Golden Goals Rusted Realities Work And Aging In America:

Golden Goals, Rusted Realities Richard Mowseian, 1986 The Oxford Handbook of Work and Aging Jerry W. Hedge, Walter C. Borman, 2012-04-19 Global aging technological advances and financial pressures on health and pension systems are sure to influence future patterns of work and retirement This handbook offers an international multi disciplinary perspective examining the aging workforce from an individual worker organization and societal perspective Soul Pain Helen Black, 2018-10-26 This book explores the multifaceted experience of suffering in old age Older adults suffer from a variety of causes such as illness loss and life disappointment to name a few Suffering also occurs due to experiences related to one's gender ethnic background and religion Although gerontological literature has equated suffering with depression grief pain and sadness elders themselves distinguished suffering from these concepts and at the same time showed how they are linked Narratives of suffering from community dwelling elders are interpreted in this book along with the personal meaning of suffering that lies within each narrative Aging in America, 1988 Who Will Care for Grandma? Brent R. Kelly, 2009-01-01 It is amazing to realize that much of the Western medical community is in a love hate relationship with the economics of medicine Quality Adjusted Life Years QALYs is one of the primary methods of guiding many medical decision makers in the allocation of limited medical resources Herein lies the problem of medicine and economics It seems that deciding who will receive limited medical resources is a task filled with moral and ethical difficulties even for those depending on the information obtained from QALY calculations These moral and ethical difficulties are beyond the scope of sound bites that tout the benefits of universal health care affordable insurance or the safety of the free market economy The breadth of the difficulty is found in the widespread disagreement concerning how the health care system should be distributed or fixed since most will agree that there is a problem with distributing medical resources It seemed obvious that some difficult decisions will need to be made that few are both willing and able to make This difficulty is particularly true in decisions about health care allocation and that is where QALYs have been found useful and problematic Limiting medical care for the elderly based upon their age did not occur until the mid twentieth century possibly because the elderly held a unique position of respect in the Western community It is no longer the case that the elderly are given a unique position of respect and dignity Rather it seems that with the increased use of QALY calculations the elderly are in danger of receiving less medical care than they are warranted It is imperative that Christians respond to the ethical implications of significant models of resource allocation that currently assist decision makers in the allocation process such as QALYs Older Americans in the Workforce, 1987 Older Workers Sara E. Rix, 1990 The book provides practical useful information and advice for older adults who are either staying in or returning to the work force The Older Worker Monroe Berkowitz, 1988 Comprises nine papers which explore labour market characteristics and employment issues of older workers Includes chapters on special problems of older women workers functioning ability and job performance as workers age the Richard Olikier,1990 The Career Development Quarterly ,2000 Futurevision Howard F. Didsbury, Jr.,1996 Futurevision represents a new stage in the evolution of near term research and speculation into the world of tomorrow This volume which brings together twenty five leading experts in a variety of social and scientific areas attempts to foresee likely harmful or undesirable results of advances in scientific and technological ingenuity In developing an early warning system designed to elicit prudent reflection and timely action futurism has now entered the mainstream of social thought The volume is divided into eight categories the future of work education management sustainability projections about the future decline or revitalization medical ethics and the global scene as such Among the major issues taken up are the threat of persistent technological unemployment in high tech societies approaches to teaching about the future new forms of specialization and speculation virtual learning in simulated contexts planning models in business and industry that permit rapid shifts changes in the economy that result from a move from a product to a service based economy patterns of innovation in agriculture using less space to feed more people and the general analysis of forecasting and predicting future events with present methodologies Futurevision aims to recast the basic fault lines of current social scientific and technological analysis The volume emphasizes long term perspectives future relevant research and thinking weapons analysis and warfare population and planetary exploration examining what constitutes significant knowledge in this new environment and the broad area of learning and caring in meaningful contexts There is a new seriousness in future research that will be appealing to students and teachers and researchers of sociology psychology and economics especially those working with current data and qualitative research techniques Southern California Law Review ,1991 Aging, the Individual, and Society Georgia M.
