Parliament. House of Commons, 1877 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles Bradley, James Augustus Henry Murray, Murray, 1914 Stepping Forth into the World Edward J. M. Rhoads, 2011-02-01 The Chinese Educational Mission was one of the earliest efforts at educational modernization in China As part of the Self Strengthening Movement the Qing government sent 120 students to New England to live and study for a decade before they were abruptly summoned home to China in 1881 This book based upon extensive research in local archives and newspapers focuses on the experiences of the students during their nine year stay in the United States Historians of modern China will find this book highly relevant because of its detailed account of one of the major projects of the Self Strengthening Movement To date there are at most two credible studies in English and Chinese on the Chinese Educational Mission both are deficient in source citation and tend to dwell on the students experiences after their return to China rather than during their stay in America This volume will also appeal to specialists in Asian American studies for its comparing and contrasting the experiences of the Chinese students with those of other Chinese in the United States during a period of rising anti Chinese sentiment which culminated in the enactment of Chinese Exclusion in 1882 This book offers a slightly different perspective than most other works on the nature of the anti Chinese movement which may have been more class based rather than race based The compare and contrast of students from China with those from Japan which also sent large numbers of students to New England at roughly the same period of time will be of interest to East Asian comparative historians as well Edward J M Rhoads is a professor emeritus in history at the University of Texas at Austin He is the author of China's Republican Revolution The Case of Kwangtung 1895-1913 and Manchus and Han Ethnic Relations and Political Power in Late Qing and Early Republican China 1861-1928 Rhoads has meticulously constructed the individual and collective histories of the 120 young men and boys sent by a beleaguered late Qing government to live and acquire English and Western knowledge in white New England families schools and universities As the vanguard of legions of Chinese students who have studied in the U S since and as contemporaries of the far more numerous Chinese coolies whose paths they never crossed this compelling study adds a surprising new chapter to early Asian American history Evelyn Hu DeHart Professor of History and Ethnic Studies Director Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity in America Brown University Annual Report of the Department of the Interior United States. Department of the Interior, 1875 Henry Hocker Seltzer, Pennsylvania Dutch Teacher, Civil Servant, and Physician - Memories of 1856-1915 Henry Hocker Seltzer, 2018-09-13 This is my great grandfather's autobiography He grew up on a farm near Belle Grove Pennsylvania Pennsylvania Dutch was spoken in the home English was his second language putting him at a disadvantage when he went to school but he became very bookish proud of his educational accomplishments For 10 years he taught in one room schoolhouses in Pennsylvanian Dutch farm country At times he handled alone as many as 65 students ranging in age from 5 to 21 and for a wage of $33 month He had to deal with the vagaries of rural schools with behavior problems and parents who had little respect for book learning and arbitrary decisions of county level school administration During corn husking sometimes only 3-5 students would show up He traveled by train to Kansas in 1878 and almost settled there Later he got a civil service bookkeeping job with the US Treasury Dept and wrote a bookkeeping text book for farmers And at the age of 40 he got an M D degree from what later became George Washington University
