politics of the past In Cautiously Hopeful Marie Carri re brings together seemingly disparate writing by Anglo Canadian Indigenous and Qu b cois women authors under the banner of metafeminism Familiarizing readers with major streams of feminist thought including intersectionality affect theory and care ethics Carri re shows how literary works by such authors as Dionne Brand Nicole Brossard Naomi Fontaine Larissa Lai Tracey Lindberg and Rachel Zolf among others tackle the entanglement of gender with race settler invader colonialism heteronormativity positionality language and the posthuman condition Meanwhile tenable alliances among Indigenous women women of colour and settler feminist practitioners emerge Carri re s tone is personal and accessible throughout in itself a metafeminist gesture that both encompasses and surpasses a familiar feminist form of writing Despite the growing anti feminist backlash across media platforms and in various spheres of political and social life a hopefulness animates this timely work that like metafeminism stands alert to the challenges that feminism faces in its capacity to effect social change in the twenty first century In the Flesh Lynne Van Luven, Kathy Page, 2012-04-03 Living is a process of continuous transformation we have been embryos children adolescents thin fat sick better again And as humans we are always at odds with at least one part of our bodies Have we inherited the family nose Is there nothing to be done for our finicky stomach or our limp hair In the Flesh is an intelligent witty and provocative look at how we think about and live within our bodies The editors and writers in this collection describe in many voices what human bodies feel now Each author s candid essay focuses on one part of the body and explores its function its meanings and the role it has played in his or her life Written from both the male and female perspectives contributors include Caroline Adderson Andr Alexis Taiaiake Alfred Brian Brett Trevor Cole Dede Crane Lorna Crozier Candace Fertile Stephen Gauer Julian Gunn Heather Kuttai Susan Olding Kate Pullinger Marilyn Simonds Richard Steel Madeleine Thien Sue Thomas and Margaret Thompson Kristjana Gunnars Monique Tschofen, 2004 The writings collected here all testify to the complexity of Gunnars s literary vision as much as they testify to the sheer pleasures of reading her work In her interview Gunnars speaks both as a reader and a writer describing the form and modes of address of her work as well as the philosophical and literary traditions she draws from The nine essays and two poems that follow organized chronologically according to the publication dates of the primary texts they treat represent a broad range of approaches to Kristjana Gunnars s work The contributors are M Travis Lane Judith Owens Janice Kulyk Keefer Deidre Lynch Stephen Scobie Anne Malena Siobhan O Flynn K I Press and Christl Verduyn It is my hope that readers will find in this critical community some productive points of entry into Gunnars s corpus that will stimulate their own thinking about her words and ideas from the Introduction by Monique Tschofen Canadian Books in Print. The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Bailey, KaaVonia Hinton, 2022-09-01 This collection presents life writing projects that explore or represent the racial dimensions of life writing research in diverse educational spaces using diverse methodologies and inquiry approaches We believe this collection is long overdue To quote Melva R Grant and Signe E Kastberg's succinct phrasing this volume racialized inquiry matters While some rich texts explore the racial aspects and anti racist potential of social science research Blee 2018 Lopez Sefa Dei Twine Warren 2000 and include examples from educational contexts there are no collections which focus on the intersections of life writing inquiry as educative projects that highlight racial dimensions of the work and lives under study Drawing from Toni Morrison's enduring wisdom a visionary writer whose work has explored the racial dimensions of culture and lived experience we centralize race in life writing in this collection rather than obscuring it or leaving it as a lurking absent presence in the craft Racial Dimensions of Life Writing Research offers a wealth of ideas and perspectives from which scholars teachers and students can draw to support their work The 14 chapters in this collection attend to national international and local concerns include varied theoretical and methodological approaches and reflect a range of ethnic and racial heritages Chapters consider practical theoretical ethical and educational issues involved in projects concerning under represented educational actors important for the terrain of life writing The authors include established and emerging scholars university researchers directors and professors academic advisors graduate and undergraduate students activists and former elementary and secondary school teachers It is our hope that this volume will spark conversation debate and reflection and will be a valuable resource that inspires scholarship about how race and its intersections shape the life writing inquiry process

ENDORSEMENT This is an exceptionally important volume interrogating intersections of race racism and life writing Authors recenter life narrative as a necessary anchor for studying teaching about and learning through complex racial dynamics This book should be read by any of us serious about studying and advancing knowledge on race and writing

Canadian Literature and Medicine Shane Neilson, 2023-09-08 Canadian Literature and Medicine breaks new ground by formulating a series of frameworks with which to read and interpret a national literature derived from the very fabric of that literature in this case Canadian Canadian literature is of particular interest because of its consideration of coloniality Indigeneity and coincident development alongside a nascent socialized medical system currently under threat from neoliberalism The first chapters of the book carefully track the development of Canada's socialized medical system as it manifests in the imaginations of the nation's poets and authors who depict care Reciprocal flows are investigated in which these poets and authors are quoted in policy documents The archive based methodology is sustained in subsequent chapters that rely upon a unique interdisciplinary mix of medical history philosophy of medicine medical policy theory inherent to the field of Canadian literature focusing in particular on the garrison mentality as a form of aesthetic protest and the feminist ethics of care and Indigenous ways of knowing

If I Go Missing Brianna Jonnie, 2019-12-03 If I Go Missing is derived from excerpts of a letter that went viral and was also the basis of a documentary film In her letter Jonnie calls out the authorities for neglecting to immediately investigate missing Indigenous people and urges them to not treat me as the Indigenous person I am proud to be if she were to be reported missing Indigenous artist Neal Shannacappo provides the artwork Through his illustrations he imagines a situation in which a young Indigenous woman does disappear portraying the reaction of her community her friends the police and media

Facing Trauma in Contemporary American Literary Discourse Laura Virginia Castor, 2019-10-08 Trauma has always been part of the American collective experience but only since September 11 2001 has it been acknowledged on a widespread scale Most people will experience some form of trauma during their lifetime but in contemporary American culture it is often understood as a problem to be blamed on someone fought or repressed entirely Despite burgeoning trauma studies popular responses to trauma from the media to politics produce ever more aggression and fear This book responds to this growing awareness through literary analyses of texts by Louise Erdrich Siri Hustvedt Melanie Thernstrom Nicole Krauss Joy Harjo Linda Hogan Jhumpa Lahiri and Toni Morrison Considered separately each chapter provides a lens into a historically situated trauma and the process of renegotiating it Read together they function as voices in an ongoing conversation that affirms the power of narrative A good story can become a space for curiosity in the face of trauma and uncertainty A story opens imaginative possibilities for asking in what ways can readers bring more awareness to the benefits of seeing our planetary interdependence in the midst of global polarization The readings of novels autobiographical texts and poems here suggest how this question is among the most valuable we can ask in the early 21st century
